Just Published. THE LIFE OF THE EMPRESS JOSEPHINE, Wife of Napoleon I. BY CECIL B. HARTLEY, Author of Life of Col. David Crockett, Col. Daniel Boone, &c., &c.

With a Splendid Portrait on Steel. One volume, 12 mo., cloth, 337 pages. Price One Dollar; and upon the receipt of the Price, with 21 cents additional for Postage; a copy of the book, together with a handsome present, worth from 50 cents to $1.00, will be sent to any address in the United States.

From the Preface. The Empress Josephine was one of the most remarkable of all the extraordinary characters who rose into the conspicuous public position in consequence of the French Revolution. Wonderful were the events of her life. With the kindest and most affectionate of human hearts, she united the sternest principles of rectitude and a comprehensive genius.

Josephine constantly looked to the glory of France, the fame of her husband and the most desirable objects. When Napoleon desired to perpetuate his dynasty by a second marriage which might yield him a male heir to his throne, Josephine nobly sacrificed her own feelings to what she might deem the advantage of France. In his adversity this true woman forgot all but their happy years of wedded love—remembered not that she had been repudiated, but that she was unfortunate.

We have freely drawn upon various authors, who have recorded anecdotes and traits of Josephine, as related to them, with the tenderest of affection, which, too late, recognized her full value, by Napoleon himself, in his closing days, as it is to be hoped that the book will be found reliable as well as entertaining. Full of truth, yet it is the very Romance of Biography.

Copies of either of the above books, with a handsome Gift, worth from 50 cents to $1.00, are sent to any person in the United States upon receipt of $1.00, and 21 cents for postage, by addressing the publisher, who is desirous of calling your attention to his liberal method of transacting business.

With each book that is bought at his Establishment a present is given—worth from fifty cents to one hundred dollars.

The presents are of good quality and of the best Manufacture. They comprise a large assortment of Gold and Silver Watches, Silver Plated Ware, Silk Dress Patterns, Jewelry, &c., &c., too numerous to mention.

Send for a complete catalogue of books, which will be mailed to you free of expense, and one trial will assure you that the best place in the country to buy books, is at the large and reliable gift book establishment of G. W. WOLFE, No. 439 Chestnut-st., Philadelphia.
