Any quantity of rumors—all of a painful character, involving some of the Conductors and Ticket Agents in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, have been in circulation for some days past. The charge is that a large amount of money has found its way into the pockets of these employees through a system of fraud on passenger tickets. The reports are so vague that we forbear going into particulars at present. The company are engaged in investigating the matter, and in a short time we shall no doubt be able to lay the facts before the public. It is due to all parties concerned, that this should be done, as otherwise the innocent may suffer wrong.

We have received from Messrs. Ringwalt and Brown, a copy of a pamphlet, entitled "The Doctrine and Policy of Protection, with the history of our Tariffs," from the organization of the Federal Government to the Present time. By Dr. William Elder. This Essay was originally published in a series of articles in Forney's Press, and attracted much attention at the time, receiving the commendation of the most competent political economists. It is one of the most valuable Tariff documents of the day, and Messrs. Ringwalt & Brown have done the friends of Protection to American Industry a good service in presenting it in a cheap and convenient form. It is sold at 10 cents per copy, or $5 per hundred.

Moses Pennock, a well-known and highly respected citizen of Chester co., died on the 24th ult., at his residence near Kennett Square, aged 74 years. Mr. Pennock was the inventor of the revolving horse-rake and several other ingenious and useful agricultural machines.

The Philadelphia and Pittsburg Boards of Trade are demanding of the Pennsylvania Railroad a change of tariff between the two cities.

[For the Mariettian.] "The American Costume"—Bloomer. Mr. Editor.—We observed in passing along Market-st., on Saturday evening, a more than usual amount of glee and animation, and on inquiring the cause we were told that two young ladies had just passed by in Bloomer Dress and would likely soon return. We had often heard of the Bloomer, and had formed queer imaginings of its appearance; with great Turkish Sacks flapping like sails around the legs (excuse us ladies, we might have said limbs) and felt curious to realize woman done up thus. In a few minutes they passed along and we hurried ourselves for a close scrutiny and now feel prepared to give our opinion of the dress; whether the beauty of the wearers had much to do with our convictions we are at a loss to determine, but it certainly looked neat, comfortable and becoming upon them. The upper garment and the pantelets were made of like material; the former reaching to the knees (pardon again the blunder, middle joint); the pantelets were well proportioned and as good a fit as any worn by men; the Hats were of the style now in fashion; and which have always been an indispensable accompaniment of the Bloomer costume. There is nothing immodest about the dress and were we a woman we must acknowledge that we would like to wear it for several reasons. It is much more cleanly than the flth gathering trails that are everlastingly plunging into every fifth pool along the way; and above all it does not burthen or oppress any of the limbs, but gives the wearers that freedom of motion that enables them to clamber over hills, traverse winding paths, and jump over fences as freely as men; and why should not woman dress so that she can participate in healthy out door exercises when she desires it. Custom may demand adherence to certain styles of costume, but custom is often a bigot, and woman should not be expected to sacrifice health or comfort to the false modesty or foolish opinions that may be ingrafted upon society; she should think more for herself and be swayed less by the opinions of others and thus qualify herself more fully to meet and discharge many of the duties of life that she is now comparatively ignorant of. We hail this new dress, "The American Costume" or Bloomer, as one step in the right direction and no female should fail to adopt it if she believes it the best for her health and happiness.

THE STATE FAIR.—The Pennsylvania Railroad has decided to issue excursion tickets to Harrisburg on the occasion of the approaching State Fair at Wyoming. They will be good from the 23d to the 30th of September, and will be issued from all the stations along the road. At Harrisburg, excursionists can take either of the following routes, the length of which are about the same: The Northern Central Railroad, from Harrisburg to Milton; the Catawissa, Williamsport and Erie Railroad, from Milton to Rupert; the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg Railroad from Rupert to Scranton. Or, the Lebanon Valley Railroad, from Harrisburg to Reading; the Little Schuylkill and the Catawissa, Williamsport and Erie Railroad, from Reading to Rupert; and the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg Railroad from Rupert to Scranton.

A NEW COUNTERFEIT: Peterson's Philadelphia Detector sends us the following description of a new and dangerous altered $20 note on the Columbia Bank, Columbia, Penn'a.: 20s altered; Vignette—female on a rock overlooking the city; steamboat and cars in the distance; Locomotive and Twenty on the right end; Female and Twenty on the left end. This is well done, so be on the look out for them.

Jenkins has his hand on ex President Tyler. He says that time seems to have no effect upon the old gentleman, who is now seventy-five years of age, but that he looks younger and more robust than when occupying the White House. The pride which he last year felt in the possession of the finest wheat crop on the James River, is now transferred to an infant, only two months old—his daughter.

What is the use of being poor when you can make from $600 to $1,000 a year by acting as agent for the Erie Sewing Machine Company? Persons out of employment, and having the least bit of "vim" in them, would do well to write to Mr. J. N. Boylan, at Milan, Ohio, and get the Co.'s confidential circular to agents.

Forney's Press says: We published a day or two since, the formal challenge of General Foster to Colonel Curtin. We understand that the challenge has been formally accepted on behalf of Col. Curtin, by Mr. McClure, and that the times for holding joint discussions will soon be announced.

Grove & Roth have just received a large and varied lot of note paper, envelopes and fancy soaps. They have also been appointed agents for the sale of the celebrated Borhaves Holland Bitters. See advertisements.

The store stand of Haldeman & Co., at Chiques Furnace, was broken into on Thursday night and money, orders, &c., to the amount of $40 taken. The burglar is still at large.

CLIPPINGS FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

A report has been circulating for some time past that Kenneth Rayner, of North Carolina, had announced his intention to support the Democratic party. That gentleman has now written a lengthy letter, in which he states that he is committed to the support of Bell and Everett; but in future he will identify himself with whatever organization he may regard as most conservative in its character, most loyal to the Constitution, and as most fully representing the genius and spirit of our free institutions.

A Sunday paper asserts that Heenan and Morrissey are to fight, probably in January, but certainly not later than the 5th of March, for $10,000 a side.

A boy, fourteen years of age, is now being tried in St. Louis, on the charge of assaulting with an intent to kill a companion.

It is said that thirty men have been killed or wounded for life by threshing machines, in Indiana, during the present season.

Lady Franklin gave a dinner party on Wednesday evening, at Montreal, to which many Americans, including Strakosch and Patti, were invited.

The New York Herald remarks that the committee appointed to prepare for the reception of the Prince in New York represent over two hundred millions of dollars.

The wife of Mr. John Weber, of Lower Providence township, Mont. county, a few days since, felt slight symptoms of a felon on one of her fingers, the inflammation from which extended to the arm and chest, producing death in about a week.

A meeting was held at the Greenbriar (Va.) White Sulphur Springs on the 23rd ultimo, the object of which was to extend the hospitality of that watering place to the Prince of Wales. A committee of thirteen was appointed to extend a formal invitation.

The cleaning of the streets of New York has cost an average of $7,000 per week since the 10th of March last, and this is considered very economical there. Three hundred and forty-four thousand dollars per annum for scavenger operations is a mere trifle in Gotham.

The Governor General of Toronto has officially announced that the Prince will take no part in any procession at that place, wherein party colors are displayed, or party tunes played. This precaution is to prevent difficulty among the Orangemen.

The census taker has found a negro man in Washington county, Ohio, one hundred and fifteen years old. He was purchased at Richmond, Va., in 1776, by Blannerhasset's agent, by whom he was conveyed to Blannerhasset's island, where he remained until misfortune overwhelmed his master. The old fellow says he recollects that he "had bin gwine to see de gals long time fore de Revolution War broke out."

Edwin Forrest, the celebrated American tragedian, made his appearance on the stage, after his long retirement, on Monday evening, at the Holiday street theatre, Baltimore, and had a very handsome reception. He will appear next in his native city, Philadelphia, at the Academy of Music.

There is a female college in Forsyth, Ga., in which the young ladies are required to learn to cut and make their own dresses, and also, in turn, occasionally to supervise and direct the cooking and other domestic arrangements of the institution. We want more of such institutions.

It being rumored that the Mormons are about to return to Hancock county, Illinois, under the leadership of Joseph Smith, Jr., to settle at their old place, an indignation meeting has been held at Carthage to protest against it.

The Pittsburg Gazette says there are one hundred and forty-six papers in Pennsylvania now supporting the Republican candidates, which opposed Fremont and the Republican party in 1866. Of all the Fillmore papers, there are, says the Gazette, but two which now support Bell and Everett.

Considerable excitement exists at Somerville, near Boston, owing to the escape from the Cambridge Museum of Natural History of a black anaconda, about thirteen feet long. It is accompanied on its travels by a white adder, and the two are making sad havoc in the poultry yards of Somerville.

The ropewalker of the Italian cognomen; Signor Farini, who has dimmed the lustre of Biondini's name, proves to be the son of a Lockport (N. Y.) grocer.—His name is Wm. Hunt.

The New Orleans Picayune predicts the existence of sixty millions of negro slaves in this country in the year 1900, and is exceedingly troubled at the prospect!

They have had a rebellion at Chapel Hill, (N. C.) University, which has resulted in the expulsion of sixty-six students.

"Camp Patterson," at York, will break up to-day. It is said everything was gotten up in fine style.

FORNEY vs. BUCHANAN: Somebody ought to nominate Mr. Buchanan. His claims should not be overlooked. It rejoices us to know that there is a movement of this nature in embryo. A Washington correspondent of the Herald (probably J. S. Black) thus foreshadows it: "The universal sentiment seemed to be that of regret that Mr. Buchanan had so steadfastly set himself against his own re-election to office. Amidst our present speculations in regard to the 4th of March, 1861, who would not be rejoiced if, by some change in events, just such a man as James Buchanan would be inaugurated?"

Here is a hint to the Constitution.—why couldn't Breckinridge withdraw and permit the "Chief" to go before the country. His nomination would gladden the hearts of thousands.

Sam Houston has declined, leaving but five candidates in the field for the Presidency: Douglas, Lincoln, Bell, Gerrit Smith, and a young gentleman from Kentucky, named Breckinridge. We hear, however, of another movement in the Presidential line, from a correspondent of the New York World:

"The Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, and Justice Nelson, of New York, are to be nominated for President and Vice President at Leonard's Town, in St. Mary's county, Md. This movement originated with a few devoted friends of the Chief Justice in this State, who have always cherished the hope of his advancement, and they have selected the planters of St. Mary's to inaugurate it, with a view of trying the public pulse."

The London Critic reviews the speeches of Abraham Lincoln. In the course of its article occurs the following passage: "It is from the speeches which Mr. Lincoln has from time to time delivered in opposition to Mr. Douglas, that we gather some idea of his mental qualifications. We collect from the speeches of Mr. Lincoln that he has a mind rather of the straightforward than of the subtle order; that he rather seizes upon great and prominent facts and argues them to plain conclusions, than builds up elegant but fragile theories upon the treacherous basis of fanciful speculation; that he is earnest more than passionate, and commanding more than persuasive. Indeed, every one of his speeches which we have read bears upon the face of it evidence that he is 'Honest Old Abe.'"

The Hon. William Pennington, Speaker of the House of Representatives, has peremptorily declined a re-election to that body. He says, in a card to the opposition Electors of the Fifth Congressional district:

A seat in the House of Representatives, was not desired by me, and was accepted at the last election only in deference to the strongly expressed desire of a large body of highly respectable and honorable men, whose wishes for one term I felt bound to obey. The energy, activity and excitement incident to a House constituted as that is, I feel at my time of life, I might well be excused from. My friends will, I hope, consider this communication as final on the subject.

A Mr. Henry Clay Dean, an Iowa Democrat, has challenged any political opponent to meet him on the stump.—The Iowa papers say that he washes his face and changes his shirt only once a year, but that he is a powerful speaker.—We think he must be a strong one. His competitor will do well to get on the right side of him—ad the right side would be the windward side.—Louisville Journal.

MATERNAL BLISS LONG DELAYED.—The Cincinnati Press gives an account of one Mrs. Alice W., a resident of that city, upwards of fifty-seven years of age, who has been married thirty-one years, and yet became a mother for the first time, about a week ago, surprising her husband with a pair of robust twins. The delighted father is five years the junior of his spouse.

The Boston Post is responsible for an absurd rumor that Gov. Banks is soon to assume the presidency of one of the Western Railroads, with a salary of $7,000 a year, and that his future residence will be in Chicago.

The Constitutional Union, State Committee of Louisiana has issued its address. It frankly acknowledges that there is no chance of the election by the people, of either Bell, Douglas or Breckinridge. Mr. Lincoln alone has any prospect of direct success.

It is stated that the Secretary of the Treasury has consented to suspend the coinage of the gold dollars, and to have those in the sub-treasury recoined into larger pieces for exportation, and to benefit the banks by creating a larger demand for one-dollar bills.

Send for a specimen number of BYRAM'S ILLUSTRATED LADY'S NEWS-PAPER, the only lady's newspaper published in the United States. Specimen number sent, post-paid, on the receipt of a three cent stamp. J. H. BYRAM & Co., 112 South Third Street, Philadelphia.

STRICTLY TRUE.—An eccentric American was lately visiting an English nobleman at his seat in the south of England. Our fellow countryman had a habit of saying "how very appropriate," by way of commendation, to almost everything he approved of, whether apropos or not. The statuary around the grounds received this favorable notice so frequently that the host became nettled, and determined to non plus his guest. So stopping before the family burying ground, he pointed to a figure on horseback, and said, "how do you like that statue of General Jackson?"

"How very appropriate!" was the answer.

"How do you make that out?"

"Oh, General Jackson was always at home amongst dead Englishmen," was the ready reply. The host subsided.

Father Gavazzi, who made such terrible times here a few years ago, has turned up where everybody knew he would, in the hottest spot in Italy. The padre had collected a small congregation round him at Florence, but when he heard of the fighting going on at Sicily he shut his chapel up and went to take a hand. He is now at Messina, where Capt. Forbes, old John Brown's commander of the forces, has command.—Father Gavazzi says if nobody stops the fight the fall of Rome is certain.

AGE & DEBILITY.—As old age comes creeping on, it brings with it many attendant infirmities. Loss of appetite and weakness impair the health, and want of activity makes the mind discontented and unhappy; in cases where old age adds its influence, it is almost impossible to add vigor and health, and although many remedies have been tried, all have failed, until Borhaves' Holland Bitters were known and used. In every case where they have been employed, they have invariably given strength and restored the appetite. They have become a agent for this alone, and are used by many people who are suffering from loss of appetite and general debility. In cases of long standing chronic diseases, they act as a charm, invigorating the system, thus giving nature another opportunity to repair physical injuries. See advertisement in another column.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—What is Life Insurance?—Apoplexy, &c.—Many people insure their lives to benefit their families by death—how paradoxical is this. To prolong life by preserving the health would be a far more rational manner of assuring it. Apoplexy is swift and insidious in its attacks, striking its victim without warning; happily, a preventive has been discovered—Holloway's Pills—the only safe and certain antidote for this disease, they cool the blood, and equalize its circulation through the system. To preserve the stomach in a sound condition and the blood pure—is the secret of health. Holloway's Pills will do this most effectually and thousands owe their actual existence to them at the present day.

Restored to CONSUMPTIVES: The advertiser having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe Lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To all who desire it he will send a copy of the prescription used, [free of charge] with directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Bronchitis, &c. The only object of advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing. Parties wishing the prescription will please address REV. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings co., N. Y. [3m]

A CARD TO THE SUFFERING.—The Rev. WILLIAM COSGROVE, while laboring as a missionary in Japan, was cured of Consumption, when all other means had failed, by a recipe obtained from a learned physician residing in the great city of Jeddo. This recipe has cured great numbers who were suffering from Consumption, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Coughs and Colds, and the debility and nervous depression caused by these disorders. Desirous of benefiting others, I will send this recipe, which I have brought home with me, to all who need it, free of charge. Address REV. WM. COSGROVE, 439 Fulton Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

BEWARE OF QUACKS!—This Advertisement is addressed to both Males and Females suffering from secret curcs. I have practiced many years, and having made a fortune, professionally desire now to serve my fellow creatures. I enclose a Dollar to pay incidental charges, and a sure remedy will be afforded you. Let no false delicacy prevent, as strict secrecy is preserved. DR. ESCALAPUS EDWARDS, Box 910, Baltimore, Md.

The Only Discovery worthy of any confidence for Restoring the Bald and Gray.

Many, since the great discovery of Prof. Wood, have attempted not only to imitate his restorative, but profess to have discovered something that would produce results identical; but they have all come and gone, being carried away by the wonderful results of Prof. Wood's preparation, and have been forced to leave the field to its resistless sway. Read the following:—

Bath, Maine, April 18th, 1859. Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—The letter I wrote you in 1856 concerning your valuable Hair Restorative, and which you have published in this vicinity and elsewhere, has given rise to numerous enquiries touching the facts in the case. The enquiries are, first, is it a fact of my hair and name, as stated in the communication; second, is it true of all therein contained; third, does my hair still continue to be in good order and of natural color? To all I can and do answer invariably yes. My hair is even better than in any stage of my life for 40 years past, more soft, thick, and better colored; the same is true of my whiskers, and the only cause why it is not generally true, is that the substance is washed off by frequent ablution of the face, when it is removed by wiping the face in close connection with the whiskers, the same result will follow as the hair. I have been in the receipt of a great number of letters from all parts of New England, asking me if my hair still continues to be good; as there is so much fraud in the manufacture and sale of various compounds as well as this, it has, no doubt been basely imitated and been used, not only without any good effect, but to absolute injury. I have not used any of your Restorative of any account for some months, and yet my hair is as good as ever, and hundreds have examined it with surprise, as I am now 61 years old and not a gray hair in my head or on my face; and to prove this fact, I send you a lock of my hair taken off the past week. I received your Restorative of two quart bottles last summer, of which I am very grateful. I gave it to my friends and induced them to try it, many were skeptical until after trial, and then purchased and used it with universal success. I will ask as a favor, that you send me a test by which I may discover fraud in the Restorative, sold by many, I fear, without authority from you. A pure article will insure success, and I believe where good effects do not follow, the failure is caused by the impure article, which cures the inventor of the good. I deem it my duty as heretofore, to keep you apprised of the continued effect on my hair, as I assure all who enquire of me of my unshaken opinion of its valuable results. I remain, dear sir, yours, A. RAYMOND.

Aaron's Son, Ky., Nov. 30, 1858. Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir,—I would certainly be doing you a great injustice not to make known to the world, the wonderful, as well as the unexpected result I have experienced from using one bottle of your Hair Restorative. After using every kind of Restorative extant, but without success, and finding my head nearly destitute of hair, I was finally induced to try a bottle of your Hair Restorative. Now, candor and justice compel me to announce to whoever may read this, that I now possess a new and beautiful growth of hair, which I pronounce richer and handsomer than the original was. I will therefore take occasion to recommend this invaluable remedy to all who may feel the necessity of it.

Respectfully yours, REV. S. ALLEN BUCK. P. S.—This testimonial of my appreciation for your valuable medicine (as you are aware of) is unsolicited—but if you think it worthy a place among the rest, insert it if you wish; if not, destroy and say nothing. THE RESTORATIVE is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1 a bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for $2 per bottle; the large holds a quart, and 40 per cent more in proportion, and retails for $3. O. J. WOOD & CO., Proprietors, No. 444 Broadway, New-York, and 114 Market Street, St. Louis, Mo. And sold by all good druggists and fancy goods dealers. [7-7-58.]
