

The Local Mariettian.

MARIETTA CAR TIME: The following is the starting time for leaving "Upper-Station:"

Saturday, March 9, 1861.

THE INAUGURAL: Our usual variety is curtailed this week, in consequence of the length of Mr. Lincoln's Inaugural, which we commence on the outside.

Dr. J. H. Grove will lecture before the Marietta Literary Society on Monday evening, at 7 o'clock. Subject: "Characteristics of Mankind."

The following are the positions assigned the new board of Directors of the Pioneer Fire company:

- Hoseman—Albert Ropp. Hookman—Henry Shreeman. Rankman—John Peck, Jr. Azman—Walter Fryberger. Ladderman—John Kane.

A dispatch was received in this city on Saturday evening, from Washington stating that a pardon for Judge Vandersmith was that day forwarded to Philadelphia, and would probably be presented to the U. S. Circuit Court, now in session in that city, to-day.

On Saturday last the Board of Directors for the Poor of Lancaster county, elected A. Fairer, of Lancaster, Steward of the Poor House, in place of Samuel Spielman, of Strasburg, the late incumbent.

Crull has re-taken his old stand and is once more a "fixed institution" amongst us. Southern tours, Army privations, and a little "dash at sea," he has had enough of; he is now content to return to this—the Garden of America—county and "hang-up" for a while to come.

Crull has re-taken his old stand and is once more a "fixed institution" amongst us. Southern tours, Army privations, and a little "dash at sea," he has had enough of; he is now content to return to this—the Garden of America—county and "hang-up" for a while to come.

"Old Buck" did not, as everybody supposed he would, pardon Vandersmith, having only commuted the sentence from 20 to 3 years. The fine, ($20,000!) is not remitted. He will be released in June, 1862.

William Colder, Sr., one of oldest Stage proprietors in the State, died in Harrisburg, on Monday night last.

The Buchanan reception at Lancaster, on Wednesday last, is said to have been a very fine display.

The sale of the hotel furniture of the late Geo. Peters, will take place at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

J. M. Anderson has just received an assortment of heavy Draughting paper.

The President signed the Tariff bill on Saturday night last.

Mrs. Lincoln, attended by Mrs. Judge McLean, visited Miss Lane at the White House, on Thursday afternoon, the 28th ultimo, and was cordially received.

The tenor of nearly the whole of the Southern press is, that Lincoln's Inaugural is a declaration of war.

VALEDICTORY. To the Citizens of Marietta.

As the time is drawing near for the election of our Borough Officers, I hope you will call a Town meeting, and settle a ticket of good men—especially for police officers—and avoid nominating men who care only for their own section of the borough.

I thank you for the honor and good will conferred on me in electing me as your Chief Burgess for the last three years. I have served you to the best of my ability.

But I must decline a re-election. I am willing to serve my fellow citizens in any capacity, if I can benefit them; but as I am getting old, and as you have among you many good men, I hope you will make choice of some one else, and excuse me from further service in the office.

I have been doing my best for the last twenty years to get our Borough under proper management, so that it might be made one of the handsomest towns in the State. Situated in the garden of our State, for such is Lancaster county, it could and should be made the flower of the garden.

I thank the present Council and officers, elected and appointed, for their kindness and courtesy to me during the past three years, in all social and business intercourse. And again thanking the citizens for their favors to an old resident, and wishing them prosperity and happiness, I remain daguerreotypes and Ambrotypes of absent or deceased friends, photographed to any desired size, taken on Canvas, life size, and painted in Oil by the best Artists.

From Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, M. C., Ohio. My family and friends all concur in the opinion that the (Newell) Picture is more like-life than anything they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which presents so true to nature, all the features and expressions of countenance as this.

From Hon. E. J. Hoar, late Minister to Italy. The exquisite finish, beauty and softness of your portraits, conjoined with their durability of color and faithfulness as likenesses, cannot fail to commend them to the attention and patronage of all who appreciate true art.

Having occasion for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, a miniature in Colors, under the new process discovered by him, and took great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me, not only by the accuracy of the likeness, but its artistic finish in all respects, and recommend him to the patronage of those disposed to encourage the beautiful art. JAMES PAGE.

THE Proprietor of THE LANCASTER CHEAP BOOK STORE has availed himself of the opportunity to purchase a large stock of the most varied assortment of valuable books of every class and description. He now offers to the public the same at proportionally and unusually low rates.

Those in want of valuable standard works, for the improving of a well selected library, will find it to their great advantage to call and examine the extensive stock on hand. My object and wish is, as it always was, to supply the wants of the community with anything in line on the most reasonable terms possible. This we find the better and most advantageous course for all parties. The Political Economist tells us, "cheaper an article is, the more it can and will be used." Then the conclusion is, that when we buy cheap, we must be simply allowing ourselves a reasonable profit.

I would call special attention to my large assortment of Sunday School Books on hand, of every variety wanted for the use of Sunday Schools and sell all at Sunday School Union prices. I have the agencies for the publications of the American Sunday School Union, American Tract Society, Methodist Book and Tract Society, A. S. Lathams, and Wesleyan, Episcopal and other denominations are kept on hand.

Those in want of a neat and cheap Quarto Family Bible will find it to their advantage to call and examine at THE CHEAP BOOK STORE, the largest stock on hand, ranging from One, to Twenty-five Dollars. As they are purchasing elsewhere, call and examine the large and cheap stock of JOHN SHEAFFER, Successor to Murray, Young & Co.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

An Aperient and Stomachic preparation of Iron purified of Oxygen and Carbon by compression in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with its purities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions, indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz: In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Impaired Consumption, Scrofula, Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Menses, Chlorosis, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, In-termittent Fevers, Pimples on the face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land.

Some very signal instances of the kind are attested of female Sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, and gastric exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary; for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being cooling and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which renders it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhoea, even when attended by Dysentery, colic, emaciation, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent, hectic, which generally indicate Impaired Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them. In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

This remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition to perform a cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to R. B. LOCKE & CO., General Agents, 20 Cedar-st., N. Y.

THE Only Preparation that has stood THE TEST OF YEARS, And grows more and more popular every Day.

AND grows more and more popular every day! and testimonials, new, and almost without number, might be given from ladies and gentlemen in all grades of society, whose united testimony none could resist, that Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative will restore the bald and gray, and preserve the hair of the youth to old age, in all its youthful beauty.

Prof. Wood: These will please accept a line to inform thee that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, attended with an eruption through the life having induced me to a state of dependence, I have not been able to obtain them for caps, neither have I been able to do so, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This disease I cured by using thy Hair Restorative, and I have had on earth for a two dollar bottle of thy Hair Restorative about the first of August last. I have faithfully followed the directions and the bald spot is now covered with hair thick and soft, and I feel confident that another large bottle would restore it entirely and permanently, I feel anxious to persevere in its use, and being desirous of means to purchase any quantity I would ask thee if thou wouldst not be willing to send me an order on thine agents for a bottle, and receive to thyself the scripture declaration—"the reward is to those who are kind to the widow and the fatherless."

THEY FRIEND, SARAH ANN KERRY. Ligonier Noble Co., Indiana, Feb. 5, 1859. Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir:—In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending the State and National Law School of the State of New York, I was, from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months the whole upper part of my scalp was almost entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my mere casual acquaintance with you, and the receipt of a few bottles of your Hair Restorative in use, I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time, I have used seven dollars' worth of your Restorative, and as a result, have a rich coat of very soft black hair, which no money can buy.

As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production of so wonderful an article, I have recommended its use to many of my friends and acquaintances, who, I am happy to inform you, are using it with like effect. Very respectfully yours, A. M. LATTI, Attorney and Counselor at Law.

THE RESTORATIVE is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1 a bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for $2 per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent more in proportion, and retails for $3.

Our WOOD & CO., Proprietors, No. 44 Broadway, New-York, and 114 Market Street, St. Louis, Mo. Sold by all good druggists and fancy goods dealers. [7-7-14-3r.]
