

The Mariettian.

MARIETTA, PA : Saturday Morning, July 27, 1867.

The Anderson (Texas) Record gives the particulars of a most distressing case of death which occurred in Madison county recently: Mrs. Metcalf, who was nearly a hundred years of age, and one of the very first settlers of Madison county, while returning from a visit to a neighbor took the wrong road, which led to the house of a Mr. Simms. Approaching the house, probably with a view to stop for the night, she being weary of walking, this poor old lady was attacked by a pack of savage dogs, and was bitten in many places, and had her flesh terribly torn by the terrible animals. One arm was torn from the body, and her breast and throat almost eaten up. She expired soon afterwards. It seemed there was no one at the house to keep the dogs off. Mr. Simms returned home about sundown and found the old lady lying on the ground, outside the yard.

A young man at Janesville, Wis., who had been unwell for some days, started to go to his home across the fields, and it is supposed, stopped to get a drink at a pool where peat had been taken out. The indications are that as he leaned forward with his lips to the water, his hands slipped and he went head foremost into the slough, for he was found with his head in the mud and his feet elevated in the air.

Mr. S. S. Oox has left Washington, not having made much headway with his attempt to get the Democracy to nominate General Grant for the Presidency in advance. He thinks they will take up G. H. Pendleton, but, as he says the Democratic party has been virtually defunct for four years, there is not the remotest chance for them with any one.

The Rev. Dr. Todd, of Pittsfield, says that the root of the great error of our day is, that woman is to be made independent and self-supporting—precisely what she can never be, because God never designed she should be. Her support, her dignity, her beauty, her honor, and happiness lie in her dependence as wife, mother, and daughter.

In the Luzerne district Mr. Geo. W. Woodward has a competitor for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the person of Mr. George Sanderson, of Scranton. Twenty years ago this gentleman was State Senator from the Bradford district, but removed to Scranton, where he is engaged in banking.

Section fourth of the new reconstruction act confirms the action of Gens. Sheridan, Sickles, Pope and others in all that they have already done in removing rebel officials, and make it their imperative duty to remove all who are disloyal or use their influence against the government.

A Frenchman named Laundry, residing in Waltham, Vt., took a sick countryman under his roof, provided for him a doctor, and nursed him until he recovered. He was rewarded by the absconding of the ungrateful wretch with all his money and a new suit of clothes.

Emma C. Moore, an orphan girl, residing in Atlanta, Ga., having quarreled with her lover, took poison and then plunged into the river. She was rescued from the water by a policeman, but died soon after. She was but 15 years old.

They tell of one of the unterrified at Bridgeport, Conn., who was especially eager to see the Presidential party, exclaiming, as he rushed up to the car, "I don't care shucks about Johnson; it's Parson Nasby that I want to see."

The St. Louis Journal is authority for the assertion that many of the leading Democrats of the country are pulling the political wires to place Gen. McClellan once more in nomination for the Presidency.

One of "ye fierce Democracie" of New Haven, when asked what he thought of the President, replied, "He's a noble looking man, a splendid figure of a man; he's got a forehead like an ox!"

The Luzerne Union nominates Judge Woodward as the Democratic candidate for Congressional representative, to succeed Hon. Charles Dennison, deceased.

It is a curious fact that both candidates for Supreme Judge are Elders in the Presbyterian Church—Judge Sharswood in the Old School Branch, Judge Williams in the New.

Charles Weiser, a wealthy banker of York, Pa., died a few days since.

The Ladies Friend for August opens with a piquant steel engraving of a rustic maiden holding eggs up to the light to see if they are fresh. The fashion plate for this month is a group of six young misses beautifully designed and colored. Then we have numerous engravings devoted to the fashions, coiffures, bead collar, hats and bonnets, peplums, dresses, children's costumes, paletots, &c. The literary contents are very choice. An illustrated article shows what pretty things in the way of vases, &c., can be made from common egg-shells. Specimen numbers of the magazine will be sent for twenty cents. Price, per annum, $2.50; one copy of the Ladies Friend and one of the Saturday Evening Post $4.00. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

Moses Ooker, an old colored citizen of Caroline county, Md., died at his residence in the First district, last week, aged 103 years. The Denton Union says he was respected by our white citizens who knew him as a man of truth, promptness and punctuality in all his dealings. He had acquired considerable property, owning at the time of his death some three or four farms. His estate is estimated at about $15,000, which he leaves to his children and grand-children.

Hon. John Kasson, late Representative in Congress from Iowa, and now commissioner from the United States, appointed to visit England and France and confer with the authorities as to the best means of reducing the postage between these nationalities and the United States, is now in Europe. His efforts have been successful to a great degree, and there is every probability that the international postage will be reduced one-half.

The District of Columbia, since the seat of Government was first established there, has witnessed a fearful mortality among newspapers. Over one hundred have been started, of which but nine survive. These are the Globe, the National Intelligencer, Chronicle, the Express, the Star, the Constitutional Union, the Times, Republican, and the Georgetown Courier.

The Pen and Pencil is the title of a new work published in New York weekly, it has sixteen pages of right good reading matter and may be had for 10 cents a number. Late advices from Vera Cruz state that the body of Maximilian will be delivered to the Austrian legation. The remains of the ex-Emperor are now on their way to Vera Cruz, and will be put on board the Austrian steam frigate Elizabeth, which is due about the 1st of August. The body was embalmed immediately after the execution.

John L. Goddard, Esq., an old and well-known citizen, died at his residence in West Philadelphia on the 23rd inst. Mr. Goddard occupied the rank of Grand Master of the Order of Free Masons in the State. He was also an active manager of the House of Refuge and other charitable institutions.

The eight hour law, recently adopted by the Wisconsin Legislature, went into effect on the 4th inst. Thus far it has made no change, as the working men prefer to work in the old style of ten hours per day, rather than the new at a proportionate reduction of wages.

The story of Payne having made a written confession, and its now being in the War Department is untrue. He refused up to the very last moment to divulge anything that would incriminate others, but stated that comparatively few of the conspirators have been taken.

"Healing on its wings," say all who have made use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and by such use have been cured of coughs, colds, bronchitis, sore throat, influenza or consumption. The prudent will always keep this standard remedy by them.

It has long been known that Garibaldi was planning another expedition against Rome. He has now issued a manifesto, by which he declares that his sons and friends will fight for the liberty of Rome.

The last accounts from Europe say the Empress Charlotta is hopelessly insane, she cannot now be left alone. Two attempts have recently been made upon her life. Nevertheless she has, for a few moments, full possession of her faculties. In one of these lucid intervals lately she said: "I do not desire to live any longer; death is preferable to such an existence;" then, after a short pause, she asked: "Where is my husband? Shall I never see him more? No, no; he is dead, and I am still left in the world." Scarcely a quarter of an hour passes that the Empress does not ask for news from the Emperor Maximilian.

In Italy about one third of the whole number of laborers engaged in agricultural pursuits are women. In her manufactories 1,692,740 females and 1,379,605 males find employment. Out of 531,436 artists, nearly one fourth are women. There are 256,406 female landed proprietors there, and 313,497 maid servants. In France nearly one half the labor of almost all kinds is performed by females.

Farm hands are wanted in the West, and the demand for them comes from all quarters. The enormous crop now ready for the harvest will require, to properly secure it, more hands than can be procured in the West, and this affords a splendid opportunity to the thousands of men out of work in the Eastern cities, who are unsuccessfully going from one store to another soliciting employment.

Attorney General Stanberry says that the veto message of the President on the Reconstruction bill, attributed to him, was written by Judge Black, of Pennsylvania, at the President's request. This same Judge Black was Attorney General under Buchanan, and gave the opinion that the Federal Government could not prevent the States from seceding.

Robert Toombs, of Georgia, one of the most notorious rebels in the South, has been pardoned by the President. It will please some of the copperheads of this county to know that he recently said, "I regret nothing in the past but the dead and the failure, and I am to-day ready to use the best means I can command to establish the principles for which I fought."

Switzerland has 3,500,000 inhabitants and 345 scientific and literary publications, while France, with ten times the population, has but about 500 journals and magazines. The solution of this is the fact that in Switzerland the people all receive some education, and consequently can read, and take the papers, while in France less than one half can read.

A man named Stokely is now living at Milborne Port, near Sherborne, in Dorsetshire, England, who fought at the battle of Waterloo. He is seventy-seven years of age, and has had three wives, and ten children by each. All the children are alive. Stokely's birthday is the 18th of June—Waterloo day.

A man in Wisconsin has a patent sheep-shearing machine which operates just like a reaper or mower, and mows a swath an inch and a half wide. Special Notices.

Dr. SCHENCK'S Mandrake Pills a substitute for Calomel. These Pills are composed of various roots, having the power to relax the secretions of the liver as promptly and effectually as blue pill or mercury, and without producing any of those disagreeable or dangerous effects which often follow the use of the latter. In all bilious disorders these pills may be used with confidence, as they promote the discharge of vitiated bile, and remove those obstructions from the liver and biliary ducts, which are the cause of bilious affections in general.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills cure sick headache, and all disorders of the liver, indicated by sallow skin, coated tongue, costiveness, drowsiness and a general feeling of weakness and lassitude; showing that the liver is in a torpid or obstructed condition.

In short, these pills may be used with advantage in all cases when a purgative or alterative medicine is required.

Please ask for "Dr. Schenck's Mandrake Pills," and observe that the two likenesses of the Doctor are on the government stamp—one when in the last stage of Consumption—the other in his present health.

Will the thousands who read columns of frivolous verbiage every day devote five minutes to the perusal of a few facts which concern them nearly? Our text is Health, and we will put our commentary into a nutshell.—Weakness is indirectly the cause of all sickness; for if nature be strong enough to resist the morbid influences which produce illness, of course they are powerless. Seek strength, therefore. Invigorate and regulate the system. When the quicksilver ranges from 80 to 96 degrees in the shade, the most athletic are enfeebled, and the weak are prostrated. It is at such a time that such an invigorator as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is urgently needed.

What are the effects of this rare Vegetable Tonic? Would that all who have known its benefits could condense their experience into this paragraph. They would tell the healthy, to protect their health they must use this great safeguard against the debilitating influences. They would exhort the weak to discard all unmedicated and impure stimulants and cling to this wholesome and unfailing tonic and alternative as the shipwrecked mariner would cling to a raft in a stormy sea. They would, of dyspeptic pangs relieved, of appetite restored, of shattered nerves re-strung, of headaches cured, of disordered functions regulated, of hypochondria dissipated, of miasmatic diseases baffled, of fever and ague cured, of liver complaints arrested, of heat, privation and toil defied, of hope re-animated, and cheerfulness restored. Such are the effects of Hostetter's Bitters.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.—The advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered for several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure. To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all throat and lung affections. The only object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing. Parties wishing the prescription, free, by return mail, will please address REV. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburgh, Kings Co., N. Y.

In the coral caves sea-green is said to be the prevailing color, and the Fish-tailed Maidens sit on the rocks and comb their green locks assiduously. But the Belles of Earth prefer glossy browns and shining blacks to any other tinges, and if nature has not given their fair heads these beautiful hues, or if mischance has robbed them of their once exquisite beauty, they don't cry about it, but resort at once to

A Card from the American Watch Co. OF WALTHAM, MASS.

This Company beg leave to inform the public that they commenced operations in 1850, and their factory now covers four acres of ground, and has cost more than a million dollars, and employs over 700 operatives. They produce 75,000 Watches a year, and make and sell not less than one half of all the watches sold in the United States.

The difference between their manufacture and the European, is briefly this: European Watches are made almost entirely by hand, and the result is, of necessity, a lack of that uniformity, which is indispensable to correct time keeping. Both the eye and the hand of the most skillful operative must vary. But it is a fact that except watches of the higher grades, European watches are the product of the cheap labor of Switzerland, and the result is the worthless Ancre, Lepines and so-called Patent Levers—which soon cost more in attempted repairs, than their original price. Common workmen, boys and women, buy the rough separate parts of these watches from various factories, polish and put them together, and take them to the nearest watch merchant, who stamps and engraves them with any name or brand that may be ordered.

How AMERICAN WATCHES ARE MADE. The American Waltham Watch is made by no such uncertain process—and by no such incompetent workmen. All the Company's operations, from the reception of the raw materials to the completion of the watch, are carried on under one roof, and under one skillful and competent direction. But the great distinguishing feature of their watches, is the fact that their several parts are all made by the finest, the most perfect and delicate machinery ever brought to the aid of human industry. Every one of the more than a hundred parts of every watch is made by a machine—that infallibly reproduces every succeeding part with the most unvarying accuracy; it was only necessary to make one perfect watch of any particular style and then to adjust the hundred machines necessary to reproduce every part of that watch, and it follows that every succeeding watch must be like it.

The Company respectfully submit their watches on their merits only. They claim TO MAKE A BETTER ARTICLE FOR THE money, by their improved mechanical processes than can be made under the old-fashioned handicraft system. They manufacture watches of every grade, from a good, low priced and substantial material, in solid silver housing cases, to the finest Chronometer; and also ladies' watches in plain gold or the finest emerald and jeweled cases; but the indispensable requisite of all their watches is that they shall be GOOD TIMEKEEPERS. It should be remembered that, except their single lowest grade named "Home Watch Company, Boston," ALL WATCHES made by them are FULLY WARRANTED by a special certificate, and this warranty is good at all times against the Company or its agents.
