The Woral Mariettian.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 12, 1861.

MARIETTA CAR TIME: The following is the starting time for leaving "Upper-Station;" GOING EAST.

Marietta Accommodation, at Harrisburg Accommodation, Mail Train, Live Stock with Emigrant attached, 10.10 p. m. GOING WEST.

Mail Train. Harrisburg Accommodation, Express freight and Emigrant, 6.26 p. m. 1.40 a. m, The Mail train East and Harrisburg Accommodation West will pass at "Upper Station.

The illness of the editor, for the past week, must account for any lack of our usual variety or any other discrepan.

From a glance at our hymenial record, one would suppose all Marietta had caught the wedding fever.

The Washington Rifle company of Mount Joy are also brushing up their arms and preparing to offer their services to the government. So we go.

Through the energetic exertions of Mr. John Fulks we are likely to have a "Hook and Ladder Company." He has been soliciting subscriptions from our citizens and has, we learn, been very

On Monday evening next, a lecture will be delivered before the Marietta Literary Society by Rev. Mr. Clauges. Subject-The importance of religious instruction in our Public Schools. The public will please bear in mind.

A few evenings since, Mr. Nagle, formerly of the Railroad Hotel, at the Upper Station, fell on going to bed and was so badly injured that Dr. Grove was called in and found two of his ribs to be broken. He is however doing well.

From the Spy we learn that an effort is now being made to form a military company in the borough of Columbia .-A large meeting was held on the 22d instant, to devise ways and means for carrying out the object. After the meeting a salute of thirty-three guns was fired. in honor of Major Anderson.

The "Farmer and Gardener" for January is received, and maintains untarnished its high reputation. It is, as usual handsomely embellished, and filled to repletion with matter of the highest interest and importance. We observe that the enterprising publishers, Messrs. A. M. Spangler & Co., have also issued a new monthly entitled "The American Bee Journal," which promises to be a most valuable and important work, for those who are interested in that subject. The price of each of these Journals is One Dollar, but the publishers offer them both, together with a prepaid copy of either the "Year Book of the Farm and Garden," or "Both Sides of the Grape question," for the trifling sum of One Dollar and Fifty Cents. Specimen | Copies of either or both of these monthlies, will be sent without charge, to all tablishment at reasonable prices. All articles who may apply for them. Address A. M. Spangler & Co., No. 25 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia.

"FIXING UP POETRY."-We clip the following truthful home-thrust to a class of insufferable annoyers, from a late no. of the Lancaster Evening Express: "As a general rule, the portfolio of the editor is crowded with verses-sometimes poetry but oftener otherwise. There is no class of writers more impatient to see their literary chicks dressed up in minion and lamp-black than amateur poets, and hence no class of people prove a greater annoyance to editors. So long as there is good poetry, in abundance to copy, we prefer selecting it at second hand, to publishing an inferior article, even though it be original-hence not one page of verses in a hundred that reach us find their way into our columns.

It is no unusual thing for an amateur poet to accompany his chick with the modest request to "please fix this up" for publication! Now we have a very good mechanic in our editorial bureau, who can "fix up" almost anything in wood, iron, or the metallic alloys, but "fixing up" cracked poetry is quite another matter. We would as soon thing of attempting to "fix up" some of the cracked brains which produce it. Writing poetry is not a trade-neither is "fixing it up." If any body sends us an item of news, we don't care whether a single word is spelled right or in its proper connection, so we can gather the main facts—we will "fix" that up cheerfully, and thank the writer in the bargain. But South Carolina deliver us from this business of "fixing up"

A Long Time Coming.—The creditors of the Baron de Arabet, an English in solvent debtor, who some five and twenty years since failed to meet his engagements, have just received notice, after waiting for a quarter of a century, that they may now get a dividend of five pence on the pound.

DEATH OF A FAMOUS HORSE.-The famous imported stallion Yorkshire died on the farm of his owner, John M. Clay, near Lexington, Ky., on Sunday. He was nearly 27 years old. Yorkshire was the sire of Waterloe, Austerlitz, Magenta and a host of other fine racers.

GOVERNOR CURTIN, we are informed, will reach the Capital the latter part of LIFE PILLS & PHENIX BITTERS this week-probably on Saturday-and take quarters at the Jones House until the retiring Chief Executive vacates the Gubernatorial mansion. The present indications are that the inauguration of the incoming Governor will be attended with the same degree of "pomp and circumstance" and characterized similar occasions in times past. Gen. Williams states that but two military companies, outside of this county, have ordered quarters to be provided. We have reason to believe, however, that there will be several handsome military companies from abroad, which, in connection with those of our city and county, will make a creditable display. The Wide-Awakes have determined, for justifiable reasons, not to take any part in the demonstration as equipped organizations.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

The trade of the single State of Ohio is equal to that of the six cotton States, who threaten to play the "dickens and break things."

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would rend er credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighbor-hoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female Sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, san guineous exhaustion, crittical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptiaversion to air and exercise for which the phy-

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigo-rously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has ofter sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendent Costiveness. In unchecked Diarrhea, even when advanced to Dysentary, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing. In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength debilitating cough, and remitten, heetic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and insting instances.

Battle Creek, Mich., Dec. 21st, 1858:

Prof. Wood: Thee willt please accept a line to inform thee that the hair on my head all fell off over thront reserved. felt off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, attended with an eruption on the head. A continual course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependence, I have not been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither have I been able to do them up, in consequence of which my head has stuff for caps, fieither have 1 neen able to do them up, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hodges almost the last cent I had on earth for a two dollar bottle of thy Hair Restorative about the first of August last. I have faithfully followed the directions and the held spot is now covered, with his relief. I have faithfully followed the directions and the bald spot is now covered, with hair thick and black, though short, it is also coming in all over my head. Feeling confident that another large bottle would restore it entirely and permanently, I feel anxious to persevere in its use, and being destitute of means to purchase any more, I would ask thee if thee wouldst not be willing to send ree an order on thine agents for a bottle, and receive to thyself the scripture declaration—"the reward is to those who are leclaration—"the reward is to those who are

Prop. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir:—In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair from a cause unknown to me. and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced failing off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months the whole upper part of my scalp was almost entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my mere casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintances were discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintances were to recognise me at all.

I at once made application to the most skillful physician in the country, but, receiving he assurance from them that my hair could again be restored, I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until, fortunately, in the latter part of the year 1857, your Restorative was recommended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time, I have used seven dollars worth of your Restorative, and as a result, have a rich recost of time, I have used seven dollars? worth of your Restorative, and as a result; have a rich coat of very soft black hair, which no money can buy. As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production of so wonderful an article, I have recommended its use to many of my friends and acquaintances, who, I am happy to inform you, are using it with like effect. Very respectfully yours, A. M. Latta, Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
