A KENTUCKIAN IN LUCK: Some persons doubt that large prizes are ever drawn in Lotteries; but the following certificate, with name and residence, is too plain to be doubted, even by the most skeptical; BRADFORDSVILLE, Marion Co., Ky. April 20, 1860. This certifies that I have this day, received of the agent, the full amount in gold, of the highest capital prize of $24,000, drawn at Wilmington, Delaware, March 9th, 1850, in Wood, Eddy & Co.'s "Delaware State Lotteries" in class 118; and that full permission is hereby given by me, to publish my name and residence. JOHN AVAUNT.

Part or whole tickets can be obtained by enclosing to Wood Eddy & Co., at Wilmington, Delaware, or St. Louis, Missouri, $2.50, $5.00, $10.00 or $20.00, and the printed drawing certified to by the Commissioner, will be sent to you with an explanation.

FOR THE BENEFIT OF EDITORS. The proprietors of "Our Home," a water cure, located in Dansville, Livingston Co., N. Y., kept by Dr. Jackson, publish through the columns of the Herald of that place an invitation to all editors of newspapers throughout the United States who are sick to become at any time their guests, without charge, for three months, to take a course of treatment for that length of time. It says: "Those of you who are addicted to the use of tobacco, ardent spirits, drug poisons, tea, coffee, or opium, and would like to be relieved from your dependence on them, to you we extend this invitation.

GOING TO ANNAPOLIS: The Great Eastern must go somewhere to take in coal before she can return to Europe, and her proprietors have consented to take her to Annapolis, on condition that the Marylanders shall give her twenty-five hundred tons of Cumberland coal, which proposal will probably be accepted, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company having offered to give one-third of the required amount, and in a few weeks the Leviathan will be seen steaming up the Chesapeake.

The committee of New York gentlemen, friends of Mr. Fowler, who are raising a fund to reimburse the Government for his deficiency, have already collected $60,000, and are confident of securing the whole sum. Numbers of the persons to whom Mr. Fowler, in his palmy days, lent large sums of money, without taking any memorandum or written acknowledgment, have generously come forward and paid into the hands of the committee the entire amounts due. It is rare that a criminal meets with such general, generous sympathy.—Boston Advertiser.

Ex-President Tyler has declared through the press that he is for disunion in the event of the election of either Mr. Bell or Mr. Lincoln or Mr. Douglas to the Presidency, and that in either case he will fight for a funeral! He is particularly fierce against Mr. Bell. What right has he to think that there is any human creature whom the American people would endure as President, when he remembers that for nearly four years they endured him!

Who dodged the vote on the Home-stand bill? Stephen A. Douglas. Who dodged on the admission of Kansas? Stephen A. Douglas. Who claims that "my great principle," Popular Sovereignty, has given to slavery a degree and a half more of the public domain than the slave power claimed? Stephen A. Douglas.

The Prince of Wales will reach this country early in August. He has accepted invitations to visit the President and Mayor of New York. If he should be fortunate enough to escape vulgar and annoying toadying while here, the visit of the future King of England will be both pleasant and profitable.

Reverdy Johnson expresses a hope that every Democrat will "keep step to the music of his party." But, as the Democratic party is whistling a slow march out of one corner of its mouth and a quick one out of the other, how would a poor Democrat look trying to keep step to its music?

The Hon. Jere. Clemens retires from the editorial association of the Memphis (Tenn.) Enquirer, and the paper is now under the sole control of Hon. Solon Borland, formerly a Senator in Congress from Arkansas. The paper is an advocate of Bell and Everett.

Senator Brown of Mississippi, having read Mr. Breckinridge's letter of acceptance, now declares his purpose to take no part in the fight, as there is no practical difference in the positions taken by the two democratic candidates.

Nathaniel P. Hobart of Pennsylvania died at Pottstown, on the 3d inst., at the age of 70. He had filled many important public positions, and was Auditor General of the State under the administration of Gov. Ritner.

Seward has already announced his determination to take the stump in Michigan. The Troy Times states that he will also stump the States of Pennsylvania, New York and Illinois for Lincoln and Hamlin.

Charles M. Conrad, of New Orleans, Secretary of State, under General Taylor, has come out in favor of Bell and Everett.

CLIPPINGS FROM OUR EXCHANGES. The Postmaster-General is about to issue an important circular to postmasters, requiring, among other things, that in all cases postage stamps and not money be used in the prepayment of postage, and prohibiting the use of the dating stamp in cancelling the postage stamps. A neglect to cancel postage stamps, effectually, or to post mark letters plainly, will be regarded as a cause for serious censure, if not of removal.

Bayard Taylor seems to have shaken off the old and restless longing for travel, and is entertaining some German friends at his native town, in Chester county, Pennsylvania. He is just completing a stately country seat on grounds adjoining his birthplace. In laying the cornerstone last fall, he deposited a copy of his first work, "Views a-Foot," on the fly-leaf of which he wrote, "This is the real foundation-stone of this edifice."

The post-mortem examination of the body of John Kelley, who died recently in Black Rock, N. Y., discloses the singular fact that his heart contained a lead ball with which he was shot eighteen years previous. It is supposed to have passed into the heart through a vein in which it lodged, fourteen years ago, since which he had exhibited a most extraordinary disturbance of the heart's action.

Miss Anna Mary Wolf, of Hamilton township, Adams county, Pa., a young lady of about 20 years of age, was on the top of a load of grain which was being taken from the field to the barn, when the wagon gave a sudden lurch, and she was thrown to the ground, and her neck dislocated by the fall. She died instantly.

The Rev. Edward A. Wilson would respectfully call the attention of Consumptives, and others, to his card in another column of this paper, with the hope that every sufferer will take advantage of the present opportunity of obtaining prompt and permanent relief.

It is said that Lord Palmerston annually sends out twenty young men and the same number of young women, from his Sligo estate to Canada, at his own expense. All their legitimate wants are provided for, not only as far as Quebec, but to the end of their journey.

Mr. Spurgeon preaches from nine to twelve sermons a week, conducts two Bible classes and conference meetings, oversees the studies of several young men for the ministry, and writes continually for the public. He enjoys increasing health withal.

Wesley Harb, the fat man of German Valley, Morris county, N. J., was buried on the 27th ult. He was a middle aged man, and weighed about 600 pounds. It took 910 feet of lumber to make his coffin. He leaves a wife weighing about 500 pounds.

A monument to the memory of the Maid of Orleans, after the design of the Princess Marie of Orleans, is to be erected, by order of the French Emperor, near the old bridge of Compeigne, where Joan of Arc was taken prisoner by the English, on the 33d of May, 1430.

The Rt. Rev. Archbishop Hughes is to be made a Cardinal next October.—He will be the first American ever honored with that dignity. Had Bishop England, of South Carolina, lived, it is said that the Cardinal's hat would have been conferred upon him.

The Buffalo Commercial, which supported Fillmore in 1856, is out strongly in favor of Mr. Lincoln. It has just made a most vigorous appeal to those who labored with it during the campaign of 1856.

Many years ago students at Harvard College gave Judge Story a dinner, at which Mr. Everett presided.

CAUTION.—The following act having been passed at the last session of the Legislature of Georgia, our business, on and after June 1st, 1860 will be carried on at Wilmington, Delaware, and St. Louis, Missouri.

AN Act to repeal all laws, and parts of laws, authorizing Lotteries in the State of Georgia, and for other purposes. SECTION 1. The General Assembly of Georgia do enact: That from and after the first day of June, Eighteen Hundred and Sixty, all laws and parts of laws authorizing Lotteries in the State of Georgia, or the vending of Lottery Tickets in said State be and the same are hereby repealed.

Approved by the Governor, Dec. 11, 1858. Therefore, all Lotteries pretending to be drawn in the State of Georgia, after that date, must be illegal, and a fraud upon the public.

PARDONED OUT AND GONE TO LECTURING.—Our readers no doubt remember that some eight years ago a recreant Monk of La Trappe, named Leahy, was sentenced to the Wisconsin State prison for life, for the murder of a man named Manly. A few days ago Leahy was pardoned out, and is now in Milwaukee.—Before he committed this murder he delivered anti-Catholic lectures throughout the country, and created great excitement. It is said that a few years since he was reconciled to the church again. He now announces that he will deliver a public lecture. Subject:—"The address he delivered before the jury which consigned him to the State prison for life, for shooting the seducer of his wife."

CRIME AND ITS PUNISHMENT.—Elizabeth Simpson, convicted in Accomac county, Va., of the murder of a man named Budd, was imprisoned in the penitentiary at Richmond last week for five years. A short time since Tatley Lilleson, her accomplice, was committed for twelve years. Lilleson, who was a man of property, and a few years since a candidate for the House of Delegates, was jealous of Budd, and the woman says that L. threatened to shoot her if she did not shoot Budd, and she did it. Elizabeth Simpson carried a young baby to the prison, with her, born since her arrest.

PARDONED BY THE PRESIDENT.—Chas. Patterson, of Elmira, who was sentenced to the Auburn State Prison from Buffalo, five years since, for a term of ten years, for stealing letters from the mail, was pardoned last week by President Buchanan. Patterson was only seventeen years of age when sentenced. He was a very quiet and clever boy, it was urged of the time of his trial, and had been led into the commission of crime by older associates.

A DOG OVER THE FALLS OF NIAGARA.—An unfeeling fellow threw his dog into the Niagara River, near Goat Island bridge, the other day, to test the question whether it was possible for animals to be carried over the falls and escape alive, and immediately afterward went to the foot of the ferry stairs and found the dog but little injured by the tremendous leap. The experiment was tried to convince some incredulous person.

GABRIELI'S second ministry is said to have resigned. Naples had notified England and France of her intention to offer the constitution of 1812, and France had agreed to it, but England hesitates. In regard to the question of annexing Sicily to Piedmont, Lord John Russell had declared in Parliament that England could not depart from the great principle of the right of the people to choose their own government without interference.

THE GREAT EASTERN'S STEAM POWER.—It is stated that a careful computation shows the steam power of the Great Eastern steamship is equal to the water power that drives the mills at Lowell. This gives an idea of the immense power of the steamer, equal to that required for the works of one of the great manufacturing cities of America.

EMANCIPATION BY A VIRGINIAN.—Miss Cornelia Barbour, a daughter of the Hon. James Barbour, of Virginia, formerly Governor of that State and a member of President J. Q. Adams' Cabinet, has resolved to emancipate her numerous slaves and locate them in a free State.

DEDICATION.—The new Presbyterian Church at Harrisburg, Pa., was dedicated on Sunday last, Rev. Dr. Gurley, of Washington, preaching in the morning, and the Rev. Mr. Burt, of Baltimore, in the evening.

Prof. Lowe, the aeronaut, is preparing at Philadelphia for a trip across the Atlantic. "An unavoidable detention" will probably be experienced, just before starting.

The Great Eastern is to make a trip to Cape May on Monday next, and to take as many passengers as may offer for the round voyage at $10 the head.

Joseph T. Buckingham, of Boston, veteran editor, has had a newly opened in favor of the Bell and Everett ticket.

THE OLDEST MASON.—In reference to a paragraph published in Forney's Press some days since, which stated that Mr. John Johnson, of Cincinnati, was the oldest Mason in the United States, a correspondent writes to a New York journal as follows: George Campbell, who now resides in Fifty-first street, was born on St. John's day, 1772, is a Royal Arch Mason, and is an older Mason and man, both by two years, than Col. John Johnson, of Cincinnati. He is an old merchant of this city, and was on intimate visiting terms with both Hamilton and Burr, and after their fatal duel and when Burr needed concealment from the minions of law, he went to the house of Campbell, then at Hackensack N. J., and was concealed, and got out of the country by him, while Robert Campbell, his own brother, was State Attorney, living in the same town, and would have given five thousand dollars to have secured the arrest of Burr.

GOOD ADVICE.—On the subject of behavior in company, Leigh Richmond gives the following excellent advice to his daughters:—"Be cheerful, but not gigglers. Be serious, but not dull. Be communicative, but not forward. Be kind, but not servile. Beware of silly thoughtless speeches; although you may forget them, others will not. Remember God's eye is in every place, and his ear in every company. Beware of levity and familiarity with young men; a modest reserve, without affectation, is the only safe path. Court and encourage serious conversation with those who are truly serious and conversable; do not go into valuable company without endeavoring to improve by the intercourse permitted to you. Nothing is more unbecoming, when one part of the company is engaged in profitable and interesting conversation, than another part should be trifling, giggling, and talking comparative nonsense to each other.

Judge Terry was lately acquitted of the offence of killing Senator Broderick in a duel, by a jury in Marion county, under such circumstances as leave no doubt of a collusion between the prosecution and defence to produce such a result. The witnesses establishing the guilt of Terry were all on their way from San Francisco to Marion in a small boat. They were delayed so that they did not reach the Court House until about 12 o'clock. Judge Hardy opened the Court at 9 A. M. The District Attorney announced that his witnesses had not made their appearance. The case went to the jury without a word of testimony, and, under the charge of Judge Hardy, a verdict of acquittal was rendered before 10 o'clock.

The Prince of Wales, who arrived in this country on last Tuesday, is a graceful young scamp of eighteen or nineteen years. He has thus far achieved nothing except the seduction of a young lady. This is all the account of him that has yet come across the water. He is sent off on account of this affair, as has been said, and probably correctly. Yet our people are preparing to go crazy over him. American mothers and American fathers will be very proud to do honor to this Royal scamp. So goes the world.

Hackensack, N. J., says the Journal of that place, is excited over a double elopement case, which occurred from this village on Wednesday. Two gentlemen from New York, after being in town a few days, eloped with a married lady and her unmarried sister. The married lady left a child with a neighbor, and went away without incumbrance.—No clue has been obtained to the fugitives.

It was confidently expected that Lady Franklin would have been among the passengers on the Adriatic, but from advices received she was obliged to defer her visit to the United States until the next trip of that steamer. She will be the guest of Mr. Henry Grinnell.

Hon. Wm. Duer, a leading Bell and Everett man in New York, writes that he wants to beat Lincoln, but not enough to play into the hands of Southern secessionists. He adds: "If we must have a sectional President, I prefer my own section."

The Japanese Ambassadors have shown themselves to be trumps. They left $20,000 for Mr. Belmont to distribute among the police of the cities which they visited, thus: Washington $2650; Baltimore $300; Philadelphia $3200; New York $13,750.

Mr. Willington, of the Charleston Courier, is now supposed to be the oldest living editor in America. He commenced the Courier sixty years ago.
