Special Notices

THE LAWS OF HEALTH .-- It is useless for State Legislatures to pass laws for the preservation of the public health, if the great law of self.preservation, which depends for its enforcement upon the will of the individual, is suffered to re rain a dead letter.

There is scarcely an adult member of the community, of either sex, in this country, who | the disease has been apprehended, for all the has not seen the testimony in favor of Hos-TETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, furnished over their own signatures by persons of acknowledged eminence in science, literature, art. commerce and every department of business and professional life. These witnesses have declared in the most explicit terms that the preparation is a safeguard against epidemics. a sovereign remedy for dyspepsia, a valuable anti-bilious medicine, a promoter of appetite. a genial and harmless stimulant, a good acclimating medicine, a strengthener of the nerves, a general invigorant, a protection against the deleterious effects of malaria and impure water, and that it impaits a degree of vigor and activity to the vital forces which is not communicated by any other of the tonics and ston achies in use Under these circumstances the self-preservative law of natu.e should teach every rational person who, either by reason of inent debility or in consequence of exposure to unwholesome influences, is in peril of losing the greatest of all temporal blessings, HEALTH, the importance of using the bitters as a defensive medicine. Dyspep. tics who neglect to give it a trial are simply their own enemies. It is guaranteed to cure Indigestion in all its forms, and the bilious and nervous will find nothing in the whole range of official and proprietary medicines which will afford them the same relief.

KNOW THE DESTINY .- Madame E. F I hornton, the Great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrician, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired, a certified certificate or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair, and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fity through this place yesterday, leaving a cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourlot with Harry. This is said to be very self, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. All communications sacredly confidential. Address in confidence, MADAME E. F. THERNTON, P. O. > ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS. Hartford, Conn., Nov. 11, 1864.

Messrs. Thos. Allcock & Co .- Please send with dispatch, twelve dozen Allcock's Porous Plasters. Our daily experience confirms their very superior excellence. At this moment of writing a man applies for one, who, by entauglement in the shaft of machinery, had both his legs broken, spine severely injured, and was for nearly a year entirely helpless. hope had fled, has snatched the victim | This man found relief very soon by the application of a plaster to his spine. He was soon enabled to work and now he labors as well as ever. He would cheerfully pay $5 for a single Plaster if they could not be had at a lower rate. I am surprised that surgeons do not make use of these perforated plasters to the exclusion of all others, as their flexibility and adhesiveness are greatly in advance of all other plasters with which I am acquainted while the perforations peculiar to them rendered them greatly superior to all others for ordinary surgical uses. Knowing the plasters to be so useful, I have no scruples-that my sentiments should be known.

A Young Lady returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends, In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intened it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. The medical faculty are invited to M. Montgomery Character, and daughter of the late Robert Strachan, formerly of this in his practice. Artificial Eyes inserted with-No charge for examination.

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP. This great medicine cured Dr. J. H. Schenck, the proprietor of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assumed its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be inevitable. His physicians pronounced his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds. Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption and the diseases which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicines have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. Schenck makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has a large concourse of patients, and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months, healthy, robust persons. Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are generally all required in curing Consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr. Schenck, but when it is convenient it is best to see him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fce is three dollars.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the wo likenesses of the Doctor-one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health—are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all druggists and dealers. Price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Letters for advice should always be directed to Dr. Schenck's Principal Office, No. 15 North 6th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY -In the whole history of medical discoveries no remedy has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the numerous affections of the Throat, Lungs and Chest, as this longtried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold-fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease. from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptoms of pulmonary complaint. UNSOLICITED TESTIMONY.

From Rev. Francis Lodell, Pastor of the South Congregational church, Bridgeport, Connecticut.

I consider it a duty which I owe to suff. ering humanity to bear testimony to the virr tues of Dr. Wistar' Baisam of Wild Cherry, I have used it—when I have had occasion foany semedy for Coughs, Colds or Sore Throat—for many years, and never in a single instance has it failed to cure me. I have frequently been very hourse on Saturday, and looked forward to the delivery of two sermons on the following day with sad misgivings, but by a liberal use of the Balsam, my hourseness has invariably been removed, and I have bas invariably been removed, and I have preached without difficulty.

I commend it to my brethren in the ministry
