A paper for every family, and we mean not only every family, but single people as well, when we recommend to all the American Agriculturist—the most valuable and the cheapest journal in the world. We have received the first of the new Volume, which begins the Second Quarter century, and find it of unexampled excellence and beauty while the publishers announce still greater things to come.

Lieutenant Robert Wells, son of Thaddeus Wells, shot himself through the head with a pistol in his father's study. He entered the room with a pistol in his hand, threw his arm around his father's neck, kissed him, exclaiming "farewell," and putting the pistol to his right temple, fired, the ball passing through his head.

Thomas Pope, at Missouri City Junction, Illinois, got married, rented a house, bought furniture, and went to housekeeping. Ten days after the marriage, Mrs. Pope ran away, came back, but Mr. Pope wouldn't receive her.

Some days ago an application was made by J. A. S. Redgely, of Baltimore, to Chief Justice Chase, for a writ of habeas corpus for the release of Dr. Mudd, one of the persons condemned by the military commission which tried the Booth conspirators to imprisonment for life at the Dry Tortugas.

John Wagner, of Old Manheim township, York county, let a footman get into a buggy with him a few days since, and after they had been riding a few miles the passenger he had picked up asked him to smell at a phial which he uncorked. This Mr. Wagner did and knew nothing more until he found himself robbed and lying in a fence corner next morning.

There is a rumor that Miss Susan Denin, the well known actress, has united her fortunes in marriage with a well known young man named Peter Carley. The ceremony, so the story goes, was performed at the Delavan House, Albany, on Monday last.

BURIED ALIVE.—Mrs. J. H. McClure, the wife of a farmer living some miles east of the city, was taken sick on the 2d inst., and the 4th she ceased to breathe, and it was apparent to every one that she was dead. On the 5th she was buried in the family vault. An old lady, in company with the children of the deceased, visited the vault, when they were startled by hearing groans issuing therefrom, which so frightened the old lady that she fainted. The children, becoming terrified, ran home and related the circumstances to their father, who, with three or four of his neighbors repaired to the vault, broke open the door, raised the coffin lid, and there— what a sight to meet a husband's eye— was the living mangled form of his wife! The flesh on her fingers was torn and bleeding, her face was mutilated, and hair partly torn out by the roots, in her efforts to escape the living death to which she had been assigned. What horror-perrades the mind at the thought of being buried alive! What must have been her sufferings, her imaginations, and her thoughts during the time she was confined alive in that lonely, narrow prison house of the dead? The mind wanders, and reason itself is prone to take its flight at the bare contemplation of such a horrible situation. She was immediately removed to the house and medical attendance summoned, and we understand that she is now in a fair way of recovery.—Quincy (Ill.) Herald.

Everybody who is in the streets at a late hour of the night or early in the morning may notice individuals about the fronts of the restaurants, hotels and bar-rooms, gathering from the streets and gutters the stumps of cigars that have been swept out or emptied from spittoons, and will doubtless wonder what possible use can be made of them. For the benefit of pipesmokers and tobacco chewers we can give some information on that subject. There are a number of establishments in this city to which this filthy refuse is taken and sold, and where it goes through the following process: It is washed, dried in the sun or over a fire, placed in a small mill and ground, and then neatly put up in small packages, and sold as a superior quality of fine cut chewing and smoking tobacco of various fancy brands. The quantity of "old soldiers," as the boys call them, thus gathered, remodelled and sold every day, is almost incredible. The general quality of the tobacco which goes through this process is said to be excellent.—Torney's Press.

A Detroit journal has the following account of a mistake in the marriage service:

Last evening Edward Thayer and Helen F. Julliman, attended by Mr. Austin Humphrey and Annie E. Crausa went to St. Paul's church, the former couple to get married, and the latter to act as groomsmen and bridesmaid. They all stood up before the altar and officiating clergyman, the Rev. Mr. Dunn, supposing that both couples were to be married, requested the gentlemen to join hands with their respective ladies, which was done, and in a very short space of time the four were made two. The situation being fully realized by the latter couple they concluded to accept what they could not very well help, and all adjourned to their boarding house quite well pleased with the result of the preacher's mistake.

Not long ago a melodeon was purchased and used in the Methodist church at College Corner, Ind. Some of the members were strongly opposed to its introduction, and so much ill feeling resulted that the young piano was finally carried out of the church one night by unknown parties and burned up. Recently another melodeon was procured and placed in the church; but it was also demolished.

State Treasurer, Wm. H. Kemble, has directed to be prepared at once a list of the soldiers of 1812 entitled to pensions from the State of Pennsylvania. Separate lists for each county will, as soon as they are completed, be forwarded by Mr. Kemble to the treasurers thereof, which officers will pay the semi-annual pensions due on the 1st of January, 1867.

The Nebraska News states that there is more corn, wheat and cattle raised in Nebraska, in proportion to its population, than any State in the Union. It says that this year one county alone has a surplus of wheat amounting to 250,000 bushels, and has sold 80,000 head of beef cattle in the market since the first of July last.

Captain Charles A. Boutelle, of Augusta, Me., recovered a watch recently which was stolen from him six years ago, in Liverpool, England. He was in a covert room at the time it was stolen, and immediately made the fact known to the detectives there, who, after six years succeeded in finding it.

The first and only execution in Montgomery county, Pa., took place on the 12th of April, 1788, when John Brown was hung for burglary. They are to have another in a few days.

SPECIAL NOTICES. Allcock's Pains Expeller. Lane Back, New-York, Nov. 23, 1859. T. Allcock & Co. Gentlemen: I lately suffered severely from a weakness in my back. Having heard your plasters much recommended for cases of this kind, I procured one, and the result was all I could desire. A single plaster cured me in a week. Yours, &c., J. G. Baross, proprietor of the Brandreth House.

Cure of Crick in the Back, and Lumbago. Lyons, N. Y., July 4, 1862. Messrs. Allcock & Co. Please send me a dollar's worth of your plasters. They have cured me of a crick in my back, which has troubled me for some time, and now my father is going to try them for difficulty about his heart. L. H. SHERWOOD.

Dr. Green, No. 863 Broadway, New York, informs us he told, on Monday, June 22, '62, two plasters to a young woman suffering very severely from lumbago. On Thursday she called to get two more for a friend, and then stated how the two she had purchased on Monday had relieved her immediately after putting them on, and cured her in two days of a most distressing pain in her back and loins. Sold by all druggists.

INVIGORATE THE RESPONSIBLE ORGAN.—The stomach is the responsible organ of the system. If the digestion is imperfect, every member, every gland, every muscle, every nerve and fibre is more or less out of order! All the fluids are depraved. The brain is clouded. The spirits are depressed. All dyspeptics know this to be the truth. It is not, however, half the truth. Columbus would be required to enumerate the pains and penalties of dyspepsia, nor could any pen do them justice. Tens of thousands feel them; no man can describe them.

Can they be prevented? Can they be relieved? Can they be banished at once and forever? Unquestionably they can. No dyspeptic has ever taken "Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" in vain. Believe no one who says the complaint is incurable. The great vegetable stomachic will eradicate it—eradicating it in the thousands of cases over which medical practitioners have shaken their heads ominously, saying "Nothing can be done."

The faculty has its fallacies. One of them is that Indigestion is the most difficult of all the ordinary ailments of mankind to combat and subvert. This is a mistake. Nothing can be easier than to conquer it, if the true specific be administered. This vegetable combination which has become famous throughout the civilized world as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is an antidote to the disease which has never been known to fail, and fortunately it is everywhere procurable. If you wish to root out the dyspepsia, try the pharmacopoea prescriptions. If you want to root it out and prevent its recurrence, take the Bitters daily. There is no dissent on the testimony in its favor if there is a man or woman who has ever tried it for indigestion without being benefited, the fact has not transpired. Universal, uncontradicted praise avouches its wonderful tonic virtues.

A HUSBAND.—How often we hear this expression from persons reading advertisements of Patent Medicines, and in nine cases out of ten they may be right. It is over 19 years since I introduced my medicine, the Venetian Linctus to the public. I had no money to advertise it, so I left it for sale with a few druggists and storekeepers through a small section of country, many taking it with great reluctance; but I told them to let any one have it, and if it did not do all I stated on my pamphlet, no one need pay for it. In some stores two or three bottles were taken on trial by persons present. I was, by many, thought crazy, and that would be the last they would say of me. But I knew my medicine was no humbug. In about two months I began to receive orders for more Linctus, some calling it my valuable Linctus, who had refused to sign a receipt when I left it at their store. Now my sales are millions of bottles yearly, and all for cash. I warrant it superior to any other medicine for the cure of Croup, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Colic, Vomiting, Spasms, and Sea-sickness, as an internal remedy. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, see each accompanying each bottle, and externally, for Chronic Rheumatism, Headache, Mumps, Frosted Feet, Bruises, "Prain, Old Sores, Swellings, Sore Throats, &c., &c. Sold by the Druggists. Depot: 66 Cortland Street, N. Y.

SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC. This medicine invented by Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, is intended to dissolve the food and make it into chyme, the first process of digestion. By cleansing the stomach with Schenck's Mandrake Pills, the tonic soon restores the appetite, and food that could not be eaten before using it will be easily digested. Consumption cannot be cured by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup unless the stomach and liver is made healthy and the appetite restored, hence the Tonic and Pills are required in nearly every case of consumption. A half dozen bottles of the SEAWEED TONIC and three or four boxes of the MANDRAKE PILLS will cure any ordinary case of dyspepsia.

Dr. Schenck makes professional visits in New York, Boston, and at his principal office in Philadelphia every week. See daily papers of each place, or his pamphlet on consumption for his days for visitation.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health, are on the Government stamp. Sold by all druggists and dealers, price $1.50 per bottle or $7.50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's Principal office, No. 15 North 6th Street, Philadelphia, Pa. General Wholesale Agents: Dumas Barnes & Co., N. Y.; S. S. Hauce, Baltimore, Md.; John D. Parke, Cincinnati, Ohio; Walker & Taylor, Chicago, Ill.; Collins Bros., St. Louis, Missouri. [Oct. 20 '66-ly-lst-w.]

Reasons why the American Watch Made at WALTHAM, Mass., IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. Its Case is composed of solid plates. No brass interferes with the harmony of its workings and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (self famous for its novelty, as well as for its efficiency) and is therefore perfectly made. The Watch is what all in choosing should be—accurate, simple, strong and economical. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "ancient," "Japanese" and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign impositions; the refuse of foreign factories, which were entirely unsuitable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this, may be understood from the fact that after many years of public trial, we now make more than half of all the watches sold in the United States, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very highest grade known to Chronometry, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the simplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main building, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted, and this warranty is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

MARIETTA ACADEMY.

South West Corner of Market Square. This Academy is situated on the corner of the Squabtown, in the pleasant town of Marietta, Hancock county, Pa. It contains about 3000 inhabitants and four Evangelical churches of different denominations, to which parents can have a choice of sending their youth. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company run four Passenger Trains through the place daily, making it easy of access from any part of the State, which renders it peculiarly desirable to parents who may wish to send their sons and daughters from home to be educated. The present Principal feels greatly encouraged at the patronage extended to him, and he trusts that he is determined that nothing shall be left undone to make it one of the best schools in the State for obtaining a thorough education.

The branches taught embrace all those of a thorough English and Classical education, together with French and German, Drawing, Painting, Vocal and Instrumental Music. Every branch will be taught in the most thorough manner. Whilst the principal will constantly aim to make thorough scholars, he still regards it less important to incur a debt of gratitude to parents, than to secure the present and future welfare of those committed to his charge.

Lectures upon scientific subjects will be delivered before the students during the season. TERMS.—The Second Year is divided into two seasons of five months each. The first session commencing on the third Monday in September and closing in February. The spring session will open on the 1st of May in March.

For boarding, washing and light per session of five months, $80.00 Tuition in English branches, 100.00 For Latin, Greek, French and German, each extra, 2.00 Book keeping, 2.00 Lessons in Drawing, 2.00 Instructional Music, 2.00 A regular examination will be held at the close of each term.

Persons wishing to place their sons or daughters in this Institution will please make early application by letter or otherwise. R. S. MAXWELL, Principal.
