PERSONAL: Orville, popularly known as "Awful" Gardner, whose sudden conversion from the error of his ways, during the late revival, created such an interest in the sporting and religious worlds, and who attempted for a while a model temperance house, has turned up at Saratoga, where, with great gusto and profit, he retails the particulars of his former career, and warns his hearers of the wrath to come.

AN ITEM FOR HOUSEKEEPERS: The liquid glue made as a specialty, and extensively advertised as a secret preparation, is very simply made, and costs very little. Eight ounces of glue, dissolved in half a pint of water, in a wide mouthed bottle, cost but a few cents.

THE GREAT EASTERN.—The Great Eastern steamship arrived at Cape May a few days ago. There was much dissatisfaction on account of the want of accommodation. Food was scarce and dear, water was sold at ten cents a glass, and the officials of the steamer behaved in the most singular manner to the passengers.

JOHN BROWN'S FAMILY.—The sum of $6,250, contributed in the United States for the benefit of old Brown's family, was distributed among them a few days ago. The widow and three small children received $2,250. John Brown, Jr., $1,000, Watson Brown's widow $800, Wm. Thompson's widow $500, and the others the balance.

SUICIDE OF AN ALLEGED MURDERER.—Jacob Leider, who was charged with the murder of his sister-in-law and mother-in-law, at Brownsville, Minn., on the 10th inst., committed suicide by shooting himself in his own house. He had been secreted in the vicinity ever since the commission of the murder.

The following is said to be the population in 1860, of the following cities and towns in Pennsylvania: Philadelphia, 630,000; Pittsburg, 130,000; Reading, 24,000; Lehigh, 18,000; Harrisburg, 14,500; Norristown, 13,500; Scranton, 12,000; Pottsville, 13,000; York, 10,000; Easton, 10,000; Allentown, 8,047; Wilkesbarre, 7,989.

The wake of the Great Eastern is marked with blood, yesterday as she was passing pier No. 13 North River, the steamer Montgomery saluted her, when the cannon exploded, killing three of the Montgomery's crew.

A proclamation has been issued for the sale of one million of acres of heretofore unoffered lands in Minnesota, during October next. They include lands remaining to the United States from railroad grants.

The Washington States proposes to erect a monument to the late Joseph Gales, by small contributions, to be collected principally from the poor, to whom he was a life-long friend.

Old Bachelor Sneer would like to know what kind of a broom the young woman in the last novel used, when she swept back the raven ringlets from her classic brow.

The Washington correspondence of the Richmond Whig mentions as among the rumors of that city that ex-Governor Wise will, in a short time, come out boldly for Bell and Everett.

The Illustrated News announces the approaching nuptials of Mayor Wood with Miss Georgiana Crean, sister to Mrs. James Gordon Bennett.

A client once burst in tears after he had heard the statement of his counsel, exclaiming—"I didn't think I had suffered half so much."

Sebastopol, which, before the siege, had a population of 40,000 souls, now numbers but 10,000 inhabitants, of whom 6,000 are men.

A YOUNG LADY "COMPLETELY STRIPPED"—On the Indiana and Cincinnati Railroad, a pleasure party rode a short distance, when they alighted and stood around on the small platform, covering it completely, waiting to see the cars move before leaving for the woods.

Some of ex-President Pierce's old New England friends at Washington comment very bitterly upon his recent course, saying that he has closely allied himself to the few who have been his violent enemies, while he has wounded the feelings of the rank and file that stood by him through a storm of detraction.

Among the persons now visiting Bedford Springs are ex-Governor William F. Johnson, Judge Thompson, of the Supreme Court; Bishop Bowman, of Lancaster; Judge Sharswood, of Pennsylvania; Hon. Carroll Spence, late Minister to Constantinople, and the Rev. G. B. Parviance, of Baltimore, besides a great many other prominent persons from all parts of the country.

The oldest living graduate of Yale College, Mr. Joshua Dewey, of Watertown, N. Y., is in New Haven, attending the commencement exercises. He entered his ninety-fourth year in April last, and enjoys his bodily and mental faculties to a remarkable degree.

About thirty notorious houses of ill-fame, dance houses, grogeries, &c., in the southern part of St. Louis, were riddled by a mob on Wednesday night, and all the furniture and effects burned in the street. The loss by the destruction of the furniture is estimated at $30,000.

The Putnam Phalanx of Hartford have issued an eloquent appeal for contributions in aid of a monument to Gen. Israel Putnam—"Old Pat." The State has appropriated $3,000, but an equal sum must be raised by private subscriptions.

So anxious are the Republicans of California to possess a rail of the Abe Lincoln stamp, that, at a late enthusiastic meeting of the party, it was voted to send out to Illinois to obtain one, and in case the supply of the original article is exhausted it was suggested that Mr. Lincoln be requested to split one more for their especial benefit.

The Republicans are making a vigorous canvass in the St. Louis Congressional District. The Hon. Lyman Trumbull and the Hon. F. P. Stanton have made speeches there, and Frank Blair is going in with his accustomed energy.

Mr. John P. Adrians, the manufacturer of the Buckeye mowing machine in New York says the statement that 108 convicts in the Auburn prison are engaged in the manufacture of the Buckeye machines, is an error.

Marshal Castellane has become, by the death of Prince Jerome, the senior Marshal of France, by age. Marshal Vaillant, who was promoted to that rank in 1851, has, however, held the position longer than any other Marshal.

During last year no less than 659 agricultural articles were patented in this country. Of these, 117 were seed-pans, 113 hoes, 58 cultivators, 43 plows, 42 churns.

An English clergyman at Halloway, England, has been detected in preaching the sermons of Rev. Dr. Bushnell, of Hartford, from the published volumes in this country.

CLIPPINGS FROM OUR EXCHANGES.—The confession of Rev. J. S. Hadden, recently hung in New Jersey for wife murder, has been bought from his father for $2,000 and published. The statement that there were facts in the confession involving criminal connection with a large number of respectable families in Huntington and Warren counties is without the slightest truth.

A CARD, Lotteries.—The statement recently published to the effect that "all the Georgia Lotteries would be abolished after the 1st of June, 1860," is not only malicious but untrue.

We draw our lottery by authority of a charter granted by the State of Georgia, having yet many years to run. We hold the receipt of the Comptroller-General of the State of Georgia for $1000 tax, levied by act of 1858 on authorized Lotteries in this State. This is evidence of our desire to comply with the laws on this subject, and may assure the purchasers of tickets that our Lottery is legal and authorized.

In proof of this we call the attention of our patrons to the following brief but comprehensive opinion of Col. Lochrane, a gentleman skilled in the Lottery laws of this State and one of the ablest members of the Georgia Bar.

Macon, Geo., June 1, 1860. Hodges, Davis & Co.—I have carefully examined your Lottery charter and it is the best in this State. You may rest assured you are under no penal enactments in drawing your Lottery, nor is their any law to stop you in the exercise of your chartered rights.

A MAN POISONED BY HIS DAUGHTER.—Mr. Andrew Horton, of Chepachet, N. Y., had been on a spree for about four weeks, and came home on Thursday night with a new bottle of liquor, which his wife destroyed after he had gone to bed. In the morning as usual, he was very sick, and called for his rum.

PEAL'S COURT OF DEATH.—We call attention to the advertisement of the engraving of Peal's Court of Death, in another column. If what the press say of it, is only half true, it is the cheapest and most desirable work of art ever introduced to the public.

POWER OF A MINORITY.—In case of the election of President by the House of Representatives, the seventeen smallest States can elect a President. Three of these minor States have only a single representative, six have only two, three have three, three have four, one has five, and another six, so that thirty-seven members of Congress, being a majority of the delegations from a majority of the States, can elect a President, if no election is made by the electors chosen by the popular vote.

DEATH FROM STANDING ON HIS HEAD.—On Friday last several boys were playing in a freight car, trying which could stand the longest on his head. A little son of Thos. Lindsay stood thus nearly five minutes, when he was prevented from standing longer by one of the other boys. After gaining his feet he immediately ran home, complaining that his head hurt him, and in a few hours expired, the blood rushing to his brain, causing apoplexy. Let the little boys be careful how they play.

FALSE REPORT.—The Tyrone Star, in a late issue, stated that Hon. Wm. F. Johnson, while on his way to the Bedford Springs, announced himself in favor of Bell and Everett. This report is contradicted by the Bedford Inquirer, the editor of which had a conversation with Gov. Johnson a few days ago, at the Springs, in which he announced himself warmly in favor of Lincoln and Hamlin.

BURSTING OF A HORSE'S EYES.—The Memphis Enquirer is informed by the agent of the Overland Mail Company, that, a few days since, as the stage coach was nearing Madison, the eyes of one of the horses attached to it actually burst out from their sockets. The horse is still alive, and the case has, we believe, no parallel. Heat and over exertion were the probable cause.

FALLEN GREATNESS.—Soulogue, the ex-Emperor of Hayti, lives in the city of Kingston, Jamaica, in mean and wretched poverty, spending most of his time in gambling with a few low Haytian rascals.

DOCTORS IN LUCK. A Singular Circumstance.—Two Physicians, of Wilmington, N. C., and the other in Washington, Penn., each buy a lottery ticket, and the following certificates (with date, name and residence) show, were so fortunate enough to draw large prizes: Dolington, Penn., July 10, 1860. This is to certify that I was the holder of a share of ticket No. 48, 50, 71, and 300, in Delaware State Lottery, drawn June 23, under the management of Wood, Eddy & Co., which combination drew the prize of $15,000, and that prize was cashed on presentation.
