PENNSYLVANIA RAILBOAD.—For the information of travelers on the Pennsylvavia railroad, we publish the following regulations fixed upon by the company, and which passengers may rely upon being carried out to the letter:

On and after October 7th, 1860, pas sengers who fail to procure tickets at the regular offices of the company will be required to pay an excess to the conductor.

The conductor will in each case, give the person paying such excess a ticket which will be a receipt for the full amount paid, and will entitle the holder to receive a drawback equal in amount to the excess paid, if presented to any authorized station agent of the company.

This rule will be invariable, and conductors will be required to carry it out. It is hoped passengers will afford them every facility to do so.

RAILHOAD OFFICERS IN CONGRESS.-Hon. Erastus Corning, president of the New York Central, and Chauncey Hib bard, superintendent of the same road. were both elected to Congress on the 6th inst., in New York State, the former | gress. by about six hundred majority and the latter by four hundred. On Thursday grand illumination of the Central depot and the large building of the American and United States Express Companies.

STATE TREASURER.-Henry D. Moore, of Philadelphia, having been Mr. Slifer's only competitor last winter, for the nomination for State Treasurer, was supposed to have a sure thing of it this winter, but doubtful things are supposed to be mighty uncertain, and it is a well ascertained fact that "there is many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip." We hear now of two additional candidates, who will try their strength in the caucus-Mr. Baldwin, late Senator from Lancaster, and Mr. Francis, late Speaker of the only spent, it is said, eight or nine. P. Senate. Each of these men have their friends; and there is a shrewd suspicion afloat that a promise of Western support has so far been observed. to Mr. Francis had something to do with his withdrawal from the contest, after being fairly nominated for Senator in his district. Mr. Baldwin is not without his friends, so that the contest is already a triangular one, thus early in the day, and what it will reach by January, there is no surmising.—Harrisburg Patriot.

THE WASHINGTON FAMILY .- Singular Coincidence.-Col. Lewis W. Washington, of Jefferson county, Va., was married on the 6th inst. to Ella M., daughter of Geo. W. Bascett, Esq., of Hanover county, Va. In this marriage a singular coincidence occurs, the groom being a great-grandson of two brothers of General Washington, and the bride the great-granddaughter of the only sister of Gen. Washington, and also greatgrand-daughter of the sister of Mrs. General Washington.

Everybody's Lawyer" and "The Family Doctor," two valuable works advertised in another part of our paper, are decidedly the best books of their class that have ever come under our notice. The publisher aiming to meet the wants of the million, and to supply them with books not of transient interest, but, of real and permanent value, has spared no expanse in the getting up of these works, the necessity for which are of constant recurrence in "everybody's" busiadvertising they have already reached an enormous sale, and are now being anxiously sought for in every part of our land. WASHINGTON ITEMS.

Chief Justice Taney is now hearing arguments "in chambers" at Baltimore, and will be here to put on his silk gown. and take his seat when the Supreme Court session opens. He has been Chief Justice nearly twenty-five years, and will not listen to polite hints that should he now resign, President Buchanan could appoint a friend of the South as his successor. The Attorney-General would not probably object to the "rotation."

An officer of the State government says he has an important letter from one of the heads of departments at Washington, which will be made public after the 17th of December. It is surmised to be secession.

Senators Hammond and Chestnut are mentioned in connection with the head of the Government after secession.

Mr. Buchanan has nearly completed ris message, in which he reviews in detail the action of the Northern and of the Southern States on the fugitive slave law, &c., and recommends that additional power be vested in the executive to enforce the laws of the United States.

The President has under consideration the propriety of sending advance copies of the message to the principal cities, to be given to the newspapers for immediate publication upon the receipt of telegraphic advice that it has been read.— It is thought desirable to have it circulated at the South prior to the assembling of the State secession Conventions.

A SEILLFUL OPERATION.—We find in the "Medical and Surgical Reporter" of October, a report of a successful surgical operation preformed in this borough, by Dr. F. Hinkle, of Marietta, assisted by Drs. Ehler, of Lancaster, and ness and family. By the aid of judicious McCorkle, of this borough. The operation consisted in the removal of a tumor from the nostril of the patient, which had so extended as to render necessary "the extirpation of the entire Super-Maxillary Bone." The surgical skill displayby Dr. Hinkle is best attested by the results. The patient entirely recovered under the subsequent judicious treatment of the operator and Dr. McCorkle, and retains but slight disfiguring evidence of the terrible ordeal through which she passed .- Columbia Spy.
