The old "Donegal House" now presents a Janus-faced appearance. A coat of red paint adorns the front with the name of "Seltzer House" inscribed between the second and third stories. On the Gay street front the calf yellow color still remains, with the name of "Donegal Mouse" standing out in large letters. On Market Square an oval sign, standing out a few feet from the house, still tells the weary traveler that "this to determine whether the one building editained three hotels, or the ambitious owner was determined to have three names to one hotel.

There is scarcely an adult member of the community, of either sex, in this country, who has not seen the testimony in favor of Hos-TETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, furnished over their own signatures by persons of acknowledged eminence in science, literature, art, commerce and every department of business and professional life. These witnesses have declared in the most explicit terms that the preparation is a safeguard against epidemics, a sovereign remedy for dyspepsia, a valuable anti-bilious medicine. a promoter of appetite. a genial and harmless stimulant, a good acclimating medicine, a strengthener of the nerves, a general invigorant, a protection against the deleterious effects of malaria and impure water, and that it imparts a degree of vigor and activity to the vital forces which is not communicated by any other of the tonics and ston achies in use Under these circumstances the self-preservative law of nature should teach every rational person who, either by reason of instinct debility or in consequence of exposure to unwholesome influences, is in for advice should be addressed to Dr. perilof losing the greatest of all temporal blessings, HEALTH, the importance of using the bitters as a defensive medicine. A Young Lady returning to her country nome, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends, In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM. and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intened it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful.
