

The Local Mariettian

Saturday, October 20, 1860

OUR DEMONSTRATION: The grand torchlight parade and illumination which took place in this place on Wednesday evening last, was truly an imposing pageant. The line was formed at "The Hermitage" and proceeded to the Chikis furnaces, where they received the Columbia Wide Awakes, who turned out in fine numbers, accompanied by a band, carrying banners, transparencies, flags, &c. At Chikis the procession turned and came up Pike street to Deitrich's corner, where the Mount Joy delegation with their excellent band was in waiting and joined the ranks; the procession then moved on up Pike street to Elbow Lane, down Elbow Lane to Market street, up Market street to the extreme "west end" as far as Mr. John Paules, then to Front street, and then down Front street, the entire length of the town to "The Hermitage." Our own Wide Awakes looked remarkably well—in point of numbers and everything else; two wagons—one a six horse—the other a six mule team—each containing 33 girls, from ten to fifteen years of age, dressed in white to represent the 33 confederated states; the teams and children in charge of two old gentlemen: Capt. Samuel D. Miller and Mr. James McClure; immediately following the teams was a lady on horseback, dressed in black—the horse in charge of two large and careful Marietta Wide Awakes,—intending to represent mourning Kansas; the wind-up being the "Marietta Fantastical Band," composed of a dozen young men dressed in hats, made conical shape, of white pasteboard, and coats of white muslin, designed and gotten-up expressly for this occasion, the instruments pretended to be played upon were of the most ridiculous character.

The illuminations, &c., were really very grand; from the Eagle furnace to the "Lower-station" was almost one complete glare of light; tar and oil barrels at the furnaces kept up a constant sheet of fire; the arch between Dr. Hinkle's and Mr. Cassel's store and a number of fine illuminations between this point and the residence of Mr. John Fuks, were very fine; Mr. Fuks large new building was tastefully lit-up and a flag suspended across the street, the front of the house wreathed and beautifully festooned; in the "Donegal House" was lit from cellar to dome; and a large national flag floating over the centre of Centre Square. Mr. C. A. Schaffner had a beautiful "Rural" arch over his front yard gate with the name of "Lincoln" in red, white and blue letters; in the middle of the street between Dr. Hughton's and Mr. Schaffner's was suspended a beautiful red, white and blue transparency beautifully entwined with evergreen and the word "Victory" inscribed; up Market street a little farther, suspended from Mr. Thos. Zell's and Mr. H. S. Libhart's was a flag with a beautiful wreath, the hands of some of Eve's fair daughters; in all of Mr. Libhart's front windows and his front door were beautiful and appropriate mottoes and transparencies. During the passage of the procession through the various streets, fireworks, roman candles, rockets, &c. were distributed through the ranks and set-off at various points and at intervals, making, upon the whole, as it is readily conceded on all sides, the grandest affair of its kind ever having taken place in our town.

The Constitution has gone under, not the one on which our Government rests, says the Lancaster Union, but the newspaper of that name, which has had a sleepy existence in this city for a few weeks past. The poor thing died for want of sustenance—the get-up of the concern failing to pay the printer who published it for them. We hope neighbor Markley may yet receive his hard earnings from that Committee. It must have went against the grain for as good a Linoth man as he to print it anyhow, though it was done in the way of business.

Who'll be next? We are glad to chronicle the progress of improvement in our town; Harry Wolfe has just put "a touch" in the shape of new venetian shutters and a coat of lead color paint on the house recently purchased from the William McClure estate, which has so much beautified the old front as to be hardly recognizable to the passer by. A sale of very fine cattle took place on Thursday last week, at Mr. J. E. Kreybill's farm, adjoining this borough. Amongst the buyers we notice the name of General Cameron. The prices ranged from $46 to $165. Our Wide Awakes attended the Mountjoy demonstration on Thursday evening and speak of its having been a fine display.

POLITICS IN BALTIMORE: About three hundred of the American portion of the Bell and Everett party in Baltimore, on Thursday night, marched to the Lincoln headquarters and joined that party.— This was in consequence of the election of the Reform ticket in Baltimore, which destroyed the rule of the so-called American clubs in that city.

The political complexion of the next Legislature will be as follows:— Senate, 25 Republicans to 8 Democrats, House, 65 Republicans to 8 Democrats, Republican majority on joint ballot, 47.

We are compelled for want of room, to lay over until our next, "A Poem, respectfully dedicated to the Female politicians of Marietta."

Abraham H. Eagle's farm, about three miles from this borough, was sold on Wednesday last, for one hundred and fifty-five dollars per acre.

DIED. On Saturday night the 7th inst., Mrs. MARGARET, wife of Mr. Simon S. Nagle, of this borough, aged 47 years.

On the 11th instant, Mr. JAMES SCOTT, of this borough, at an advanced age.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment: He only is wise who seeks safety in precaution. Life is uncertain, thousands in the vigor of health to-day will never see tomorrow. The varying atmosphere, and the raw piercing winds warn us of winter's approach with its icy blasts and ruthless scourges; Coughs, Colds, Sore throats, Asthma, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Consumption, Rheumatism, Chills, Pains, &c.—The wise and cautious will immediately have recourse to those powerful invigorators Holloway's Pills, which will enable the lungs to resist the deleterious effects of the weather and fortify the constitution to withstand the rigors and inclemencies of winter. The Ointment is an infallible remedy for inflammation of the throat, and all disorders of the chest produced by violent colds, it also gives speedy relief to the organs of respiration.

FEVER AND AGUE: A case of eight months' Standing cured by Barthe's Holland Bitters. MICHAEL KELLY, No. 117 Seventh St., near Grant, says: "Last July, while running on the river, on a cotton-boat plying between Natchez and New Orleans, I was taken with Fever and Ague.— For eight long months I suffered with this disease. The greater part of this time I was unable to work, and spent at least fifty dollars for different medicines, but found no permanent relief. Three weeks ago, one of my friends insisted upon my trying Barthe's Holland Bitters, saying that a cure was guaranteed. After taking it for one week, I must state, I was a sound man. I have been at work now for two weeks, and have had no returns of the Chills and Fever whatever."

I certify that the above statement is true. THOMAS ADAMS, Diamond House, or at R. Chesters' Gothic Hall. TO CONSUMPTIVES: The advertiser having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe Lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To all who desire it he will send a copy of the prescription used, [free of charge] with directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Coughs and Colds, and the debility and nervous depression caused by these disorders.

Desirous of benefiting others, I will send this recipe, which I have brought home with me, to all who need it, free of charge. Address REV. Wm. Cosgrove, 439 Fulton Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y. See advertisement of Prof. L. Miller's Hair Invigorator, and Liquid Hair Dye, in another column.

MARK THESE FACTS! The Testimony of the whole World!

Holloway's Ointment. Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Sores and Ulcers. All description of sores are remediable by the proper and diligent use of this inestimable preparation. To attempt to cure bad legs by plastering the edges of the wound together is a folly; it dries the skin unite, a boggy diseased condition remains underneath to break out with tenfold fury in a few days. The only rational and successful treatment, as indicated by nature, is to reduce the inflammation in and about the wound, and to soothe the neighboring parts by rubbing in plenty of the Ointment as it is forced into meat.

Diphtheria, Ulcerated Sore Throat, and Scarlet and other Fevers. Any of the above diseases may be cured by well rubbing the Ointment three times a day into the chest, throat and neck of the patient; it will soon penetrate, and give immediate relief. Medicine taken by the mouth must operate upon the whole system ere its influence can be felt in any local part, whereas the Ointment will do its work at once. Whoever tries the unguent in the above manner for the disease named, or any similar disorders affecting the chest and throat, will find themselves relieved as by a charm.

Piles, Fistulas, Strictures. The above class of complaints will be removed by nightly fomenting the parts with warm water, and then by most effectually rubbing in the Ointment. Persons suffering from these affections should lose no moment in arresting their progress. It should be understood that it is not sufficient merely to smear the Ointment on the affected parts, but it must be well rubbed in for some considerable time (not less than three times a day); that it may be taken into the system, whence it will remove any hidden sore or wound as effectually as though palpable to the eye. There again bread and water poultices, after the rubbing in of the Ointment, will do great service. This is the only sure treatment for female cases of cancer in the stomach, or where there may be a general bearing down.

Indiscretions of Youth; Sores and Ulcers. Blisters, as also swellings, can, with certainty, be radically cured, if the Ointment be used freely, and the Pills be taken night and morning as directed in the printed instructions. When treated in any other way they only dry up in one place to break out in another three times the size. It will remove the humours from the system, and leave the patient vigorous and healthy being. It will require time with the use of the Pills to ensure a lasting cure.

Dropsical Swellings, Paralysis and Stiff Joints. Although the above complaints differ widely in their origin and nature, yet they all require the same remedy. Many of the worst cases, of such diseases, will yield in a comparatively short space of time when this Ointment is diligently rubbed into the parts affected, even after another means have failed. In all serious maladies the Pills should be taken according to the printed directions accompanying each box.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases: Bad Legs, Chiefo-foot, Fistulas, Bad Breasts, Chilblains, Gout, Rheumatism, Chapped Hands, Glandular Swellings, Blisters, Ulcers, Lumbago, Bite of Mosquitoes, Cancers, Lumbago, chiefoes and Contracted Piles, Sand-Piles, Stiff Joints, Rheumatism, Cancers, Elephantiasis, Scalds, Skin Diseases, Sore Throats, Sore Eyes, Tumors, Ulcers, Sore-throats, Wounds, Yaws, Sore-heads.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway's, New York AND London" are legible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions, around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering information which may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

Sold at the Manufactory of Professor Holloway, 50 Maiden Lane, New York and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the civilized world, in pots, at 25c, 50c, and $1 each.

It is a considerable saving by taking the largest size. Directions for the guidance of patients, in every disorder, are affixed to each box.

DAVID ROTH, Dealer in Hardware, Cedarware, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Hoop and Bar Iron, Steel, Spikes, Nails, Pairing, Office, Hall and Cook STOVES, & C.

TAKES this means of informing the citizens of Marietta and vicinity, that he is now prepared to furnish anything in his line of business, consisting in part of Table Cutlery of all kinds, and in fact everything usually kept in a well regulated hardware establishment.

DAVID ROTH, Market Street, Marietta, Pa. July 21, 1860.

DR. MOTT'S Chalybeate Restorative Pills of Iron. An aperient and Stomachic preparation of Iron purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise unhealthy complexions, indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

Inoanoxia in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints: Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Inipient Consumption, Scrophulous Tuberculous, Salt Rheum, Miasmatic, Chlorosis, Whites, Lisle Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids who long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female Sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly, and even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual, and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action; by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, in a number of cases, it is its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhea, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the attacks have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent, hectic, generally indicate Inipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrophulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of any other equally balanced preparation of iron, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and acute, it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high repute and usefulness.

This remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid
