THE SEATING QUEEN .---- The queen o skaters in the world is said to be Miss C. A. Moore, "the Skating Queen as she is called. Her home is Philadelphia. Her appearance at the Philadelphia Park each afternoon makes her the "observed of all observers." : In the skating. circles the performance and appearance of Miss Moore form the topic of general conversation. She has two skating costumes. One of them is a basque and skirts of purple velvet beaver cloth, trimmed with a deep border of gray and white squirrel far, above which are three rows of silver trimming. She wears, a hat made of the same material, trimmed with fur, to correspond with that of the seral, and boy of Richmond. Va. was dress. Her Polish costume consists of admitted to the bar, under the new law a basque of blue velvet, and scarlet skirt prescinding the test oath. trimmed with ermine fur and gold lace, the entire dress being spangled with small stars. A hat of red and blue velvet and white plume adorne her head? while her feet are encased in red boots has commenced an action of libel, in the Both the costumes are very rich and elegent.

A terrible tragedy occured in Cincinnati on the night of the 17th instant, the details of which are not fully known: The victim is Mary J. Thompson, a daughter of Peter Thompson a wellknown Scotch liquor dealer of that city, recently deceased. Miss Thompson was the mistress of William McLaughlin, a prominent builder of that city. "The wife" of McLaughlin went to a house on Baymiller street last night, and found her husband and Miss Thompson in bed together, which so enraged her that she seized a poker and inflicted wounds upon Miss Thompson that caused her death, in a few hours. Preparations were made for a basty burial; but the authorities got wind of the affair, and an inquestris being held on the body. 1. 196 196 10 B 10 10

Tyoung America must hereafter be content to celebrate Obristmas and Independence day without the usual fusilade of Chinese crackers. The tariff bill introduced into the U.S. Senate by Mr. Fessenden, contains a clause forbidding the importation of fire-crackers; and, whatever bill passes, this provision will no doubt be one of its features. This seemingly trivial subject: is one of the greatest importance, as the terrible fire which nearly destroyed the city of Portland, Me., last summer, origin inated from the explosion of a fire-crackand the real of the second a
