the New Jersey Legislature, by Mr. Murphy, of Newark, in favor of a change in the State Constitution by striking out the words "white and male," thus conferring upon the women and negroes the right of suffrage. There seems to be a strong feeling on the part of many members of the House, both Democrats and Republicans, to strike out the word white, but not to entail upon the women the duty of going to the polls.

A.D. Richardson, the former war correspondent of the New York Tribune, was escorting a New York actress home last Thursday night, when her husband approached him from behind, and fired three shots at him from a revolver, one of them taking effect in the groin. The wound is not dangerous. Mr. R. had befriended the lady-who is a writer as well as an actress-and will prosecute the assailant to vindicate his own char-
