REPARATOR CAPILI. REPARATOR CAPILL.

For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will target the head of the huir or heard. force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of hy-Iner assertions are lanes, as thousands of re-ing witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult as nine-tenths of the different Preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say; try the Reparator Capili; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. EXTRAORDINARY GOOD FORTUNE. - Day EXTRACADINARY GOOD FORTUNE.—Dry before yesterday, at the Jewelry sales of Messrs. Arrandale & Co., two gold watches were drawn by two gentlemen known to this community, whose names we will not meetion. Parties curious on this subject can be informed at the store in king street, nearly opposite the Beaulain. We were curious on the subject, and inquired the names of the parties, and called on one of them, and were shown the watch he drew. It was a large double case gold watch, and we were informed that it kept time to a second since it had been in the possession of our fortunate friend. It would have been very natural to suppose that after one watch was drawn there was no chance for another for at least a month; but, strange to say, in less than an hour, another gold watch rewarded the worshipme. strange to say, in less than an hour, another gold watch rewarded the worshipper of Fortune. A QUARTER WELL INVESTED.—Mr. Engene B. Carter, of the Monticello House, called in at the Jewelry Emporium, 75 Mrin street, yesterday, and after paying his 25 cents suddenly found himself entitled to a musical box, valued at $300.

We understand that he was effered $256 for the instrument before leaving the side.

the instrument before leaving the store, but refused to part with it. We should call this a quarter well invested. We understand a number of other valuable articles were renumber of other valuable afficies were re-ceived amongst which was a gold watch val-ued at $75, by one of the attaches of the En-quirer office.—Richmond Times, September 21, 1866. 12 00 to 18 00

HORSE AND BUGGY BAN AWAY.—MI, W. H. Wise, Union Hill, coach painter at J. J. Osborne's, last evening walked into the great sale of Arrandale & Co., 78 Main street, and having paid 25 cents for a photograph found on opening the envelope that on the payment of one dollar he was entitled to receive a fine horse, sett of new eiller mounted harness and new buggy, valued at four hundred delient 4 00 to S 00 6 00 to 12 00 2 50 to 6 00 horse, set of new silver mounted harness and new buggy, valued at four hundred dollars!

Mr. Wise appears to be a cool, self possessed sort of a man, and did not manifest the least excitement at his good fortune, merely remarking "that he was intending to purchase a horse and buggy soon, and had a stable all ready, so it would come in very well for him."

randale & Co., No. 254 King street, in the Bend, is still the prime object of attraction. The number of ladies and gentler en who visited this establishment on Saturday last, was we understand, something fabulous. The principle of charging a unitorn price of one dellar for each article is one that cannot fail dollar for each settler is one that cannot had to be popular, especially when the stock contains, as in this case, many valuable articles of fine gold jewelry, and costly silver ware.—
