

The Local Mariettian.

Saturday, Sept. 29, 1880.

The Foster Club of this borough intend having a torchlight parade this evening.

Col. S. Bronizer is here endeavoring to get up a writing class. The Col. comes here highly recommended as a teacher and a gentleman.

There was a grand Mass Meeting in Harrisburg on Wednesday last. The Marietta Wide Awakes to the number of seventy turned out and made quite a creditable display.

We had the good fortune to receive a basket of very nice and ripe Isabella grapes, on Saturday morning last, from Lizzie Sands, grand-daughter of Mr. William H. Grosh.

The Lancaster Express in speaking of the County Agricultural Fair, says: "the second day opened much better than the first, but still the display falls far short of last year's or the year previous."

The farm of Peter Walter, deceased, in East Donegal twp., containing 110 acres sold to Christian and David Walter, for $167 per acre.

Haldeman of Columbia has received a large arrival of Fall Goods. This is one of the most extensive Dry Goods establishments west of Philadelphia.

We have received from the author, Dr. J. G. Stelman, of Lancaster, a pamphlet entitled "Homopathy contrasted with Allopathy."

On the fourth of July last a tenement house in York county, opposite the lower end of this borough, belonging to Dr. Samuel Huston of this place, was set on fire and completely destroyed.

The admirable manner in which the employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad conducted their business on Wednesday last, is the subject of universal remark.

LANCASTER COUNTY CURB-STONES: A lot of stones are now being dressed for the curbs along the Chestnut-st. front of the new depot, which, for size and beauty, exceed anything in the curb-stone line we have yet seen.

MARRIED. In Marietta on Thursday 27th inst., by Rev. G. M. Clagway, Mr. FREDERICK STRAUB to Miss MARY GRADY, all of Marietta.

DIED. Near Elizabethtown, on the 18th instant, HENRY EAGLE, aged 76 years. On the 12th inst., ANNA MARY EAGLE, of Maytown, of typhoid fever, aged 37 years, 9 months and 15 days.

A MONSTER PRESS.—The Scientific American thus describes a monster steam press, upon which Moses S. Beach, who has just retired from the New York Sun, is at work: "It is even now just completing the construction of a monster steam printing press, by which the sheets are cut from the rolls, dampened, printed upon both sides, at the rate of forty thousand impressions an hour, folded up counted, and delivered from the machine, ready for the carrier and the mail. This machine is as high as a common two-story country dwelling house; and it will, when finished—if the expectations of its inventor are realized—constitute a most extraordinary specimen of mechanical skill and ingenuity."

The Vigilance Committee, at Pike's Peak, at the last accounts, was waging a war of extermination against the gamblers and thieves. Two men were hung by them on the 6th inst., one of whom was taken from the stage while on his way to the Missouri river.

PROF. L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR.

An Effective, Safe and Economical Compound, For restoring Gray Hair to its original color without dyeing, and preventing the hair from turning gray. For Beautifying Baldness, and curing it, when there is the least particle of vitality or recuperative energy remaining. For Removing Scurf and Dandruff, and all cutaneous affections of the Scalp.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this invaluable preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over another preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff and itching humors, causes the hair to grow luxuriantly, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy and flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thinning, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth of the hair, which has become bald, causing it to fall a fresh covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. As has his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in those cases where the hair has already become gray, causing it to fall a fresh covering of hair.

Only Twenty-five Cents per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists and perfumers. L. Miller would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of his hair restorer, in the case of their children. Hair inclines to be weak. The use of it lays the foundation for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary to the appearance of the hair.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the fac simile LOUIS MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR, N. Y. Wholesale Depot, 55 DeY St., and sold by all the principal Merchants and Druggists throughout the world. Liberal discount to purchasers by the quantity. Please desire to present to the American Public my

A NEW BOOK DESTINED TO CREATE A SENSATION. JUST PUBLISHED. THE SUNNY SOUTH. OR THE Southerner at Home. EMBRACING FIVE YEARS' EXPERIENCE OF A NORTHERN GOVERNESS, IN THE LAND OF SUGAR, RICE, TOBACCO AND COTTON.

EDITED BY PROFESSOR J. H. INGRAHAM, OF MISSISSIPPI. Handsomely bound in one volume, 12 mo. 526 pages. Price $1.25.

Literary notices from the Press throughout the Country. THE SUNNY SOUTH.—"This book is composed of a series of letters, written in an interesting style of a narrative, embodying the most romantic features of social life in different kinds of plantation life. It can bear testimony, from our own personal observation of similar scenes in the South, to their truthfulness as here depicted. They are portrayed in a vivid, interesting style, and a thousand of deceived people, who have no personal knowledge either of Southerners or Southern life, except what they have gained from partisan journals, or those who intentionally have written to deceive."—Daily Republic, Buffalo, New York.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—"This volume is in the form of letters. They give, so far as we can judge, faithful pictures of Southern life, and are penned without prejudice. They present scenes quite different from any we can bear testimony to. The pictures presented here are quite graphic, and we think the portraits painted are in very nearly natural colors."—Boston Daily Bee.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—"We have rarely peeped within the covers of a more appetizing volume. Although not intended as an answer to the foul untruths in the Uncle Tom trash of the last ten years, it nevertheless does unmercifully hurl back to their source all lies of such a nature, and we are glad to believe that the book will be read and enjoyed by thousands of northern homes. The South also should take to be indignantly for independent of its truthfulness and integrity it is one of the liveliest and most entertaining books of the year."—Greenboro Times, N. C.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—"The enterprising publisher, G. G. Evans, Philadelphia, of Gift Book notoriety, is weekly issuing new numbers of interest, and spreading them over the country, and his system of traquacing business may be looked upon as an institution, for diluting knowledge, unequalled by any in the country. We commend this book to all."—Daily News.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—"This is a captivating volume, strongly illustrative of Southern life. The heart of the authoress is with her theme, and she carries the interest of the reader along with her, and she, in her amusing off hand style, delineates the peculiarities of a Southern home."—Press.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—"Whatever bears the name of Professor Ingraham is sure to involve the elements of striking effect and a wide popular currency; and this is just the case with 'The Sunny South, or the Southerner at Home,' which appears from the press of G. G. Evans under the editorship of the graphic Professor. It is vivid in plot, and in purpose and manner it obviously springs from a warm heart, and will be as warmly welcomed by a host of readers."—The New Yorker.

GOOD BOOKS! CHOICE BOOKS!! NEW AND ILLUSTRATED EDITIONS. THE Throne of David. FROM THE Conscription of the Shepherd of Bethlehem TO THE Rebellion of Prince Absalom. Being an illustration of the Splendor, Power, and Dominion of the Reign of the Shepherd King, in a series of Letters, wherein the magnificence of Judea is shown to a reader, as if BY AN EYE WITNESS.

By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, LL. D. One volume, 12 mo., cloth, 603 pages. Price $1.25.

"This is the third Volume, and the completion of a series of works by the same author, on the history of the Israelitish monarchy. The origin under Moses, was treated in the 'Pillar of Fire,' and its great glory under David, is treated in this work, 'The Throne of David,' while the decline of Hebrew power and the opening of the new dispensation meet their termination in the 'Prince of Peace.' These works are historically valuable, as handbooks of information relative to the scenery, geography and manners of the Holy Land. The style is interesting and powerful, and the work leads us to the contemplation and study of the sublime language of the Bible and the great doctrines of truth it contains, without being, as such books too ordinarily are, either mundanly, stupid, dogmatic or conceited."—Boston Daily Atlas.

THE PRINCE OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID OR Three Years in the Holy City. In a series of letters relating as if by an eye witness, all the scenes and wonderful incidents in the LIFE OF JESUS OF NAZARETH, From his Baptism in Jordan to his Crucifixion on Calvary.

By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, author of the "Pillar of Fire" and "The Throne of David." One volume, 12 mo., cloth, 600 pages. Price $1.25.

"This work is designed to sketch the Hebrew history during the bondage in Egypt, Moses the Prophet being the central figure, and is a free and striking history of the period, in which the writer gathers first, from the Bible and then from profane history a vast mass of material, which by his genius, is thrown into a fanciful narrative of the most attractive character which carries the reader along, without diminution of interest."—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, Rector of Christ Church, and of St. Thomas' Hall, Holy Springs, Mississippi. One volume, 12 mo. cloth, 472 pages. Price $1.25.

"In this work the author has succeeded in the bold and daring task of presenting the great leading historical parts of scripture in connection with secular history, so as to present the clear and life-like picture of those events as they might be supposed to appear to a casual observer. The descriptions of rites and ceremonies, are spirited and comprehensive. The style is highly imaginative and attractive, and we predict that this volume will be as popular as the 'Pilgrim's Progress.'"—Presbyterian and Evangelist.

Mark These Facts! The Testimony of the whole World!

Holloway's Ointment. Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Sores and Ulcers. All descriptions of sores are remediable by the proper and diligent use of this ineffable preparation. To attempt to cure bad legs by plastering the edges of the wound together is a folly; for should the skin unite, a boggy diseased condition remains underneath to break out with a fresh flow in a few days. The only rational and successful treatment, as indicated by nature, is to reduce the inflammation in and about the wound and to soothe the neighboring parts by rubbing in plenty of the Ointment as salt is forced into the meat.

Diphtheria, Ulcerated Sore Throat, and Scarlet and other Fevers. Any of the above diseases may be cured by well rubbing the Ointment three times a day into the chest, throat and neck of the patient; it will soon penetrate, and give immediate relief. Medicine taken by the mouth must operate upon the whole system ere its influence can be felt in any local part, whereas the Ointment will do its work on the spot. Whoever tries the unguent in the above manner for the diseases named, or any similar disorders affecting the chest and throat, will find themselves relieved as by a charm.

Piles, Fistulas, Strictures. The above class of complaints will be removed by nightly fomenting the parts with warm water, and then by most effectually rubbing in the Ointment. Persons suffering from these direful complaints should lose not a moment in arresting their progress. It should be understood that it is not sufficient merely to smear the Ointment on the affected parts, but it must be well rubbed in for some considerable time, two or three times a day, that it may be taken into the system, whence it will remove any hidden sore or wound as effectually as though palpable to the eye. There again bread and water poultices, after the rubbing in of the Ointment, will do great service. This is the only sure treatment for female cases of cancer in the stomach, or where there may be a general bearing down.

Indiscretions of Youth; Sores and Ulcers. Blisters, as also swellings, can, with certainty, be radically cured if the Ointment be used freely, and the Pills be taken eight or ten times a day, and the Ointment be rubbed in as recommended in the printed instructions. When treated in any other way they only dry up in one place to break out in another; whereas this Ointment will remove the Ointment from the system, and leave the patient a vigorous and healthy being. It will require time with the use of the Pills to ensure a lasting cure.

Drapsical Swellings, Paralysis and Stiff Joints. Although the above complaints differ widely in their origin and nature, yet they all require local treatment. Many of the worst cases, of such diseases, will yield in a comparatively short space of time when this Ointment is diligently rubbed into the parts affected, even after every other means have failed. In all serious maladies the Pills should be taken according to the printed directions accompanying each box.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases: Bad Legs, Chicago-foot, Eczemas, Bad Breasts, Chilblains, Hemorrhoids, Bunions, Chapped Hands, Glandular Swellings, Bite of Mosquitoes, Contracted and Piles, Sand-Flies, Stiff Joints, Rheumatism, Ooze from the Ears, Elephantiasis, Scalds, Skin Diseases, Sturvy, Sore Nipples, Tumors, Ulcers, Sore-throats, Wounds, Yaws, Sore-heads.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY'S NEW YORK AND LONDON" are discernable as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions, around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 50 Maiden Lane, New York and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine throughout the civilized world, in pots, at 25c. each, and $1 each.

There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes. N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients, in every disorder, are affixed to each box.
