The Madonna, 26x34 They have deemed expedient to offer them to their friends and the public, at ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS each, the price heretofore having been $2 each, and for the purpose of stimulating the getting up of clubs, they have determined to award premiums to the getters up of the clubs, and in addition thereto to distribute amongst the subscribers the sum of FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS in money and paintings, as soon as the sale shall have reached 100,000 engravings. As it it is our intention to advertise very extensively, and as the engravings are very well known throughout the whole country, we have no doubt that with the low price we charge for them and with the exertion which will be set forth by our numerous friends, the number will be reached in a very short time. As soon as it is reached, the subscribers, through their club Agenta, will be notified by a circular letter us, naming the time and method of disribution.

The American Artists' Union would add that these premiums are to be considered only in the light of a free gift to their patrons, as the engravings are furnished them below their market value, and as the cost of engravings, after the plates are procured, is very trifling, they can easily afford to make the distribution are as it is. arge as it is. We trust that our numerous friends throughout the country and Canadas will use their utmost exertions, so that if possible, the distribution may be made soon, and it can be done it they are at all active. Ladies have often made excellent Club Agen's for us, and we solicit their kind efforts, which will not go unrewarded. Let one or more energetic per-sons in every town and village in the country commence as soon as they see this, and get up commence as soon as they see this, and get up as large a club as possible. By so doing they will be the means of introducing elegant en-gravings into families, and thus aid in cultivating a taste for the beautiful and refined.
