"Resolved, That this Company will decline to issue free passes, except for purely charitable purposes, and such others as in the opinion of the President may be absolutely required by the interest of the Company-Further, that no officer of this Company but the President, shall issue free Passes except to employees when travelling on the business of the Company, unless specially authorized by the President."

The Leavenworth Bulletin pubishes an interesting resume of the business of Leavenworth for the past year. The population of the city is between twenty-five and thirty thousand. It has six daily newspapers. Manufacturing has more than doubled during the past year, amounting in the aggregate to over two million of dollars. The wholesale dry goods trade to five millions; grocery trade, five millions; liquor trade, eight hundred thousand; Indian goods, four hundred and seventy five thousand : hides and furs, five hundred thousand; cattle, five hundred thousand. The total retail sale trade reaches a grand aggregate of twenty-one million, one hundred and ninety thousand.

An enormous business is shown in Government freight. A. Caldwell & Co., Government Freighters, have transported from Leavenworth to the various military posts on the plains, during the year 1866, eight million pounds of freight requiring to move the same more than sixteen bundred teams and twenty thousand animals. This trade gives employment to about twenty-five hundred men, and is conducted at a cost to the Goveroment of about five hundred thousand

Alexander Caldwell, formerly of the Columbia Bank, is classed amongst the largest real estate owners in the city of Leavenworth, and one of the shrewdest and most energetic of its business men.

This course is receiving the encouragement and enthusiastic support of the leading business men and educators throughout the Union. The practical arrangement of every department makes it profitable for young men to come hundreds of miles to enjoy its advantages, as at no other school in the country can equal advantages be had for business educa-

REV. ALEXANDER CLARK, Editor of that institution, said :- " The Commercial College of J. C. Mumford combines in its plan more practicalities, and better disciplines its students for successful business than any similar institution with which I am acquainted in the city, and but one in our whole country in any wise compares with it, and that one pursues a method somewhat the same but perhaps not as fully developed.

Such a report from Rev. Alexander Clark is strong evidence of the character and standing of this school. This College from its plan of instruction, invites the attention of the masses, and as it issues many publications explanatory of its working, which are mailed free of charge, we suggest that those interested in education send an application for circulars, as they will no doubt be furnish-Address, J. THE Wonderful flexibility and great com-Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced par-ticularly in all crowded assemblies, operas, carriages, railroad cars, church pews, arm chairs fer promenade and house dress, as the skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a silk or muslin dress, an invaluable quality in crinoline not found in any single spring skirt.

A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic steel spring skirt for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their time. For children misses and young ladies use. For children, misses, and young ladies they are superior to all others.

They will not bend or break like the Single Spring, but will preserve their perfect and grace shape when three or four ordinary skirts will have been thrown aside as useless. The hoops are covered with double and twisted thread, and the bottom rods are not only double springs, but twice (or double) covered; pre-venting them from wearing out when dragging down steps, stairs, &c. The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies and is universally recommended by the Fashion Magazines as the standard skirt of the fashionable world. To enjoy the following inestimable advantages in crinoline, viz: superior quality, perfect manufacture, stylish shape and finish, flexibilty, durability, comfort and economy, enquire or J. W. BRADLEY'S Duplex Elliptic or Double Spring Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article.

CAUTION:—To guard against imposition be particular to notice that skirts offered as "Du-PLEX" have the red ink stamp, viz: "J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic Steel Springs," upon the waistband—none others are genuine. Also notice that every hoop will admit a pin being passed through the centre, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together therein, which is the secret of their flexibility and strength, and a combination not to be found in any other Skirt.

For sale in all stores where first class skirts are sold, throughout the United States and elsewhere. Manufactured by the sole owners of the patent,
