Saturday Morning, March 2, 1867.

Congress seems to be very improvident in its appropriations. It is voting it in every direction when many judicions statesmen think there is no necessity. For instance, the voting by the House of $190.000 to Capt. Winslow, his officers and crew for sinking the pirate Alabama, is regarded as a very doubtful appropriation. The vessel. whose estimated value it is here proposed to pay, was not captured and brought into port, but was sunk. The captain and his officers have all been promoted and their salaries increased. These with the thanks of Congress and a gold medal, if thought advisable, ought to be deemed sufficient recognition of their bravery and patriotism.

The Washington Chronicle says : "Before the close of the last session of Congress a bronze equestrian statue of General Scott was ordered to be made and placed over the grave of the great captain at West Point. We submit whether it would not be a good idea to place a duplicate of this statue in some prominent position in Washington. It would ornament one of the many little squares that dot the city, and occupy a more conspicuous position than at West Point."

The State Temperance Convention met in Harrisburg on Tuesday last, and was called to order by General Lewis Wagner, of Philadelphia, who nominated Governor Geary as the temporary president of the Convention. After prayer by Rev. Mr. Johnson, various committees were appointed and a permanent organization effected. The Convention was addressed by Gov. Geary, Hon. Horace Greeley and Mrs. Gage and others.

The Fenians are again creating an excitement in England. An emissary, who has just arrived at New York from Ireland states that the reports that the rebellion had ended, are false. He reports the erganization stronger than ever; the soldiers being under the immediate drill of four hundred officers been nearly two hundred, and the disaswho served in this country during the | ters have destroyed property valued at rebellion.

A Band of regulaters have appear. ed in Carroll Parish. Louisiana, threatening and perpetrating all manner of violence upon "Yankees and Yankee niggers." They avow themselves rebels' and belonging to the poorer class of offered for rent than has been the case

TUNNEL, TUNNEL, FUNNEL.-A number of Pittsburg capitalists have under consideration the construction of a tripartite tunnel from Saw Mill Run to Pittsburg, Alleghany and Manchester, under the Ohio and Monongahela rivers. A bridge of like character was contemplated some years ago. The impression now is that a tunnel will not cost more than the bridge while the advantages are with the former. Another tunnel is talked of to pass the trains of the Great Western and Michigan Central Railways under the Detroit River, over which they are now carried by the new iron ice boat. Borings are said to have shown a favorable stratum of clay.

A bill has been passed by Congress authorizing the construction of a tunnel under the Mississippi at St. Louis.

Five dead bodies, two males, two females, and one new born child, were found by the detective police at the Grand Trunk Railroad depot Buffalo, on the 27th inst. They were shipped through the American Express Company, for Ann Arbor, Michigan. The bodies were packed in flour barrels, were in a nude state and evidently had not been dead a week, not being decomposed and bore no marks of violence. They are now being cleansed of the flour and will be exposed for identification tomorrow. The city is wild with excitement to know whose relatives have been thus desecrated by body snatchers.

A burglar has been convicted in Brooklyn on the circumstantial evidence of an Internal revenue stamp. He had left the cover of a match box on the premises, and he had in his pocket at the time of his arrest the box, attached to which were the torn fragments of a revenue stamp. On placing on the cover the broken edges of the stamp fitted exactly, and on this proof alone the prisoner goes to the penitentiary for ten years.

😅 Gen. Simon Cameron has been presented with a beautiful gold headed cane, manufactured from black ebony wood, by the emyloyees of the Lochiel 1ron Works, at Harrisburg. It was presented as a token of their high appreciation of his valuable services in favor of American industry, and had several appropriate mottoes engraved on it.

A person in Cleveland who has taken the trouble to gather statistics on the subject, says that buring the last two years the number of people burned to death from kerosene lamp explosions has $6,000,000.

G Chicago at present contains hundreds of houses marked "for rent," and the newspapers of that city say rents there are declining. In Philadelphia there are now more buildings publicly whites upon the back hills; and are en- for some time past, and the general im-

she sold the certificates, as will be seen from our advertising columne. Gentlemen also can be thus engaged.--N. Y. Sunday Mercury,
