A SICKELS CASE IN KENTUCKY .- On Tuesday in man, named Keller, was killed at Mt. Sterling, Ky., by another, named Thomas ... Thomas had suspected an improper intimacy between his wife and Keller, and on Tuesday he found them together in the woods near the town she sitting upon the ground holding Kellers head in her lap, and combing his hair, Thomas drew a knife, and rushing The dog that bit him died a few days upon Keller, killed him on the spot.

The Millerites have been holding their religious services in North Wilbraham, Mass. This sect now numbers 50, 000 in the United States and the Canadistand they gather in camp meetings figure nearly every State in the Union:portion of the brothern look for the ninm before the last of March, 1861; others are confident that the world last ten years and two months longus, while others still predict a universal overthrow in about sixteen weeks.

Mr. D. U. Martin, the gentleman who left Boston, some two weeks ago, in a little two cared wherry, arrived safely in New York, on Thursday evening last he having accomplished his extraordinary feat in about 80 hours of actual rowing, averaging over five miles per hour Hesubsisted almost wholly upon berries and other fruit; drinking no water; the last day's pull from a place ten miles east of Sands Point, was accomplished after a late breakfast, a portion of one watermelon only serving for his refreshment. He took lodgings with Mr. Darling at No. 504 Sheriff street.

At Paterson, N. J., on Wednesday, a young man named Teneck died of consumption. It is stated that during the six months previous he had grown fourteen inches in height, by actual measurement. He went to the Rogers Locomotive works as an apprentice, early in the year, when he lacked something of five feet. At the time of his decease he measured over six feet:

Governor Banks, of Massachusetts, declines a renomination, and announces his intention of retiring from pelitical life. He has accepted a position as Resident Director of the Illinois Central Railroad, at a salary of about $7,500 a year. It is stated that his principle motive for this step has been the necessity of making better provision for his family than the emoluments of political office would enable him to do.

Edward R. Cooper, a man of more than three score years, has been sentenged at Richmond, Va,, to the Penitentiary for five years, for attempting to bill his wife.

Professor Gaddis and the Temperance Cause. MR. BAKER: In looking over a late number of the Harrisburg Patriot and Union, I found the following:

TEMPERANCE LECTURE. - It is said that Prof. Gaddis, who has lectured on temperance with great satisfaction to the friends of the cause, in various towns of this State, will shortly visit Harrisburg for that purpose. His lectures are favorably noticed by many of our exchanges.

Harrisburg Telegraph.

We hope not—for the sake of a good cause.

We do not exactly like to style Gaddis an itin-We do not exactly like to style Gaddis an itinerating humbur, who manages to make a good, easy living out of a cause which he has evidently espoused for that purpose, but we will say that fifty orators may be found in Harrisburg to-day who are able to deliver a better lecture on temperance than Gaddis can, and who will do it if the temperance men wish without a small collection. Professor Gaddis, eh? Professor of what? Abolitionism and making money, we suppose? What has become of Riley he who mixes up Republicanism and Temperance?—Patriot.

Upon inquiry at the most reliable sources I learn that Professor Gaddis, who is here pronounced a humbug, &c. is a gentleman of irreproachable character and learning; being a graduate of the Delaware College; a professor of Natural Sciences in one of the Cincinnati colleges; a clergyman in the M. E. Church, and a son of Rev. Dr. Gaddis of Cincinnati. Prof. G. is employed two months in the year, during his vacation in Cincinnati, by the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of the State of Pennsylvania, through their Secretary, William Nicholson, Esq-, and came to this place under the direction of that organization. He has never been intoxicated-is no reformed drunkard-but solely acting a benevolent part in the good cause of temperance. This was his first lecture on the Sabbath-and it was in consequence of his time having nearly expired. He has since returned to his usual duties in the "Queen City."

FATAL CASE OF HYDROPHOBIA.-The Boston Traveller, of the 13th instant, says that Mr. Thomas Dascomb, residing in Zeigler street, Roxbury, died Sunday noon of hydrophobia. He kept a number of dogs, and about a week ago two of them, a female and one of her puppies, were playing rather roughly together, and he attempted to separate them .-The mother of the puppy bit his wrist slightly, but he took no notice of it until Friday night last, when he woke up with a burning thirst, and endeavored to drink some water, when he was seized with a violent spasm. He spoke to his wife in relation to the dog biting him, and said he was sure he had been poisoned in some way, and thought he had the hydrophobia. He continued to grow worse, and barked like a dog, turned summersaults in his bed with a strength which two men were sunable to restrain, and after much suffering died yesterday noon. after giving the bite.

THE NEW POSTAGE STAMP.—The 90 cent postage stamp has just been issued. Washington, taken from a portrait paint- ence any such thing -N. Y. The postage, for the most part, on foreign letters not covered by the above rates, are fifteen, twenty-seven and fifty-four, cents. A combination of the stamps now furnished will answer this necessity.

since Governor Packer had occasion to visit his cellar, and to his dismay discovered that some person had stolen his entire stock of liquors. Suspicion rested on a confidential young man who was chief butler to the Governor, and being traced up, he recovered about one hundred dollars' worth of liquors, and about twenty-five dollars of money, the receipts for the portion sold. This is the story n general circulation.

A new daily has made its appearance in Harrisburg, called the State Sentinel. Wm. D. Earnest & Co., proprietors. It looks well, is fierce for Douglas, and uncompromisingly hostile to fusion with the Breckinridge disorganizers. The Capital City of the old Keystone State can now boast more daily papers than any other place of the same population in the Union.

At a meeting of some sixty Americans in Buffalo, a few evenings since, called to give an expression of their views in regard to the propriety of passing themselves over to Douglas, as arranged by Hunt, Brooks & Co., fifty one concluded to vote for Lincoln.

A Wide Awake General Committee for the city and county of New York was organized on Monday night, for the purpose of having hereafter all the Wide Awake companies in the city act with more perfect unanimity on the occasion of parades, and otherwise.

The Albany Journal says that in a town that neighborhood every man who ever acted with the American party is out for Lincoln. Lincoln's majority in that town will be double the Republican vote in 1856:

The hay crop throughout Northeastern Pennsylvania has been abundant this season. Many farmers believe it the largest ever gathered,

In New York city 3007 dogs have been this season brought up and drowned by the city, at an expense of $751.

DEATH OF AN OLD PHILADELPHIAN .-John Wilson, ninety one years of age, died recently at Zanesville, Ohio. He was born a subject of the British government in Philadelphia, December 23rd, 1767, and was consequently an eye witness of, and to some extent an actor in, the stirring scenes which soon after agitated his native city and aided in the war of the Revulction. Mr. Wilson remembers with great distinctness and took much pleasure in narrating the early local history of Philadelphia and its neighborhood. He went West in 1806, and first settled in Pittsburg, but removed to Zanesville in 1817, and engaged at once in his business—that of a carpenter and house joiner-which he continued to pursue with remarkable industry and energy until a few years ago. He was four times married—his last wife surviving him. Mr. Wilson had been a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Zanesville for forty-three years, was a liberal and well-wisher of every religious moral and benevolent movement.

The Boston Daily Advertiser, of the 14th of February, 1829, says that a stables. young gentleman of Boston walked to Charleston, South Carolina, eleven hundred and fifty miles, in thirty-six days; from Niagara Falls to Rochester in two days, accomplishing the first day fortynine miles, although he was detained three hours in Lockport; from Saratoga Springs to Boston in four successive days; from Providence (Blake's Hotel) to Cambridge Street, Boston, in less than ten hours, including stops; besides other excursions to Ticonderoga, Flatrush, New York, Burlington, Vermont, and Mount Washington, New Hampshire.

It is announced in the morning journals that Governor Banks has been offered and has accepted the office of Vice President and Resident Director of the Illinois Central Railroad, and will remove to Chicago on the 1st of January next to enter upon its duties. In addition to this, says the Boston Post, we are enabled to state that the salary voted to Governor Banks is $7,000 per annum-a fact not yet published. A man of a State $1,000,000 per annum, as Governor Banks has done in Massachusetts, is precisely the man to manage a mammoth concern like the Illinois Central.

The New York Times thus denies a very foolish story which has been circulating through the mails:

"Mr. Henry J. Raymond, editor of the New York Times, in a recent speech, told his audience that when he visited Mr. Lincoln, shortly after the latter's nomination, he heard a voice from an upper room crying out,"Abraham! Abraham! come and put this child to bed!"
