GRAND REPUBLICAN RALLY!

Wide Awake Torch-light Procession! The Lincoln Club and Wide Awakes of this place, augmented in numbers by the attendance of numerous citizens of the District, and Wide Awakes from Silver Springs, Mountjoy and Columbia, held a highly interesting demonstration on last Thursday evening, in connection with the Pole-raising noticed in another article.

President—JOHN J. COCHRAN, Lancaster. Vice Presidents—Col. William Brady, Mountjoy; Col. J. W. Fisher, Columbia; Esaias Billingslet, Esq., Adamstown; Jacob Stahl, Marietta; Henry Copenhaver, Hempfield; Levi Boughter, Chiques; Simon Groh, East Donegal; H. S. Book, Maytown; Dr. F. Hinkle, Henry Sultzbach, and others, Marietta.

The nominations were confirmed with hearty cheers; after which the President made some very spirited and appropriate remarks on the issues of the day and duties of voters, and concluded by introducing Francis W. Christ, Esq., of Litz, the candidate of this County on the Republican Electoral Ticket.

Mr. Christ's address was in what would be to us like a very pure German, yet plain, simple and clear; and was devoted to a serious, candid and convincing examination of the principles of the two parties. It was listened to with an eagerness that was more complimentary than even the loud applause with which the speaker was greeted.

A recess was then taken until the close of the Torchlight procession, which, in all this time had been drawing its brilliant length through the various streets of our town, filling them not only with light, but music also by the Mount Joy and Silver Spring Bands, and the martial music of our own performers. At the close of the procession, speaking was resumed by the introduction of David Mumma, Esq., of Harrisburg, also a candidate on our electoral ticket.

Mr. Mumma, after referring to the very late hour, proposed speaking in English and intersperse his remarks with an occasional explanation and illustration in German. He then launched vigorously into a discussion of the tariff, the home-stead, the niggerisms of the democratic platforms, &c.; interspersing various racy dutch anecdotes in illustration, that convulsed his hearers with peals of laughter and applause that made the welkin ring.

At the close, calls were made for Mr. Christ, (who, however, declined as it was now near midnight,) and cheers were given with lusty "tigers" for the candidates, the speakers, the President of our Club, the good cause, &c. &c.

Had the afternoon and early evening been pleasant, larger delegations would have been present from those places represented, beside some from other places. But even under all the disadvantages of weeping skies and muddy roads, the meeting, procession, &c., was a great success, that is having its due effect on our citizens. Many documents were distributed, and will undoubtedly be read and circulated, having their effect likewise in giving light to some who yet sit in darkness.

The Lancaster Union speaking of the late County Fair says the attendance was not so great as in former years. The unpleasant and wet weather of Thursday and the Firemen's procession on Friday interfered materially to prevent as large an attendance as was desirable and expected. The display also was small in comparison with former exhibitions. Some of the departments, however, were quite full. The stalls set apart for stock were well filled and the display was very creditable.

Ferdinand Zuch has removed his boot and shoe store from his former place to the building adjoining "The Hermitage" hotel. Mr. Z. has more room here to display his ample stock of City made work, of which he has just received a new and beautiful lot. He continues to make all kinds of work in his line.

Mr. Alexander Lynday, not to be behind his neighbors, has just had a beautiful coat of lead color given his house and store room front; Mr. L.'s residence is now one of the handsomest on Market street. Mr. Garman should "go and do likewise."

OUR POLE RAISING.

Notwithstanding the very unfavorable weather on Thursday afternoon last, a Liberty Pole, 94 feet long, was successfully raised by the friends of Lincoln, Hamlin and Curtin, at the Lower Station in this borough. The banner is inscribed on one side "Lincoln Hamlin and Curtin"—on the other "Protection for free Labor." Above that is a beautiful national flag, bearing the thirteen original stars. This flag is the work of many fair hands whose skillful fingers wrought together its mingled hues of red, white and blue.

"Flag of the free heart's hope and home! By angel hands to valor given; Thy stars have lit the welkin dome, And all thy hues were born in heaven." Above the flag, in the crotch of the pole, is an elegant wreath, presented by Mrs. Dr. Hinkle, of this borough—and in the centre of the wreath the patriotic lady has wrought the names "Lincoln—Hamlin—Curtin." Names so honored deserve to be, and will be, elected.

Capt. S. D. Miller has mounted a fine Lantern on the top of the pole, which gives no "doubtful light;" and Mr. Erisman has mounted, between the banner and the ground, an enormous emblematic of that which splits and rives the enemies of our Union, and mauls the plunders of the people's treasures.

The pole itself was a gift from James L. Shultz, Esq., from his farm, adjoining town, known as the Major Haines farm. For an account of the meetings held after the raising of this "Liberty Tree," we refer to another article.

OUR FLAG. A number of patriotic ladies, (and no less skillful in housewifely arts than in showing forth their love of country and of freedom,) met on Wednesday last, and engaged in the much needed work of preparing a national flag for the Republicans. By Thursday noon it was hung in Centre Square, on a rope stretched from the residence of Samuel Bailey, Esq., diagonally across the "Donegal House" of S. G. Miller. And shortly after noon, it was elegantly wreathed and festooned by the same fair hands.

The Republicans of Marietta and surrounding district have certainly great reason to be proud of this noble flag, which is 24 feet long and 12 wide—and no less proud and grateful to the ladies who decorated it. It is an elegant flag and is well calculated to inspire the sentiment of the gifted Dr. Drake—"Forever float that standard sheet! Where breathes the foe but falls before us, With Freedom's soil beneath our feet And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!"

We hope that every Republican voter in the district, or who may cast his eyes on that flag, will do his devoirs to the fair hands that wreathed it, by voting, on next Tuesday, for Curtin and the whole ticket—and in November next, for Lincoln and Hamlin. He best honors them and proves his gratitude by carrying out their wishes—and the Ladies, all, (God bless them!) are for the Union, the Constitution as expounded by its framers and administered by our fathers, for Liberty increased and increasing, and for free homes, on free soil, for free men.

The Pioneer Fire Company of this borough, attended the great Firemen's Parade at Lancaster on Friday last, and whilst there on Saturday, we were quite flattered to hear the encomiums passed upon the good appearance and good behavior of our efficient and energetic firemen. This parade has been pronounced the finest had in the "Inland City" within the recollection of the "oldest inhabitant." "The Old Soldier"—Captain S. D. Miller—was, during the marching of the procession, placed on the Pioneer Hose Carriage, with musket in hand, looking as defiant as Mars, the God of War.

A German named Henry Walten, living in the alley near S. & B. Hiestand's lumber yard, at the lower end of town, died very suddenly on Wednesday evening last. He had just finished a hearty supper at Cassel's tavern and on leaving the bar room door fell over upon the porch dead. He was a man of very intemperate habits.

On the 29th ult. a farm belonging to Mr. B. B. Gonder, near Strasburg bor., containing one hundred acres, was sold to Mr. Jacob Herr, of West Lampeter, for one hundred and seventy-one dollars per acre.

On the 28th ult. the farm of Joseph Nissley in East Donegal-twp., adjoining the Donegal Meeting house property, containing 122 acres, was sold at public sale. Jonas Mumma (whose land adjoins) was the purchaser, at $174.87 per acre.

The "Bell-Everett Foster" Club held a meeting at their Head Quarters in this borough on Saturday night last. Samuel H. Reynolds, Esq., of Lancaster, Dr. Kline from Chestnut Hill and a Mr. Bliz of Columbia, delivered addresses. Dr. K. in German.

A slight smash up occurred on Friday evening last, by a freight train, running into the slow line whilst it was detained at the lower-station, unloading the Pioneer Hose Carriage from a truck. No damage, save the breaking of several bumpers and considerable fright to the passengers.

LINCOLN CLUB—Attention!

Owing to a previous engagement of Town Hall, (of which we were ignorant at our last business meeting,) the meeting for Monday evening next will be held at Heckrothe's White Swan Hotel, on Front-street.

It is our last meeting before the State Election, and hence important business requires your immediate attention. Remember therefore to attend next Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

A. B. GROSS, President. Dr. Swentzel will be in this place on Tuesday next, the 9th instant. The Doctor's increasing practice at Lancaster prevents his visits from being as frequent to this place as heretofore. He is rising fast in his profession.

The Marietta Wide Awakes, to the number of 216, attended the Republican meeting at Columbia, on Tuesday last.

MARRIED.

At Kramer's Hotel, Columbia, on the 2nd instant, by Thomas Welsh, Esq., MR. MARKS RHEEM, of Marietta, to Miss MARGARET CONZELMANN, of York County.

PROF. L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR.

An Effective, Safe and Economical Compound, For restoring Gray Hair to its original color without dyeing, and preventing the hair from turning gray. For Preventing Baldness, and curing it, when there is the least particle of vitality or recuperative energy remaining. For Removing Scurf and Dandruff, and all cutaneous affections of the Scalp. For Beautifying the Hair, imparting to it an unusual gloss, and making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this unequalled preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over another preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases. Causes the hair to grow luxuriantly, and gives it a rich, glossy and flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thinning, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing the hair to grow covering of bald spots. There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of this Invigorator will certainly restore to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great benefit it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists and perfumers. L. Miller would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of his Invigorator, in cases where the children's Hair inclines to wax and fall out, as it lays the foundation for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child, and the future appearance of its Hair. VIRTUOUS—None genuine without the fac simile LOUIS MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR, N. Y. blown in the glass. As the property of J. B. DEAN, and sold by all the principal Merchants and Druggists throughout the world. Liberal discount to purchasers by the quantity. I also desire to present to the American Public my

A NEW BOOK AND ONE DESTINED TO CREATE A SENSATION.

JUST PUBLISHED. THE SUNNY SOUTH, OR THE Southerner at Home

EMBRACING FIVE YEARS' EXPERIENCE IN THE NORTHERN GOVERNNESS, IN THE LAND OF SUGAR, RICE, TOBACCO AND COTTON.

EDITED BY PROFESSOR J. H. INGRAHAM, OF MISSISSIPPI. Handsomely bound in one volume, 12 mo. 526 pages. Price $1.25.

Literary notices from the Press throughout the Country.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—This book is composed of a series of letters, written in an interesting style of a narrative, embodying the most romantic features of social life on different kinds of plantations. We can bear testimony to the truthfulness of the author's own personal observation as here depicted. They are portrayed in a vivid, interesting style, and we would like to see the book in the hands of thousands of our countrymen, who have no personal knowledge either of Southern or Northern life, except what they have gained from partisan journals, or those who intentionally have written to deceive."—[Daily Republic, Buffalo, New York.]

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—"This volume is in the form of letters. They give, so far as we can judge, faithful pictures of Southern life, and are penned without prejudice. They present scenes quite different from any which are usually depicted in the pictures presented here are quite graphic, and we think the portraits painted are in very nearly natural colors."—[Boston Daily Bee.]

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—"We have rarely perused within the covers of a more appetizing volume. Although not intended as an answer to the foul untruths in the Uncle Tom trash of the last ten years, it nevertheless does unmercifully hurl back to their source all lies of each nature, and we are glad to believe that the book will be read in thousands of northern homes. The south also should take to it benignantly for independent of its truthfulness and interest it is one of the liveliest and most entertaining books of the year."—[Greenboro Times, N. C.]

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—"The enterprising publisher, G. G. Evans, Philadelphia, of Gift Book notoriety, is weekly issuing new works of a similar character, and spreading them over the country, and his system of transacting business may be looked upon as an institution, for diffusing knowledge, unequalled by any in the country."—[The Sun, New York.]

We commend this book to all. This is a captivating volume, strongly illustrative of Southern life. The heart of the author's is with her theme, and she carries the interest of the reader along with her, and she, in her amusing and modern style, delineates the peculiarities of a Southern home."—[Press.]

"Whatever bears the name of Professor Ingraham is sure to involve the elements of striking effect and wide popular currency; and this is just the case with 'The Sunny South, or the Southerner at Home,' which appears from the press of G. G. Evans, under the editorship of the graphic Professor. It is vivid in style, keenly observed, interesting to plot, and in purpose and manner, it is as warmly welcomed by a host of readers."—[The New Yorker.]

GOOD BOOKS! CHOICE BOOKS!!

NEW AND ILLUSTRATED EDITIONS.

THE Throne of David.

FROM THE Consecration of the Shepherd of Bethlehem TO THE Rebellion of Prince Absalom. Being an illustration of the Splendor, Power, and Dominion of the Reign of the Shepherd King, in a series of Letters, wherein the magnificence of Judea is shown to the reader.

BY AN EYE WITNESS. By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, LL. D. One volume, 12 mo., cloth, 603 pages. Price $1.25.

"This is the third volume, and the completion of a series of works by the same author, on the history of the Israelish monarchy.—The origin under Moses, was treated of in the 'Pillar of Fire' and its great glory under David, is treated of in this work. (The Throne of David,) while the decline of Hebrew power and the opening of the new dispensation meet their delineation in the 'Prince of the House of David.' These works are historically valuable, as handbooks of information relative to the scenery, geography and manners of the Holy Land. The style is interesting and powerful and the work leads us to the contemplation and study of the sublime language of the Bible and the great doctrines of truth it contains, without being, as such books too ordinarily are, either inaudible, stupid, dogmatic or conceited."—[Boston Daily Atlas.]

THE PILLAR OF FIRE

OR Israel in Bondage. By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, author of the "Prince of the House of David." One volume, 12 mo., cloth, 600 pages. Price $1.25.

"This work is designed to sketch the Hebrew history during the bondage in Egypt, Moses the Prophet being the central figure, and is a free and striking history of the period, in which the writer gathers first, from the Bible and then from profane history, vast masses of material, which by his genius, is thrown into a fanciful narrative of the most attractive character which carries the reader along without diminution of interest."—[Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.]

THE PRINCE OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID

OR Three Years in the Holy City. In a series of letters relating to an eye witness, all the scenes and wonderful incidents in the LIFE OF JESUS OF NAZARETH, From his Baptism in Jordan to his Crucifixion on Calvary.

BY THE Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, Rector of Christ Church, and of St. Thomas' Hall, Holy Springs, Mississippi. One volume, 12 mo., cloth, 472 pages. Price $1.25.

"In this work the author has succeeded in the bold and daring task of preventing the great leading historical parts of scripture in connection with secular history, so as to present the clear and life-like picture of those events which they might be supposed to appear to a casual observer. The descriptions of rites and ceremonies, are spirited and comprehensive. The style is highly imaginative and attractive, and we predict that this volume will be popular as the 'Pilgrim's Progress.'—[Presbyterian and Evangelist.]
