

man should be a thankful, cheerful, merry man. In addition to all other causes of thanksgiving he can rejoice and give thanks for the loving kindness and tender mercies, the pardoning love of his Heavenly Father...

The Weekly Mariettian.

"Impartial—but not Neutral."

Marietta, Pa.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1860.

Nay, nay, we may eat our bread together and look on each others faces while we eat and thank God with a cheerful, merry heart for his goodness.

Be thankful, deeply thankful for these temporal mercies. But be thankful for richer mercies in store and which your kind Father in heaven offers even now.

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, to sing praises unto thy name, O most High, to show forth thy loving kindness in the morning...

Electoral Votes.—It is remarkable how many Presidents have been chosen by about the same electoral vote.

JOHN BELL PREPARING AN ADDRESS.—The report from Tennessee is that John Bell has prepared an elaborate address to the American people on the crisis...

The largest sum ever paid at one time by single person or firm to one newspaper, for advertising, has just been paid to the Tribune by H. C. Spalding...

At an election held in Clark-co., Virginia, for a member of the Legislature, the "Observer," published in that county, says "the disunionists were unable to influence any one to run on the ticket."

A Gambler was convicted in a Philadelphia Court a few days ago upon the testimony of a man who by losses at cards had been reduced from a position of affluence to that of a crossing sweeper.

The following is the official vote of Missouri, Douglas, 58,801; Bell, 58,222; Breckinridge, 31,317; Lincoln, 17,000.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The Charleston Mercury publishes a bill which will be brought before the Legislature of South Carolina, proclaiming all free negroes to be slaves on and after the 1st of January...

Mr. Seward at Erie, on his way home from the West, made a brief speech, in which he told the people that Pennsylvania began well under Benjamin Franklin, but that the new States had just seen far exceeded her in devotion to liberty...

Wigfall, who misrepresents Texas in the United States Senate, boasts that before he left home he armed all his negroes, and told them to shoot all strange white men who might intrude on his plantation...

A young lady in Indianapolis, rose in her sleep the other night, and cut off her hair as close as it could be cropped by a penitentiary barber.

Senator Wigfall, who notified the President that he would resign if Lincoln was elected, has already taken his seat.

The panic is affecting the business of Louisville very seriously. Three of the largest manufacturing establishments have been compelled to suspend operations.

From Bell's Life we learn that Sayers has given up the Champion's Belt, though not without reluctance, and that it has been handed over to the Staleybridge Infant.

Twenty-five thousand one hundred and fifty-six copies of the Bible were sold in Constantinople in the year 1859, being more than double the sales of the previous year.

The New Orleans Bulletin declares that a breaking up of the Union "would not only cause the ships to rot on the levee, and bankruptcy and ruin to follow in the train of disasters, but the real estate of New Orleans would not be worth twenty-five cents on the dollar to what it now is."

The census of Kansas shows 109,000 persons, counted, without going into the Pike's Peak region. Congress only asked 93,000 for admission.

In the Slave States, 67,000 whites have a representation in Congress; in the Free States, it requires 90,000 whites for the same.

Mr. J. T. Rary, the celebrated horse tamer, has arrived from England in the steamship Asia, and taken rooms at the Fifth-avenue Hotel.

John Adams headed the electoral ticket in Massachusetts in 1820, and voted for James Monroe.

A prominent Democrat of Kentucky said the other day: "If we of the South were to read Henry Clay's last speech at Lexington, without knowing the author, it would be very generally ascribed to Seward or Wilson."

Kenmore, once the residence of Mary, the mother of Washington, was recently sold to Mrs. Harrison, of Goodland co., Va., for $10,000.

It is estimated that two thousand gallons of molasses have been made this last year from Chinese sugar-cane in Cumberland county, New Jersey.

One hundred thousand barrels of apples have been shipped from three of four of the western counties in New York, within the past few weeks.

The mode of churning in Fayal, one of the Azores, is to tie cream up in a goat skin, and kick it about till the butter comes.

A Sheriff's sale took place in Philadelphia a few days since, of watches from the seized stock of a "gift enterprise" concern, bringing only $30 per dozen.

The largest horse in the world is an English horse of the Clydesdale breed, now at Newcastle, Pa. He weighs 1777 pounds.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY BANK.—This institution, the first under the new banking law, went into operation this week, the notes having been procured from the Auditor General...

Among the passengers of the ill-fated steamer Pacific, burned last week on the Ohio river, below Louisville, was a gentleman in the last stages of consumption...

The observance of Thanksgiving Day is of recent origin in Pennsylvania. At first instituted in the New England States, in place of Christmas, it met with little favor among our German and English population...

In Portland, Me., on Friday, a divorce case between E. Waterhouse and wife was determined. From the evidence in the case it appeared that the wife was an exceedingly pious woman...

Garibaldi retired to his island home only temporarily, while his countrymen are arming. In the Spring, he says that Italy will need a million of soldiers.

Pickled fruits, covered with beautiful representations of coats of arms, initials, mottoes, and other figures, were lately offered for sale in the markets of Vienna.

At last accounts, Mr. Rary, the horse-tamer, had just returned to London, after a visit to the Shetland Islands. Whilst there he purchased five of the smallest ponies in the world.

The Syracuse (N. Y.) Journal says that Mr. Seward, at an early day of the present session of Congress, will make a speech in the Senate, giving his views on the state of the country and the revolutionary movements in these times.

A firm in Amherst, Mass., are manufacturing about 1500 pounds of leather daily, from scraps of leather and old rope.

A prize fight came off on Tuesday last, at North Berwick, Maine, for $1,000, between Michael Fritz of Providence, and Wm. O'Neal of Worcester.

Harper's Ferry ought certainly to be sensitive on the subject of slavery, but it gave its vote 378 for Douglas, 275 for Bell, and 17 for Breckinridge.

The venerable John Johnson, of Dayton, Ohio, now in Washington on business before Congress, called at the office of the National Intelligencer, a day or two since, for the purpose of paying his sixtieth year's subscription to that journal.

An amusing accident, combined with a serious explosion, occurred in Springfield, Mass., on the 29th ult. One of the engineers had purloined an oil barrel, which he intended purifying and filling with cider.

Messrs. J. R. Gillmore and B. F. Barnett, of Orange, N. J., have purchased the Knickerbocker Magazine, with a view to bring it up once more to the prominent literary position which it held in days gone by.

We see Dan Sickles proposes to retire from public life at the end of the present session of Congress, and devote himself exclusively to the practice of the law.

The Petersburg Typographical Union have resolved to celebrate the approaching birthday of Dr. Franklin with appropriate honors.

Mr. Jefferson and Mr. Lincoln.—The election of Thomas Jefferson as President, in the year 1800, frightened many very worthy but rather verdant people in New England and throughout the country.

A Handsome Testimonial.—The friends of Colonel McClure, the Chairman of the People's State Central Committee, have presented him with a magnificent gold watch which cost $350.

WOODEN SLATES.—A genius in Connecticut has taken out a patent for a wooden school slate made of several thicknesses of veneering glued together and covered on both sides with a coating of just the proper degree of roughness to receive the impression from the pencil.

A young lady, belonging to one of the first families in New Orleans, and who never had any reason to complain of her father's want of generosity in supplying her with pin-money, was detected a few days since in an attempt to rob a lady of her port-monaie containing $75.

Ben Swain, a printer and traveler, died on the 20th, at South Bend, Ind., aged 32. He was a native of North Carolina, and has traveled all over Mexico, California and Oregon.

An eloping girl ran back to the house at Jacksonville, Ill., a few nights since, to get her shawl which she had forgotten, when her mother caught her and tied her to the bed post for 12 hours.

A Russian nobleman, who had seduced the betrothed wife of a serf in Moscow, was shot dead in the street by her lover, on the 18th of September.

The Petersburg Typographical Union have resolved to celebrate the approaching birthday of Dr. Franklin with appropriate honors.

Messrs. J. R. Gillmore and B. F. Barnett, of Orange, N. J., have purchased the Knickerbocker Magazine, with a view to bring it up once more to the prominent literary position which it held in days gone by.

We see Dan Sickles proposes to retire from public life at the end of the present session of Congress, and devote himself exclusively to the practice of the law.

The Petersburg Typographical Union have resolved to celebrate the approaching birthday of Dr. Franklin with appropriate honors.

The Petersburg Typographical Union have resolved to celebrate the approaching birthday of Dr. Franklin with appropriate honors.

1860! Fourth Arrival of 1860! NEW FALL GOODS.

NOW OPENING, a beautiful assortment of New Fall Goods, bought in New York and Philadelphia. CLOAKS, The newest fall styles: The Arab, The Basque, The Walking Coat, The Full Buck, The Plain Buck, The Cape Style, The Beaver Cloth, &c., &c., &c.

NEWELDS PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY, No. 724 ARCH STREET, PHILADELPHIA. One of the largest and most complete Galleries in the United States, where the best Pictures, known to the photographic art, at prices no higher than are paid for miserable caricatures.

COMMENDATIONS: From Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, Atty. Gen. Ohio. My family and friends all concur in the opinion that the (Newell) Picture is more life-like than anything they ever saw.

SEVEN YEARS! The seven years of unrivalled success attending "The Cosmopolitan Art Association," have made it a household word throughout every quarter of the country.

Beautiful Works of Art! Comprising valuable Paintings, Marble Portraits, Outlines, &c., forming a truly National Gem.

At last accounts, Mr. Rary, the horse-tamer, had just returned to London, after a visit to the Shetland Islands. Whilst there he purchased five of the smallest ponies in the world.

Ben Swain, a printer and traveler, died on the 20th, at South Bend, Ind., aged 32. He was a native of North Carolina, and has traveled all over Mexico, California and Oregon.

An eloping girl ran back to the house at Jacksonville, Ill., a few nights since, to get her shawl which she had forgotten, when her mother caught her and tied her to the bed post for 12 hours.

A Russian nobleman, who had seduced the betrothed wife of a serf in Moscow, was shot dead in the street by her lover, on the 18th of September.

The Petersburg Typographical Union have resolved to celebrate the approaching birthday of Dr. Franklin with appropriate honors.

Messrs. J. R. Gillmore and B. F. Barnett, of Orange, N. J., have purchased the Knickerbocker Magazine, with a view to bring it up once more to the prominent literary position which it held in days gone by.

We see Dan Sickles proposes to retire from public life at the end of the present session of Congress, and devote himself exclusively to the practice of the law.

The Petersburg Typographical Union have resolved to celebrate the approaching birthday of Dr. Franklin with appropriate honors.

The Petersburg Typographical Union have resolved to celebrate the approaching birthday of Dr. Franklin with appropriate honors.