On Tuesday, at the regular stated meeting of the "Lancaster City and County Medical Society," the following were elected for the ensueing year:

President-Dr. James P. Andrews. Vice Presidents-Drs. Jacob Ziegler, S. R. Sample.

Secretary-Dr. Levergood. Recording Secretary-Dr. Henry Car-

Treasurer-Dr. J. Aug. Ehler. Censor-Dr. John Ream.

Drs. Atlee, sr., Cassidy, Carpenter, Ehler, Ream, Sample and Clinger, were elected delegates to the American Medical Association, which meets at Chicago, on the first Tuesday in June.

Mr. Baker: A lady of our place remarked "I know how to make every kind of soups but this 'metzel soup,' I wish I knew how to make it." A young lady near her, replied, " If you kill a hog and make sausages and puddings and send up some to our house, that will be metzel soup." The knowing soup maker An Old Lady. started of course.

Dr. Benjamin Rober has been appointed by Gov. Curtin, Notary Public for the Borough of Columbia, in place of J. Wilson Hamilton, resigned.

Godey's for February is on our table-if anything better than ever-who can possibly do without it? No lady's centre table is complete without Godey!

The ball on Tuesday night at Heckrothe's White Swan Hotel, passed off finely-large and well gotten-up.

On our first page will be found "Thoughts on a Sermon," which is worthy of a careful perusal.

Cassius M. CLAY: This distinguished Kentucky Republican is now in Washington where he had a long interview with the Democrats and Union men, and particularly with Gov. Magoffin, the friend of Breckinridge. Mr. Clay, who occupies the highest position in the Republican party, on account of his fearless support of their principles in a slave State, and who stood by Mr. Lincoln during all the late exciting campaign, openly takes ground that it is the duty of the Repudlicans to settle the agitation which is now distracting the country, and threatening to overthrow the Republic. He says that the border slave States must be saved; that they are too full of good friends of the Union to be sacrificed, and that for his own part he concieves it to be his duty, and the duty of the organization of which he is a mem ber, to make every possible sacrifice consistent with honor to rescue the Government from the men who are now seeking its destruction.

SUPPLY BILL OF SOUTH CAROLINA. Among the articles taked by the supply bill reported to the South Carolina Legislature, by the Committee of Ways and Means are the following: Slaves, $160 each, free negroes, mulatoes, quadroons, &c., $3 25 each.

SHINPLASTERS.—The town council of Winchester, Va., have determined to make an issue of corporation due bills, to the amount of $5,000, in notes of the denomination of one dollar, fifty cents, and twenty-five cents.

Mr. Van Buren, it is said, is pro paring a history of the times, beginning with the great struggle between John Adams and Thomas Jefferson, at the end of the last century, and to couclude with the present extraordinary year.

The Government is now paying for postul service in seceding States about §3,004 a week.

The Dover (England) Chronicle has the following item of Masonic intelligence: "It is rumored that his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will be initiated this year in Free Masonry.-Owing to the death of the Marquis of Dalhousie, the titles of the deceased nobleman (except the marquisate) are now borne by Lord Panmure, Deputy Grand Master of England.

WANTED immediately by thousands of suffering families, a safe, and reliable remedy for accidents from burns, scalds, wounds, bruises, &c., the same may be found at any respectable druggist's throughout the United States and the Canadas, by inquiring for Holloway's Ointment, which far excels all other salves in use for the immediate relief it gives to burns, scalds, The thousands who have used pronounce it the speediest in its effect and alleviation of pain; it extracts the heat and the inflammation, and by its soothing nature promotes a rapid cure of ment, which are the cheapest and most effica cious medicines for family use.

A REWARD IS OFFERED! For the detection of any person counterfeiting, imitating, or The store of E. H. Witmer, of the vender of any such counterfeit or imitation highly concentrated Holland Bitters is put up in half-pint bottles only, having the name of the proprietor, B. Page, Jr. blown in them, and his signature around the neck of each and every bottle.

This delightful Aroma has been received by Americans, with that favor which is only extended to really scientific preperations. When we consider the marked success attending its administration, in the most stubborn cases of Fever and Ague, Weakness of any kind, Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Acidity of the Stomach, Sick and Nervous Headache, Indigestion, Costiveness, and Piles, together with the complete control it exercises over all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, we cannot fwonder at its popularity. Well may the inalid value this remedy.

To Consumptives: The advertiser having been restored to health in a few weeks, by s very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe Lung affection, and that dread disease. Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To all who desire it he will send a copy of the prescription used, [free of charge] with directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Bronchitis, &c. The only object of advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them noth ing, and may prove a blessing. Parties wishing the prescription will please address

THE TESTIMONY of the WHOLE WORLD

HOLLOWAY'S DINTMENT. Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Sores and Ulcers.

All description of sores are remediable by the roper and diligent use of this inestimable preparation. To attempt to cure bad legs by plastering the edges of the wound together is a folly; for should the skin unite, a boggy diseased condition renisins undernesth to break out with tenfold fury in a few days. The only rational ship successful treatment, as indicated by natifice is to reduce the information in an accordance of the information in the contraction. by nature; is to reduce the inflammation in and about the wound and to soothe the neighboring parts by rubbing in plenty of the Cintment as salt is forced into meat.

Diptheria, Ulcerated Sort Throat, and Scarlet and other Fevers:

Any of the above diseases may be cured by well rubbing the Ointment three times a day into the chest, throat and neck of the patient; it will soon penetrate, and give immediate re-lief. Medicine taken by the mouth must oper-ate upon the whole system ere its influence can be felt in any local part, whereas the Oint-ment will de its work at once. Whoever tries the unguest in the above manner for the diseases named, or any similar disorders affecting the chest and throat, will find themselves relieved as by a charm.

Piles, Fistulas, Strictures.

The above class of complaints will be rethoved by nightly fomenting the parts with warm water, and then by most effectually rubbing in the Ointment. Persons suffering from these direful complaints should lose not a moment in arreating their pitogress.
