The Hon. Andrew Stewart has been elected to Congress from Pennsylvania. Mr. Stewart will take his seat in the House just forty years after his appearance in that body in 1821. He served eight years without a break, but was swept out by the Jackson tide in 1828. After being out one term he fought his way back in 1830, and then served two terms, being beaten again in 1834. In 1842 he came in again on the Harrison flood, and served six years more, so that he has already served eighteen years, and may fairly claim the title of father of the next House.

A Boston Journal says: "It is said that since Governor Banks has been commander-in-chief of the military of the Commonwealth, the weather has been pleasant every time, he has ordered out the troops." The morning of Thursday last was cloudy, and there were many indications of rain. One veteran officer when consulted about the weather, replied, "If Governor Banks was not coming out I should say it would rain, but as he is to appear in uniform it will clear up." In an hour after this remark, the sky was clear and the day proved one of the finest of the month.

A Paris correspondent says that a young Parisian who had been imprisoned in Olney for debt, gained his release by the following ruse: By the laws of the country, the creditors of the unfortunate debtor are obliged to pay thirty francs a month for his support while in confinement, and so long as each payment is regularly made the prisoner may be in jail. The person referred to caused a letter to be sent to each of the contributing creditors, giving notice of his death. They at once ceased paying his board, and the prison doors flew open.

A correspondent of the World has this strange rumor: "Senator Hunter is said to be the man to whom will be tendered the first place in Lincoln's cabinet, as a first step toward conciliating the South. The rumor, though absurd, is widely prevalent, but his friends asseverate that he cannot accept the place on any conditions, even if there be any truth in the proposed tender. This may be considered counting chickens before they are hatched."

The wife of one of the reporters of the New York Herald on Saturday last visited the rooms of Adah Isaacs Menken Heenan, and administered quite a severe whipping. She alleges that her husband and Adah had been too intimate, but Adah says she invited the reporter to her rooms for the purpose of taking down her statement of the matter of her marriage with Heenan.

A parade took place in New York on Tuesday night, composed of those who were opposed to the election of Lincoln, without any further regard to party. The procession was very long and the display very fine.

Harry Colcord, heretofore Blodgett's agent, and the partner of his perils in several journeys across the gorge at Niagara, publishes a card announcing the dissolution of his connection with the gymnasium.

A prize fight at Troy, last week, between two bruisers Brann and Wheeler, was stopped at the third round, by Brann's sister clinging to him and making him go home with her.

A dentist named Murcell was ridden out of the town of Rockville, Conn., on "last" week, for alleged familiarity with female patients.

It is stated that the Hon. Edward Everett is about to marry the widowed daughter of Judge Pettigrew, of South Carolina.

Mrs. Washington, wife of John A. Washington, late of Mt. Vernon, died a few days since.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The Washington correspondent of the World says: "An agent privately sent from the South reports to the President that Alabama and Georgia will certainly secede in forty days after Lincoln's election. Confidential friends of the President assert that in that case he will remain inactive, and permit the thing to go on. The Richmond Enquirer to day exhorts Virginia to go with the South, and thus present a solid front. It is for disunion without waiting for an overt act, and says, 'if that be treason, make the most of it.'"

A party of Albany boys went out after chestnuts on Sunday, and one of them, James Grant, fell from a tree, striking his head, and was picked up almost insensible. As he recovered his senses, he seemed to be bewildered, and as his companions could not prevail on him to go with them, they were obliged to return without him. They at once informed his parents, who proceeded to the spot, but he was gone, and has not since been seen.

A woman in Waterford, N. Y., wishing to commit suicide, went to a druggist a few days ago to procure arsenic. Suspecting her purpose, the druggist gave her a large dose of magnesia. Although she did not die, it made her so sick that she has had a disgust for suicide ever since.

The Governor of South Carolina has issued a proclamation calling an extra session of the Legislature of that State, for the purpose of electing Presidential electors, and "if advisable, to take action for the safety and protection of the State."

By a strange vicissitude, General Canas, who was shot for invading Costa Rica, suffered his execution at the foot of the very monument erected to his honor, in the Plaza at Punta Arenas, for his many services to the country.

The oldest postmaster in the United States, who has never been out of office since the date of his appointment, is John Billing, at Trenton, Onondaga county, N. Y. His appointment was made on June 19, 1805.

We learn, says a Savannah paper, from an intimate friend of Mr. Everett, that there is probably not the slightest foundation for the rumor, of his contemplated marriage with a lady of South Carolina.

The Martinsburg Republican learns that a Lincoln pole has been erected in Berkeley county, Va., and that it is guarded, and that any attempt to cut it down will be resisted by force.

Herschell V. Johnson, the Douglas candidate for Vice President, made a speech at Terre Haute, Indiana, on the 8th, in which he made the following dignified and gentlemanly remark: "Abe Lincoln is the great rail-splitter. I own twenty boys, any one of whom can beat him at a day's work splitting rails, and give two hundred. I would prefer one of them for President, so help me God, to Abe Lincoln."

Schuyler Olifax was in 1856 elected to Congress from the IXth District of Indiana by 1,036 majority. In 1858, he was again elected by 1,931 majority. In 1860, he is once more elected by 3,495 majority. So much for faithful service at Washington and faithful canvassing at home.

John C. Heenan was fined $300 by Judge Hoyt of Buffalo, on the 16th inst., for his participation in the prize fight between Price and Kelly, at point Albino, about a year ago. He promptly paid the fine.

Several of our contemporaries have George Nelson Smith, Douglas Democrat, elected to the Legislature from Cambria county. Mr. Smith was beaten some five hundred by his Republican competitor, Mr. Mullen.

The Bellefonte Fencibles recently commanded by our Governor elect, Col. Andrew G. Curtin, are making arrangements to visit Harrisburg in January and participate in the inauguration ceremonies.

When a generous man is compelled to give a refusal, he generally gives it with worse grace than the ungenerous: first, because it is against his nature; and, secondly, because it is out of his practice.

A wretch of a husband came home at one in the morning, found his angel wife sitting up reading an old novel. With a coarseness almost amounting to cruelty, he took the book from her hand, and placed before her a pair of her child's socks, saying, "If you will fatigue yourself, my love, with any work at such an hour, I would suggest, it is never to let me to mend."

The pistol, valued as a relic by the Washington family, taken by Cook from Col. Washington, during the Harper's Ferry raid, has been returned to the latter by Thaddeus Hyatt, who recently received it from an unknown source.

The Catholics of the diocese of Chicago, Ill., have contributed $1,966 in aid of the Pope.

The Prince of Wales paid $800 for the special train from Albany to Boston.

ORIGINAL LETTER FROM ABRAHAM LINCOLN.—The following letter was written by Hon. Abraham Lincoln, the Republican candidate for the Presidency, to John M. Carson, Esq., chairman of the Committee of Lectures of the Harrison Literary Institute Philadelphia. It is dated two months previous to the meeting of the Chicago Convention, and may be considered a curiosity in political literature. The italics are the compositor's:

SPRINGFIELD, Illinois, April 7, 1860.
JOHN M. CARSON, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Yours of March 14th, addressed to me at Chicago, and seeking to arrange with me to lecture for the Harrison Literary Institute, has been received. I regret to say I cannot make such an arrangement. I am not a professional lecturer—have never got up but one lecture, and that, I think, rather a poor one. Besides, what time I can spare from my own business this season, I shall be compelled to give to politics.

Respectfully yours,

A. LINCOLN.

GONE HOME.—The royal journey is at an end, so far as America is concerned. The Prince and his suite having been feted and honored at Boston in the most classical and Athenian manner, left that city on Saturday forenoon, and proceeded to Portland amid enthusiastic cheers from the citizens, and accompanied by Governor Banks and other distinguished gentlemen, for Portland, where he was received by the Governor of Maine, the Mayor of Portland, a respectable body of military, and the entire population. He was escorted through the streets of the city, and finally embarked on board the British war steamer Hero. The cannon of the war ships and the batteries thundered, the bands played the national airs of Britain and America, the vast concourse of people shouted their adieus, and the royal squadron sailed for England.

SOMETHING OF A CHANGE.—At the ball given to Lord Rufford at the New York Academy of Music, the Prince opened the dance with the lady of Gov. Morgan. Richly dressed, possessed of all the grace and dignity befitting her station as the wife of the Chief Magistrate of the Empire State, she represented something more than official. She was the exemplar of American life, progress, industry. In her youth she was a poor girl, earning her livelihood as a milliner's apprentice. Her upward growth is but a common specimen of the strange but goodly incidents of republican life.

Another of the partners of the Prince was the daughter of John Van Buren. She should have reminded her royal gallant that many years ago her father danced with his mother, and had borne the name Prince John ever since.

A daughter of Abd-el-Kader has recently arrived in Paris for the purpose of entering the order of Gray Sisters. When the Emir, her father, resided at Broussa, he sent the young lady to Constantinople to be educated. There she occasionally met with Christian women, and was so struck with the self-devotedness of the sisters who attended the hospitals during the Crimean war that she determined to join their order. Her father, who is capable of appreciating the benevolence of Christianity, consented to her wish, and she is now in Paris passing her novitiate.

Edgar A. Poe's character forms the theme of an article by Dr. Mendelsohn, an English physician, in the Journal of Medical Science. The writer proceeds to show why Poe's sins were partly forced upon him by temperament inherited from his parents—one an actress of brilliancy, beauty, and passion, and the other an English law student equally passionate and reckless, who had sacrificed his hopes of "respectability" by indulging in matrimony with the said actress.

Dr. Arnold, when at Laleham, once lost all patience with a dull scholar, when the pupil looked up in his face and said: "Why do you speak angry, sir?—Indeed I am doing the best I can." Years after the doctor used to tell the story to his own children, and say: "I never felt so ashamed of myself in my life. That look and that speech I have never forgotten."

Fowler, the New York postoffice defaulter, is going to Mexico to superintend the working of a gold mine. These large speculators always carry an air of respectability about them, like the pickpocket in a church at Seville, who had a pair of false arms crossed on his breast in an attitude of devotion, while the real members were used for "explorations" in neighboring pockets.

The step mother of the Prince of Wales died recently. She was the Duchess Antoinette-Frederique-Auguste-Marie-Anne, step-mother of Prince Albert, and Duchess Dowager of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha. She was the Princess of Wurttemberg, was born in 1799, married Duke Ernest I (father of Prince Albert) in 1832, and became a widow in 1844.

Judge Taney decides against Douglas and Squatter Sovereignty. Will Douglas respect this decision of the Chief of the Supreme Court?

Gen. Harding, a wealthy gentleman, residing near Nashville, Tenn., has a park of 800 acres, in which are 300 deer, 30 buffaloes, and a herd of elk.

HOW THE ROYAL PARTY ROLL TEN-PINS.

A correspondent of one of the New York papers, writing from West Point, says: "The royal party roll very badly. Any of our New Yorkers could beat the whole string, and not half try. A 'ten strike' is a matter of congratulation with the whole party, all clapping their hands, and saying 'good.' Blot, rolling a slow, large ball, makes the most hits. St. Germans rolls with a theatrical air, remaining in position till his ball stops, or is stopped by the boys, the latter happening more frequently. Newcastle's balls are like himself, slow and strong, sure to do execution somewhere, either among the pins or the boys. Teasdale not only takes off his coat like the rest, but bares his arm, but don't hit the pins any the better for this display of muscle. Dr. Ackland says that he rolls for exercise, and it is likely that he does, for he certainly don't roll to hit or to win. The Prince takes the small, or pony balls, and misses very accurately, generally landing his ball in one of the gutters upon either side of the alley, or in the stomach of the small boy who sets up the pins which happen to topple over. All of the party smoke during the performance, and last evening any number of sherry cobs were ordered up and consumed, sticks of macaroni being substituted for straws."

GOV. PACKER VS. THE WIDE AWAKES.—The Telegraph of Saturday attempted to convey the impression abroad that Gov. Packer intends "to prevent" the inauguration of Mr. Curtin by the "Wide Awakes." This is simply ridiculous, and we know that no such idea ever entered into Gov. P.'s mind or any one else's, save perhaps in the noddle of some ass-tute Wide Awake.—Patriot and Union.

Our neighbor is "slightly" mistaken. Governor Packer, while in our sanctum a few days ago, distinctly and emphatically asserted that if the Wide-Awakes persisted in inaugurating Colonel Curtin, he would call out the military of the State! "Simply ridiculous" as the "idea" is, it is not "entered the Governor's mind," but was expressed by him, in unmistakable language, in presence of two gentlemen in this office. So far as the inauguration parade is concerned, Governor Packer has nothing to do with it, the movement being a voluntary one on the part of the people; and the Republican Wide-Awakes will fix up a programme to suit themselves.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

The township of Cold Spring, Lebanon county, polled a unanimous vote for Curtin, Killinger, Boughter, and the whole county ticket. There was not a single vote cast for any of the candidates on the Locofoco ticket. Cold Spring township has fairly won the banner.

The town of Leroy, in Bradford county, Pa., at the late election gave Curtin 200, and Foster 2 votes. In 1856 Buchanan had one vote, and Fillmore had one vote. Understanding that in the rest of the State the Bell men and the democrats had united, these two voters "fused" and went for Foster.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—The turn of life—From the age of forty-five to fifty, woman has arrived at a critical period of her existence: the stream of death flows before her, across it is a bridge, called, "the turn of life." Beyond it is a delightful garden, the path is beset with danger and guarded by the fierce dragons of disease. Dropsy, Erysipelas, Hysteria, Nervousness and other disorders too numerous to mention, but armed and prepared by Holloway's famous Pills, she will pass with security into those beautiful regions and enjoy herself till the sun of life sets in the serene evening of old age. Negligence at this season is productive of the most frightful consequences and death itself would be far preferable to such a mockery of life. The nervousness, flushes and fainting fits, the general prostration of the system may all be prevented by a timely recourse to these incomparable remedies.

FEVER AND AGUE: A case of eight months' Standing cured by Barthe's Holland Bitters. MICHAEL KELLY, No. 117 Seventh St., near Grant, says: "Last July, while running on the river, on a cotton-boat plying between Natchez and New Orleans, I was taken with Fever and Ague. For eight long months I suffered with this disease. The greater part of this time I was unable to work, and spent at least fifty dollars for different medicines, but found no permanent relief. Three weeks ago, one of my friends insisted upon my trying Barthe's Holland Bitters, saying that a cure was guaranteed. After taking it for one week, I must state, I was a sound man. I have been at work now for two weeks, and have had no returns of the Chills and Fever whatever."

I certify that the above statement is true. THOMAS ADAMS, Diamond House, or at R. Chester's Gothic Hall. TO CONSUMPTIVES: The advertiser having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe Lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To all who desire it he will send a copy of the prescription used, [free of charge] with directions for preparing and using the same, which will find a sure cure for Consumption, Bronchitis, &c. The only object of advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing. Parties wishing the prescription will please address REV. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings co., N. Y. [3m]

A CARD TO THE SUFFERING.—The Rev. WILLIAM COSGROVE, while laboring as a missionary in Japan, was cured of Consumption, when all other means had failed, by a recipe obtained from a learned physician residing in the great city of Jeddo. This recipe has cured great numbers who were suffering from Consumption, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Coughs and Colds, and the debility and nervous depression caused by these disorders.

Destitute of benefiting others, I will send this recipe, which I have brought home with me, to all who need it, free of charge. Address REV. WM. COSGROVE, 439 Fulton Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y. See advertisement of Prof. L. Miller's Hair Invigorator, and Liquid Hair Dye, in another column.

The Lancaster Cheap Book Store, North Queen Street, near the Examiner & Herald Office.

THE PROPRIETOR OF THE LANCASTER CHEAP BOOK STORE has availed himself of the opportunity to purchase a large stock of the most varied assortment of valuable books of every class and description. He now offers to the public the same at proportionately and unusually low rates. Those in want of valuable standard works, for the improving of a well selected library, will find it to their great advantage to call and examine the extensive stock on hand. My object and wish is, as it always was, to supply the wants of the community with anything in my line on the most reasonable terms possible. We find the better and most advantageous course for all parties. The Political Economist tells us, "cheaper an article is, the more it can and will be used." Then the conclusion is, that when we buy cheap, we must sell cheap, simply allowing ourselves a reasonable profit.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. I would call special attention to my large assortment of Sunday School Books on hand, of every variety suited for the use of Sunday Schools, and sell at Sunday School Union prices. I have the agencies for the publications of the American Sunday School Union, American Tract Society, Methodist Book and Tract Society. Also, the Lutheran, Presbyterian, Episcopal and other denominations are kept on hand.

FAMILY BIBLES. Those in want of a neat and cheap Quarto Family Bible, will find it to their advantage to call and examine. THE CHEAP BOOK STORE, the largest stock on hand, ranging from One to Twenty-five Dollars. Before purchasing elsewhere, call and examine the large and cheap stock on hand. JOHN SHEAFFER, Successor to Murray, Young & Co.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION, Philadelphia. A special endowment, for the Relief of the Sick and Distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic Diseases, and especially for the cure of Diseases of the Sexual Organs. Medical advice given gratis, by the Acting Surgeon, to all who apply with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.) and in cases of extreme poverty, medicines furnished free of charge. Valuable Reports on Spermatophores, and other Diseases of the Sexual Organs, and on the New Remedies employed in the Dispensary sent to the afflicted in sealed letter envelopes, free of charge. Two or three postage stamps will be acceptable to pre-pay postage. Address, Dr. J. SKILLIN HOGGARTON, Acting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 South 9th St., Philadelphia. By order of the Directors, EZRA D. HEARTWELL, President. GEORGE FAIRCHILD, Secretary.

Alexander Lyndsay, FASHIONABLE BOOT & SHOE MANUFACTURER, MARKET STREET, MARIETTA, PENN. Would most respectfully inform the citizens of this Borough and neighborhood that he has the largest assortment of City made work in his line of business in this Borough, and being a practical BOOT AND SHOE MAKER himself, is enabled to select with more judgment than those who are not. He continues to manufacture in the very best manner everything in the BOOT AND SHOE LINE, which he will warrant for neatness and good fit. Call and examine his stock before purchasing elsewhere.

TURNPIKE ELECTION. The stockholders of the Lancaster and Marietta Turnpike will meet at the public house of John Kendig, on MONDAY, NOV. 5th, 1860, at 10 o'clock, to elect a President, seven Managers, and a Treasurer, for the coming year. Oct. 27-28. H. MUSSELMAN, Pres.

THE ONLY PREPARATION

Having proofs so strong and direct as to EXPEL THE DOUBTS OF ALL. For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, a positive for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all who have used it, unite, in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any extent, as well as restore. Read the following: Oak Grove, S. C., June 24th, 1850.

PROF. O. J. WRIGHT: Dear Sir—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay it to a perfect test. During the year 1851, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of internal injury, which communicated to the brain, and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was finally destroyed over the entire surface of the head. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, but a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every perception advanced. These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy Hair Restorative, which I have every reason to believe, procured a very happy result: two months after the application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my most sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I tender myself to say, is not a little. You can publish this if you think proper. Yours, very respectfully, M. J. WRIGHT, M. D. Office of the Jeffersonian, Philadelphia, Pa., December 12th, 1858.

Dear Sir:—I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer) has been bald ever since his early youth, so that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your Hair Restorative, which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now wears a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement. I give it to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative, and this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c., THOMPSON SURGNOR.

DR. WOOD: Dear Sir: Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color, and the time of my arrival in the United States was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your "Hair Restorative" it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable.

THE RESTORATIVE is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds 1-8 pint, and retails for $1 a bottle; the medium holds at least two, and retails for $2 a bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent more in proportion, and retails for $3.
