

The Mariettian

MARIETTA, PA.: Saturday Morning, February 23, 1867.

Godley's Lady's book for March is on our table. There are fifty engravings in this number.

A bill making it unlawful for any person to practice medicine, surgery, and midwifery, in Philadelphia, who has not a diploma from some respectable college or university...

The Secretary of War has decided that every bounty claimant shall be regarded as having served to the end of the war, who enlisted for three years, and was mustered out with his organization...

Many persons injure themselves by absurd and foolish trials of physical strength. We are told in one of our exchanges of a young man at Milwaukee, who, boasting of his strength, said he could knock the panel out of a door with a single blow of his fist.

John and Patrick McCollough, of St. Clair, Schuylkill county, had a hearing a few days since on the charge of distilling and selling whiskey without a Government license.

So great is the destitution in North Carolina, and so stringent the pecuniary affairs of the people, that the Sheriff of Pitt County was lately mobbed, and all his writs and executions were burned; and the Legislature has been forced to pass a "Relief Bill," under the provisions of which the payment of a debt may be deferred one year.

The New York Commercial Advertiser says that recently a Connecticut farmer's wife, noted for a keen eye to the finances, was told by her husband that the church had elected him deacon, whereupon she eagerly inquired, "How much money will you get by it?"

Kentucky is sadly in need of martial law. The State is most entirely ruled by lynch law. The Governor, unable to furnish State militia, has been compelled to ask for a detachment of United States troops to preserve quiet.

Samuel A. Cornman, a young member of the bar, pleaded guilty in the Quarter Sessions in Philadelphia, on Friday, to a charge of forgery, and was sentenced by Judge Ludlow to an imprisonment of three years.

The Kansas Legislature on February 6, amended the State suffrage bill striking out the word "male"—or in other words, extending the suffrage to women.

The Long Bridge across the Potomac River at Washington was swept away on February 5, by the breaking up of the ice.

The Swatara, with Surratt on board, arrived at the Washington navy yard, on Sunday night. The prisoner is in good health.

Sanford Conover, indicted for perjury in giving false testimony against the Lincoln assassins was convicted on the 11th.

The appointment of Cowan, as minister to Austria, was rejected by the Senate.

Moscow had gas for the first time in its eventful history, on the 15th of

The Home Amusement for March is received. It fully sustains its former reputation as one of the best and choicest lady's and family magazines published.

Its stories are all chaste, amusing and instructive. Every number contains two or three original stories, selected tales, a number of pieces of selected poetry, amusing anecdotes, sparkling wit and humor.

The first story of the present number, entitled "How I Was Duped," a tale from French life, showing the cunning intrigue in metropolitan life to beset the young and unwary, is alone worth the entire subscription for one year for the lesson it conveys.

The second story, "The Miser and his Treasure," showing the vanity of ill got gain, is worth a volume of sermons to the young. Every mother should place this number in the hands of their sons; and with each article and paragraph we could say the same.

Large and valuable prizes, consisting of Wheeler and Wilson's Sewing Machines, Washing Machines, Clothes Wringers, Hoop Skirts, Engravings, &c., are sent to persons raising clubs.

It is sold by agents everywhere. Sample copies to agents raising clubs are sent free. Address the publishers of Home Amusement, 78 Nassau street, New York.

Mr. Bayard Taylor and his family sailed on Saturday for Southampton. It is Mr. Taylor's intention to remain abroad for about a year and a half, spending the ensuing spring and summer in Germany, and the autumn and winter in Italy.

A chiropodist in Buffalo has a huge sign on which is painted in flesh color a human foot, with as much of the leg as would reach up to the knee attached, covered with warts, bunions, caruncles, contusions, swellings, and all manner of horrid and unnatural deformities.

The most unhappy person in the world is the dyspeptic. Everything looks dark and gloomy; he feels "out of sorts" with himself and every body else. Life is a burden to him. This can all be changed by taking Peruvian Syrup (a protoxide of Iron). Cases of 27 years standing have been cured by it.

A railroad from Martinsburg, Va., to Hagerstown, Md., is projected and will soon be under way. It is to be an extension of the Cumberland Valley road running now from Harrisburg to Hagerstown.

In Washington county, Tenn., twenty miles northeast of Jonesboro, is an ancient birch tree, on the bark of which is still legible the following inscription: "1771—D. Boone killed a bear."

Julius Winkelmeyer, worth half a million dollars, died in St. Louis on Jan. 29th. He left all his wealth to his wife, with the exception of one dollar to each of his children.

A bill has been introduced into the State Legislature for the repeal of all laws or parts of laws, providing for State Inspectors of flour, leather, whisky, bark, &c.

The table on which the Declaration of Independence was signed and the "Hancock chair," are hereafter to be kept in Independence Hall, Philadelphia instead of at Harrisburg.

The dome of the Capitol at Washington is lighted by means of 1,083 gas-burners, which can be lighted in a moment by the agency of electricity.

The Catholics of Erie have organized a temperance society, the membership in which is to be confined to adherents of the church.

In Jackson county, Iowa, one night last week, three brothers married three sisters.

There is a young lady in Harrisburg who can play two pieces at once on the piano, and at the same time sing a third.

On Tuesday next, February 26th, the great Temperance convention will convene at Harrisburg.

Had President Lincoln lived until Tuesday last, (February 12th) he would have been 58 years old.

The negro suffrage is now the law of Tennessee.

News in Brief.

They have a quick way of dissolving the matrimonial bond in Chicago. One day last week a dissatisfied wife applied for divorce, the papers were made out, the alimony determined, the request granted, and the lawyers paid—all inside of four hours.

A singular law-suit is now on trial at Albany. Two young men each married but a few weeks got sick of their wives and proposed to "swop," and very singularly the wives consented. But the husband of the homeliest promised to pay $30 "to boot," and as he has neglected to hand over, suit has been brought to recover the money.

Jay Cooke, the banker, has recently been buying some magnificent paintings for his grand residence, now nearly completed, at Cheltenham, near Philadelphia. A picture by Nebling, "After the battle," cost him 5,000. Eight years ago Jay Cooke was connected with a Cincinnati banking house at a salary per year not half as much as he gave for "After the battle." But he earned his means and deserves his luxuries.

The golden rule for a young lady is to converse with your young female friends as if a gentleman were present; and with young men as if your female companions were present. "We'll warrant it to be chaste and becoming."

Two Irishmen were traveling when they stopped to examine a guide board. "Twelve miles to Portland," said one. "Just six miles spiece," said the other. And they trudged on, apparently well satisfied at the small distance.

The tax on whiskey will not be reduced, and whiskey offered for sale at a less price than the tax—$2 per gallon—will be confiscated.

The Ways and Means Committee of the House have agreed upon the abolition of the tax on incomes under $1,000, and a five per cent. tax on all incomes over that amount.

After a wearisome struggle that must have exhausted both friends and foes, the bill providing for the acceptance by the National Government of the gift of League Island as a site for an iron-clad naval depot has passed both houses of Congress in a concurrent signature and now goes to the President for signature.

The bill amending the act organizing the several territories, conferring suffrage therein without regard to race or color, has become a law without the President's approval. It was presented to him on the 12th ult., and he had not returned it within the ten days allowed by the Constitution. The bill repealing the amnesty and pardon authority given to the President, became a law in a similar way.

By a vote of the West Virginia Legislature it has been decided that Morgantown, in Monongahela county, is to be the new capital of that State. Heretofore the seat of government has been at Wheeling, in the extreme northwest corner of West Virginia. Morgantown is situated on the Monongahela river.

The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser states that the First National Bank of that city has, in a period of four years, accumulated a surplus greater than its original capital, and without impairing this surplus, it paid its proprietors a dividend for the past year of fifty per cent.

Since 1821 Mexico had twenty-three presidents, seven dictators, two emperors, one vice president and one generalissimo—or an average of a new ruler every sixteen months. The longest reign has been three years.

Hon. C. V. Culver, who was connected with the great Bank failures in the oil regions, was tried before the Court at Franklin, and acquitted.

A man in Fredericksburg, Va., was knocked down by lightning, and cured of rheumatism. He don't recommend the remedy.

Rev. Father Ashley Pool, a distinguished Methodist clergyman, died in his eighty-fifth year, recently, at his residence near Morgantown, West Virginia.

The Senate Foreign Committee have reported against Cowan as minister to Austria. There never was a shadow of a chance for him.

A colored man has been fined $1 and costs in New London, Ct., for groaning like a possum in meeting.

George Everson dropped dead while dancing at a ball in Burlington, Iowa, one day last week.

The Schuylkill river at Philadelphia has not been so thickly frozen as now, in the last fifteen years.

The New York Post says it requires an income of nearly ten thousand dollars to live comfortably in New York.

The remains of the ex-rebel, General Barksdale, have been removed from the field of Gettysburg to Mississippi.

Both branches of the Delaware Legislature have rejected the constitutional amendment.

A Catholic Church, exclusively for colored people, is to be built at St. Louis. Mr. Bancroft has declined the Boston Collectorship.

So person has taken the time and trouble to give us the following curious facts. The total number of human beings on the earth is computed at 3,000,000,000, and they speak 3063 known tongues.

The average duration of life is 33 1/2 years. One fourth of those born die before they are 7 years old, and one half before they are the age of 17.

Out of one hundred persons, only six reach the age of 60. Out of five hundred persons, only one attains the age of 80.

Sixty persons die every minute. Tall men live longer than short ones. Married men are longer lived than the single.

Rich men live, on the average 42 years but the poor only 30. There is a drunkard to every 74.

The Easton Express says: "Messrs T. & T. Miller, contractors of the Lehigh Company's Railroad, discovered, a short time ago, about half a mile from Seigfried's Bridge, an Indian grave-yard, on the property of Joseph Kleppinger. Upon making an examination, they found the remains of seventeen Indians, and with them a large number of beads, with which, doubtless, these red men had one day bedecked themselves. A chief, evidently, was buried under an old apple tree. About his remains were found eighty beads of a large size, ninety rings, and about a peck of small beads, besides a medal, dated 1824, his pipe, in good order, made of clay, one pair of scissors, one knife, a number of arrow-heads, &c.

The discovery created considerable excitement in the neighborhood, and parties from all directions visited the spot to gratify their curiosity by seeing what was to be seen."

On Wednesday last, strange as it may seem, Secretary McCulloch appointed Solomon Johnson, a colored man, to a regular first-class clerkship, he having previously passed the required examination, the rules of which were strictly enforced. Mr. Johnson is the first colored man who has occupied a clerkship in any of the Government departments. The appointee was a soldier in the late war, is a practical phonographer, and has received a collegiate education. The Democrats will be very much pleased to hear this.

Ex-detective Baker testified before the impeachment committee to having once been in the possession of a letter, purporting to have been written by Andrew Johnson during the early part of the war to Jefferson Davis, offering to join the rebellion on certain terms. Doubting the authenticity of this document, he took it to the President's private secretary who declared that the signature was unque tionably genuine. He further states that the letter aforesaid is not now in his possession, but he presumed it can be reached.

Mrs. Jenny Van Zandt, (daughter of Signor Blitz), the favorite American prima donna, is playing at Warsaw, Russia. She has been engaged by the Russian government for six months from November 1, and made a successful debut in "Lucia." Her Marguerite is also highly praised. She is engaged to sing in Vienna during the month of May. Her success in Warsaw is the more decided, as the company there is composed of the best artists from her Majesty's and Covent Garden, London. A son of Signor Blitz, named Capt. John N. Blitz, died at Barbadoes, on the 28th of December last, aged 34 years.

The West Chester Jeffersonian says "A few days since, Mr. Cheyne Martin, of West Bradford township, was compelled to kill a valuable cow, to relieve her of her misery. Upon making a post mortem examination, five calves were discovered. Four of them had been living when the mother was killed, but the fifth had evidently been dead about a month. This is the most remarkable case we ever heard of."

Prof. Alex. Dallas Baché died at Newport, R. I., on Sunday last, aged 61 years. He was a great grandson of Benjamin Franklin. In 1855 he was appointed Superintendent of the United States Coast Survey, which position he held at the time of his death.

The status of Edward Everett has been completed in clay by Mr. Story, and is now at Munjeh ready for casting. It is expected to arrive at Boston some time in May, and it will be dedicated in June.

The report that Postmaster General Randall had resigned is contradicted. All the Cabinet officers, with the exception of Mr. Stanton, are asserted to be "in accord with the President on the great questions of the day."

Miss Mary Harris, who shot her seducer, Burroughs, in the treasury building, at Washington, two years ago, has just been admitted to the Insane Asylum.

Phineas T. Barnum, the great showman, who resides at Bridgeport, Ct., has been nominated for Congress as the Republican candidate.

Horace Greeley, it is said will be Post Master General and Ex-Gov. Andrew, of Massachusetts, to succeed Seward, who is about to resign.

LATEST FASHIONS DEMAND Bradley's Celebrated Patent Duplex Elastic Skirt.

The Wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the Duplex Elastic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded assemblies, operas, carriages, railroad cars, church pews, arm chairs for promenade and house dress, as the skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a silk or muslin dress, an invaluable quality in any wardrobe not found in any single spring skirt. A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elastic Skirt for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For children, misses, and young ladies they are superior to all others.

They will not bend or break like the Single Spring, but will preserve their perfect and grace shape when three or four ordinary skirts will have been thrown aside as useless. The hoops are covered with double twisted wire, and the bottom rods are not only double springs, but twice (or double) covered; preventing them from yawning out when dragging down steps, stairs, &c.

The Duplex Elastic is a great favorite with all the fashionable world. To enjoy the following inestimable advantages in ermine, viz: superior quality, perfect manufacture, stylish shape and finish, flexibility, durability, comfort and economy, enquire of J. W. BRADLEY'S Duplex Elastic or Double Spring Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article. CAUTION—To guard against imposition be particular to notice that skirts offered as "Duplex Elastic" have the red ink stamp, viz: "J. W. BRADLEY'S Duplex Elastic Skirts," upon the waistband—none others are genuine. Also notice that every hoop will admit a pin being passed through the centre, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together therein, and in the secret of their unrivalled strength, and a combination not to be found in any other Skirt.

For sale in all stores where first class skirts are sold, throughout the United States and elsewhere. Manufactured by the sole owners of the patent, WESTS, BRADLEY & CARY, No. 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Rensselaer, N.Y. January 26, 1867.—3m]
