In Independent Pennsplbania Journal for the Bome Circle. /OL. XIII.---NO. MARIETTA, PA., SATURDAY, JANUARY 19, 1867. FRED'K L. BAKER. ade fontes stat bacture un Written for The Maniettian. 1 2 (1994) minutes thereafter, to their utter dis-For The Mariettian. In presenting him, therefore, before SLEEPING IN CHURCH, VS. SLEEPING IN A may. Almost ran down with fatigue and TWO LITTLE PAIRS OF BOOTS TER.MS. WHO IS RESPONSIBLE the foot lights of the public stage, as The Mariettian is publi hed weekly, fright, but mutually supposing that they inda to avera sichurch-y/ro: averal land. Two little pairs of boots to-aight well as in the portraiture of private life When a horse is car lessly left stand-And a-year, payable in advance. were trying to circumvent each other, Before the fire are drying, ( both of which are the objects of this "Jindsay's Building," near "St office corner, Marietta, Lanthey immediately wheeled about and ran ing on the street, and dashes, off, at, a BY GRANTELLUS. Two little pairs of tired feet sketch ), the introduction to our audifurious rate imperiling the life or limbs for life in opposite directions again, and ೆಯಿದ ಖಟ್ಟುಗಳು ಸಿ In a trundle bed are lying ; ence may as wall be in the language; of of those who happen, to be in his way, "The moon shines bright; On such a night by circuitous rontes safely reached their county, Pa. The 'rack: they left upon the floor tratisements will be inserted at the Rev: William Henry Milburn, the half-The owner is charged with culpability Did. Thisbe fearfully o'erstrip the dew ; respective homes, and on the morrow Make me feel much like sighing. blind chaplain of Congress. : It is as ac And saw the lion's shadow ere himself, Junio rates : One square, ten lines that deserves punishment . A wild beast when they arose, the one stoutly avered Those little boots with copper toes! And ran dismayed away 5" (22) 165, 10 cents for the first insertion, curate as ever written of him. After escaped from a menagerie, in Ohio, last he saw grim death, and the other as times for $1:50. P: ofession-They ran the livelong day ; . There are not many people-and as summer, and caused such a state of conspeaking briefly of John Quincy Adams confidently maintained he saw the devil. And oftentimes I almost wished it is desirable that a story teller and a 107 Business Carris, of six lines or less, and a few other veterans, he then prosternation and excitement throughout it was months thereafter before the That they were miles away ! Sie genr. Notices in the reading colstory-reader should establish a motual ceeds to tell of two young men, the one the surrouncing community, that the mystery became sufficiently unraveled So tired I am to hear so cft guns ten cents a-tine; general adverunderstanding as soon as possible. I beg from Georgia being described first, and lives of the keepers were threatened, and Their heavy tramps at play. to assure them that they had been muwhich is seven cents a line for the first only after the aniu al was slain were it to be noticed that I confine this obthe other one being Stephen A. Dongtually mistaken. mittin, and for every additional in-They walk about the new plowed ground servation neither to young people nor they enabled to depart in safety. When las, of Illinois. He says :---Akin to this is an adventure of our grown, four c nts. A liberal deduc-Where mud in plenty lies; to little people, but extend it to all con-"Alexander Hamilton Stephens is the Dr. Blackburn, the Rebel emissary was They roll it up in marbles round. own experience, which it may not be inun made to yearly advertisers. most powerful orator in Congress, and detected in the diabolical plot of inocuditions of people ; little and big. young Then bake it into pies ; appropriate here to relate. Away back Having put up a new Jobber press and old ; yet growing up or already growthat with all the odds against him. lating the seaboard cities, with the virus And then at night upon the floor, in our boyhood, we once attended a and addeed a large addition of job type, When standing he is a man of medium ing down again-there are not, I say, many of yellow fever, through old clothing als border, etc., will enable the estub In every shape it dries. meeting at the " old Zion's church," of taken from palients who, died with that people who would care to sleep in a beigh, but when seated he looks like a Mmen to execute every description of happy memory, in our native borough of To-day I was disposed to scold, church," nor yet in a churchyard. "I boy, for his trunk is remarkably short, malignant disease in the Indies, the Putin and Fancy Printing, from the But when I look. to-night. M_____ It was milsummer too, with a don't mean at sermon time ( when the and his face exceedingly youthful. Carebright, moonlight evening. The weathsmillest card to the largest poster, at cheeks of the most resolute of our loyal At those little boots before the fire, thing has actually been done, once or less of his personal appearance, his hair countrymen grew pallid for the moment soit notice and reasonable rates. With copper toes so bright, or was exceedingly warm and the church twice ) but in the night, and alone." I think how sad my heart would be falling in masses over his fine brow ; his at the thought of the deep seated vindicexceedingly crowded, and so we sat BRITTON & MUSSER'S tiveness that pervaded the bearts of great multitude of persons will be vio-To put them out of s ght. black, brown, or any other colored cradown on the sod-covered grave of old vat ( he seems not to know which ) tied those, who sought our country's ruin. lently astonished, I know, by this posi-Aleck McC ---- under a large locust For in a trunk up stairs I've laid tion, in the broad bold day. But it in a sailor's knot; his clothes fitting And, as with oue voice, a mighty wave tree, and leaned ourself against the Two socks of white and blue ; Market Street, Marietta, Pa. applies to night. It must be argued by well, if he has been fortunate in his tailof horror and condemnation swept over If called to put those boots away, brown head stone that marked the spot or ( rarely the case ); an immense gold the free north, not stayed its course un- night. And I will undertake to main-O, God ! what shall I do ? BRITTON & MUSSER, Successors to Dr. F. where his body was laid, altogether no-Pikte, will continue the business at the old and, where they are daily receiving additional where stock, which are received from the ast ministe innovters and manufactures. I moura that there are not to-night til all Europe stood aghast at this worse tain it successfully on any night appoint. chain, terminated by a heavy seal, falling heedful of the solemn admonition in--Three pairs matend of two. ed for the purpose, with any one opponfrom his watchfob, he presents an unthan heathen barbarism, and echoed scribed thereon. Here we fell into a back its united voice in detestation of ent chosen from the reat, who will meet nost reliable importers and manufacturers. promising, not to say an outre appear. soothing slumber, which continued until I mourned because I thought how nice They would respectfully ask a liberal share the atrocity. But when negligence and me singly in an old chu chyard, before ance. When in repose, his face does They would respectively beam a fourier share of public rationsge. They are now prepared to supply the de-mends of the public with everything in their far of trade. Their stock of My neighbor, "cross the way," the full noon of night, when we awoke and crimes of greater magnitude than these an old church door; and will previously Could keep her car, ets all the year not promise much more : pale, with a found ourself all alone-all save a dog are perpetrated hourly, in some portion empower me to lock him m, if needful From getting worn or sity; slightly sallow tinge, sometimes with a that loomed up from a short distance, Yet well I know she'd smile to own of the land, as the legitimate recult of to his satisfaction, until morning." hectic flush upon his cheek, it seems to DRUGS AND MEDICINES and looked upon us with two glaring Some little boots to-day. Now, in including churchyards in the the use of liquors which are gold under belong to a beardless boy. His arms TRESH AND PURE, HAVING JUST ARRIVED. eyes, whose disks increased gradually in discussion of this subject, 1 do not mean and legs are very long, and his whole the sanction of Law, there is no tremer Pure Wines and I quors We mothers weary get and worn, size until they apparently reached the those modern enclosures which differ FOR MEDICINAL USES ONLY. of fear or cry of condemnation uttered. frame, not compactly knit, appears loose Over our lead of care; dimensions of clover sized frying paus. But how we speak of these little ones, ALL THE POPULAR PATENT MEDICINES. very little from any other well appointed The man who is otherwise civil and orand swkward, and the victim of life-long The churchyard gate was locked, and Let each of us beware ; yards-with their graveled walks and by Stuffs of all kinds, Fancy and Toilet Ardisease. How cearly disease and genius derly, onder the brain excitement of how we threw ourselves over the fence, For what would our fireside be to-nigh t strong drinks. chops down his neighbor's grass-plots-but those of the olden times isies of every kind, Alcoholic and Fluid Extracts, Alcaloid and Resmoids, all may be associated, is a question which I is something in "ground and lofty tumb-If no little boots were there ?. wife in her own threshold, and leaves her which were thickly peopled with the leave for physiologists and phsycholothe best Trusses, Abdominal Supling " which we were never after able dead of ages, and whose antique grave. gists to settle. But I feel sure that expiring, to seek another victim) to satiporters, Shoulder Braces, Breast to explain. It is sufficient to say that Pumps, Nipple Shells and Shisids, Nursing Hottles, MATRIMONIAL FELICITIES. tiate his madness, and is only checked in stones and simple monuments studed sleepless nights and days of pain and in an infinitely less time than it has taktheir surface as thickly as the tall and Some wag, with a portic turn, gives fover have bad much to do with the his career by overpowering force. The A large supply of ensus to tell the tale, we found ourself SET, HAIR, TOOTH, NAIL AND CLOTHES BRUSHES. the old story of the difficulty between the husband and wife in the following bleached tree stumps do a western community are startled at the crime, brilliant intellect of this remarkable man. outside the enclosure, and with a veloci-

Tooth Powder and Pastes, Oils, Periumery, Toth Powder and Pastes, Oils, Perfumery, saps, Comba, Hair Dyes, Invigorators, SCC; Cailly, Lennos, Shades, Chimneys, Wickyäc, Inspicians supplied at reasonatile rates. Foldenes and P. escriptions carefully and ac-entately compounded all hours of the day, and onth by Charles H. Britton, Pharmaceutist, So will cay especial attention to this branch a de basiness. Having had over tan years policie entire and the drug business ena-tes in to guarantee entire attention to all bo my pationize the new firm lines :

A couple sat beside the fire

The bushand positively said,

Debating which should first retire ;

"I never will," she quick replied,

" I did so unce, and nearly died."

And then a war of words arose,

"Wife, you shall go and warm the bcd."

" and 1 will not !" rejoined the spouse,

With finner tone and lowering brows;

Continuing until they nearly froze;

Around the faintly glimmening fire.

They tiembled o'er the dying embers,

When both grew mute and hovering higher

Ally supply at School Books, Stationary, Sch always on hand. - UNDAY HOURS: From Sto 10. a. m. - 12 to 2, and 50 to 6 p. m. Comes H. Britton Maritie, Cetober 20, 1866, 11-1f Corres H. Britton.

JACOB LIBHART, TR., CABINET MAKER AND UNDERTAKER, MARIETTA, PA

UULD must respections they mis meth We do i morning the chizens of Ministia action public in general, that, having laid in a lt of acasened Lundrer, as now prepared to associate any kinds of

CABINET FURNITURE,

"y style and variety, at short notice nutd-a lot of Furmiture of his own "fettice, which for fine finish and good Suchae, which for fine finish and good massing, will rival any City make. Fracult strendton paul to repairing. Sales now prepared to attend, in all its sales now prepared to attend. Its sales now prepared to attend the sale of the sale of Room and Manufactory, near Mr. w building, near the "Upper-Staometta, Pa.

OSENE & GAS STOVES 11

LA & COFFEE BOILERS, GLUE, POTS. OIL CANS, &C. &C.

All the cooking for a family may Ail the cooking for a family usy and Lybe done with Kerowene Gil, or Gas a f Lybe done with Kerowene Gil, or Gas a f Lyberse than any other fuel. Source than any other fuel. Source that any other fuel. Source the source of the source of the source of b dwink teed to perform all that is claimed for it. Ly send for Circular. 4 Liberal Discount to the Trade. K-RUSENE LAMP HEATER O., W] 206 PEARL-ST., NEW YORK. [19

F. HI KLE. Physician and Surgeon.

A? localed permähentig ind Columbia, and offers his professional services to Hizers of that place. dence of Benjamin Haldeman; on Locustest., every day troin 8 to 10 s. m. sud: 7.10.8.p. m. print rid s to to a. In, and rids of a line and the second states, between these harts, will it ave word by hole at big off s, or through the post office.

DR.J. Z. HOFFER, DENTIST. OF THE BALTIMORE COLLEGE OF DENTAL SURGERY, LATE OF HARRISBURG. OFFICE:-Front street, next door to R Williams' Drug Store, beiween Locust

DR. WM. B. FAMNESTOCK. OFFICE .- MAIN-ST., NEABLY OFFICE Spangler'& Patterson's Store OFFICE HOURS FROM T TO BA. H.

5 " 6 TO 7 T. W. L. A LL kinds of Blanks printed and for ale

As though ague had seized their members Resolved, like heroes, ne'er to yield, But force each other from the field. And thus this once fond, loving pair, In silence shook and shivered there. Till m.dni, ht faded into morn, And cocks were crowing at the dawn; When all st once the husband said : ". Wife, had we not better go to bed ?"

LIFE OF A LEXANDER 11. STEPHENS - A. lif. of this great statesman is about being published by the National Publishing Company, 507 Minor street, Philadelphia It is compiled or gotten up by Henry Cleveland, long an intimate friend of Mr. Stophens, and Mr. S. will, himself, supervise the proof sheets. The work will be comprised in one large fairness of reasoning until at length you volume of about 800 pages and will soon submit yourself to his control without be ready for delivery. It will be sold comparction, or the dread of his being by subscription only, and agents are wanted in every locality. From advanerd leaves of the work we make the following estructe : We desire to repeak of this distingnished statesman, as he appears in public and private, before, during and since the wer.

Having determined to compile some of the speeches, letters and papers of the theorgian, who has been so long and favorably known to the American public he was not a gentleman." it is proper to give a more enlarged skeich than has ever heretofore been given of some important and interesting author of them.

Much of the material which composes the budy of this volume has never before appeared in print ; some has only been seen by those to whom addressed, and none hus ever appeared in book form. Of the man and his dwelling place, his appearance, his earlier and later manbood, his private existence and public career; others have often spoken ; but generally through the daily or week ly printed leaves, that fall from the press as last as the automnal spoils of the for. sester and are gone as soon . Some of the best and most accurate of these have not -been widely circulated, and few, if any of them, are now accessible." Wr. Stephens has been so often rep-

" wsented by the pens of able writers as well as by the engravor a still and the "Yes; jumt te sit to state of the source of the llouse of Representatives, when scarcely thirty years of age, he had, by the time I first saw him, already guined the undivided car of the House. When he stood up to speak, there was no lunch ing, chatting, or spathy in the Hall which seemed divided between the sil-

His voice, too, in common talk, gives as little token of his power as his other features, for it is thin, high-pitched, and inclining to the falsetto. Trained as a inwyer at the Georgia bar, a wonderful school for developement of popular eloquence ( for the jury system is pushed there to its remotest limits), he early displayed those gifts which have made his name so famous; a sharp, incisive intellect, broad in its comprehension,

firm in its grosp, as keen in its percep-euce and his voice." * * * * * *

" His manner is rapid, sometimes ve hement, always collected. Having in an instant gained your absorbed attention, he wins your confidence by his apparent overcome. The most brilliaut, albeit, not the most satisfying, part of his oratory is seen when he turns upon mistopponents. His powers of entire, ridicule sarcasm, and invective, are fearful,, and yet the man of good breeding never forgets himself, nor is kurried nway into truculent abase. Many a man has smartsd, or even withered under Mr. Steph ons' irony or denunciation ; but I question if any bas ever had cause to say that at a post, just as the soldiers were called incidents and features in the life of the out for drill on a certain morning, it was noticed that one of them had only blacked the fore parts of his shoes, leaving the back parts unblacked and of a dirty red color. The colonel noticed it and said, " Hinson, you have not black. ed the back parts of your shoes.' "Colonel," replied Hinson, "a good soldier never looks behind him."

> Dr. Johnson, being once in company with some scandal mongers, one of them having accused an 'absent' friend of resorting to rouge, he observed : "It is, claimed, "Wby we only see our own perhaps, atterall, much better for alsdy faces." Well, said the Gipsy, "those en other people's characters."

A young dandy in Broadway a few evenings ago, acousted a bellinan as fol-(emèd ∼a tristera054t i lows: Tou take all sorts of trash in your Cart, don't you faildet 19.MAL970 & 193 "Yes ; jump in Gaariles o. 1 to eyes tions, coupled with an emotional nature, law ordened privilege of selling men preliminaries; and which, if they condelicate as it is strong, giving him an in that which pollutes them with demoni- tain no special moral - nething, that is uc spirits. There is gross injustice in either poetical or philosophical yet they reached our bumble couch and passed sympathy of his hearers. Returned to first legalizing templation, then punish- may contain facts facts that the reader of the negative of the night in a troubled isg those who are ensnared by it. The father is daily depleted of bis earnings as is most plessing to bimself. It was midsummers and "in such a to allay his ever recurring thirst for strong drink, while his children, misor deed was committed, but neither by the them, and within the shadows of their

the patent fact placed in the foreground, reposing in , some far off "city of the

that the man's drunkenness was attribut. dead," . It is to the former kind I refer, able to the sanction that the law gives | in the relations-perhaps the rea er may

to the sale of liquors, although the crime | say ludicrous and therefor irreverent was one of the legitimate results of this relation3-which follow these necessary ably clad, and famishing for food, are impelled, by hunger, to the commission of petty crimes, that stamp them with of sympathy, the demands of humanity. and the efforts, of philanthropy fail to waken a continued ripple upon the surface of public opinion in favor of removing the fountain of a malady, that blights and destroys more human beings in this away, wild beasts at large, and Yellow fever combined, has ever destroyed din ten years. And as long as the sale of liquors is shielded by statues, so long radical measure is adopted, the lewer and demand severity of punishment, a jury is summoned, the lawyers plead for mercy, because of his drunkenness, the Judge charges to be merciful because of the wreiched man's condition when the community, the Judge or the Jury, is many vices that now sorely beset it. B. S.

A shoemaker received a note from a ludy to whom he was particularly sttacked, requesting bim to make her a pair of shoes ; and not knowing exactly the style she required, he despatched a written missive to her, asking her whether she would like them Wround or Esq. Toad," The fair one, indignant at this rich specimen, of orthography, re-

A gipsy woman promised to, show two young ladies their husband's faces in a pail of water. They locked and ex-

Ata negro bell, in heu of". Nottrans ferable," on the titkets, a notice was pdsted over the door, "No gentleman admitted unless he comes hiself."

Wou want porhing, do you ?" said is at liberty, to beat out into such a form

"clearing," or a crowded city cemetery.

There is therefore vast difference between those churches which have the budies of their departed worshippers, for a long line of years, interred around tall gables, and those which have them

night ". as that on which the g llant Lo-RENZO led forth the beautiful JESSICA to contemplate the splendor of the fullmoon's rays, in the avenue that led to infamy, in all after life, and yet the tears fair Portia's House; that two men found themselves locked in a village church, "away down in old Virginby." The one was a pale Caucassian; and was clad in a snowy summer girb-the costume of the ease and comfort-loving aristocracy for the old Dominion. The other was a country in one year, than horses, sunning dark Ethiopian, clothed in the sombread an even chance if the gets married to and tattered habiliments peculiar to any of em! One cools off and then a rear pew, near the corner, on the right din' heat, the coal is gone and the fire is will the misery, destitution and crime, of the julpit, and the latter, a paw the out. Then she may blow up a dust, but resulting from their hes, continue to be most remote from the pulpit, reserved the dance of a flame can the blow up sinational kinchatten only be temedied for the sole use and behoof of the mem- again to save her soul alive." by entire extirpation. "The sooner this burs of his swarthy race. Here, from some cause or other these two men laid will be the victims bereafter slaind pont themselves down, and took an even ing the sltar of the liquor Moloch, and the map "and did not wake antil the de-peatlier will the pation be purged of stoned roice of the village bells toll'd out the hour of twelve. Bising, simultaneously from their recumbent positions they happened to be face, to face, and cast a wild and affrighted look upon each other, for it must be remembered that especially in dog days."

bis, extreme fear, took the black man for father's obitnary. "Till it freezes." Satan or one of his imps from, liades fordi . "Young man, do you believe in a fu-On the other hand the negro in his consternation took the white man for "the angel of death," who had come to sum-ge mens him trom the scenes of this wan; tonolwicked eworldskibefore his stime. to redden ber own cheeks than to black- faces will be your huebands when you Both at the same moment struck for windows incopposite directions-describ ing respectively a perfect bee line-and made, good their escape from the church-made, good their escape from the church-Too much confused and frightened to know to a certainty the precise progress, and directions they were takings Althoughthair pares was to avoid each to other. yet, singularly to say they met at in the churchyard, although we saw no object to be frightened at: We finally slumber. On the morrow we learned that the sexton had not noticed us, and had also forgotton his dog, an insignificant cur, too large to creep out between the paling, and too small to jump the fence. Verily it does not appear to be a pleasant thing to sleep in a church, or s churchvard ; and yet how often is tho former desecrated to that use, at moments when the sleeper ought to be attentive to the words of eternal life, or the worship of the living God.

ty scarcely less than "two-forty" we made a straight coattail " and reached our domicil with all our limbs eatirs.

Not a single living being-not even a moth, or a bat was abroad, and not a ingle luminary, save the pale moon was visible. All was hushed in the silence of death, and it was light enough almost to pick up a pin anywhere. Somehow, seized with a peculiar sense of loneli-nass, we were more frightened here than

Sam Slick says : "Whenever you see a gal with a hull lot of sweethearts, it's many of the thrittless and shiftless chil- another of them cools of, and before she dren of bondage. The farmer occupied can bring any of 'em to the bright wed-

> An old woman on a steamboat observed two men pumping up water to wa h the deck, and the captain being near by, she accosted him as follows : "Well, captain, got a well aboard, ch ?" Myes, ma'am; slways carry one," said the polite captain. "Well, that's clever. I always did dislike the masty river water they were alone, the congregation having You can do anything if you only some hours since rotired and dispersed. have patience to wait," said an old fogy to them unawares. Both, doubtless be to his son, water may be carried in a ing under the bau of a guilty conscience, sieve if you can wait." "llow long ?" and looking upon their conduct as littles inquired the son, an impudent young less than sacreligious, the white man, ine is merica, who could hardly wait for the > ture state ?", "In course I duz : and what's more, I intend to enter it as soon as Botey, gets her things ready."

"What time is it, Tom ?" "Just time to pay that little account you owe me." was balf so late."

An Irishman once observed that milestones were kind enough to huswer your questions without giving you the trouble to ask them.

A Domestic Toast .- May your coffee a corner where two streets crossed each and the elanders against you be other se right togies, int attat fillen site without grandel - 14 응장님 때 귀엽 안.

(get, married." - has extel A TO