

The Local Mariettian.

Saturday, March 16, 1861.

Rev. Mr. Montgomery will preach in the M. E. Church to-morrow (Sunday) morning and evening.

YESTERDAY'S ELECTION: The election for Borough officers was hotly contested yesterday. On Monday last public notice was given that a town meeting in respect of party, would be held on that evening at the Town Hall for the purpose of nominating a "Union-Borough Ticket." At the appointed time the meeting was held, composed of all shades of politics and a ticket amicably settled. This ticket did not, however, answer the ends of a certain arrogant faction of our Borough and they determined to defeat it; hence, on Tuesday evening another (so called) meeting was held, composed of eight or ten self-styled "leaders," and a second ticket formed. This was the ticket—the one that was to bring to its aid all the real and pretended wealth of the Borough and "our West-end"—this ticket was formed by the clique which provides "bread and employment" for the faithful poor of the right street in mid-winter—which obtains "free passes" on the Railroad for its chamberlains;—which has all the wealth—real and personal of the Borough;—in a word, the clique which "does and directs" the doings of the town. How this mighty clique has fallen—literally "gone to roost,"—having, with all their money—promises of flour—threats of discharge from work—and every conceivable menace, failed to elect but a couple on their ticket—many of whom were very deserving and honorable men. The "old Captain" with all his "rightful scars," received in his country's defence (?) which, by the aid of a powerful glass, might be seen,—shared the fate of the company he was in. We append below the result:

We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another column, of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company. This old and reliable company, organized in 1848, seems to be in a highly flourishing condition, and is growing rapidly into favor in our neighborhood. From a statement now before us it appears that the accumulated capital of the company during the year 1860 amounted to forty-four thousand dollars, paid to nineteen different families, in sums varying from five hundred to five thousand dollars. The net profit of the Company's business during 1860 was over one hundred thousand dollars, besides the large dividend to the insured of twenty-five per cent on the amount paid in for premiums during the year 1860.

The advantages of Life Insurance are too well known, to need recapitulation at our hands, but we would advise every married man to get his Life insured for the benefit of his wife and children.—The agent for this neighborhood is Thos. Welsh, Esq., of Columbia, who will issue pamphlets and give information, on application by mail or otherwise.

Mr. Charles Evans, of 1520 Market street, Philadelphia, has taken the Ambrototype room adjoining our office, where he will "open-out" on Tuesday next.—Mr. E. is said to be a fine artist and exquisite pictures may now be had without going out of town. Give him a call.

The Spring business may be said to have fairly "set-in," quite a number of timber and board rafts are now tied at our shore, and the eastern merchants flocking here. The up-rivermen have been here for almost a week. We have not learned what prices are being paid.

Godley's Lady's Book for April is on our table. The beautiful quadruple fashion plate is a gem; the steel engraving "The Pet Donkey" is beautiful.—Godley should be on every lady's centre table.

WHEREAS the Honorable Henry G. Long, President, Hon. A. L. Hayes and Ferre Brinton, Esq., Ass. Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, in and for the County of Lancaster, and Assistant Justices of the Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery and Quarter Sessions of the Peace, in and for the County of Lancaster, have issued their Precept to me directed requiring me, among other things, to make Public Proclamation throughout my Bailiwick, that a Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery; Also, a Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace and Jail Delivery, will commence at the Court House, in the City of Lancaster, in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, on the

THURSDAY in APRIL, 1861:
PUBLIC NOTICE is HEREBY GIVEN to the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Lancaster, in said county, and all the Justices of the Peace, the Coroners, and Constables of said city and county of Lancaster, that they be then and there in their own proper persons with their rolls, records and examinations, and inquisitions, and their other remembrances, to do those things which to their offices appertain, in their behalf to be done; and also those who will prosecute against the prisoners who are, or then shall be, in the jail of said county of Lancaster, are to be then and there to prosecute against them as shall be just.

Dated at Lancaster, the 12th day of March, 1861.
S. W. P. BOYD, Sheriff.
P. S.—Punctual attendance of the Jurors and Witnesses will hereafter be expected and required on the first day of the sessions. All the Justices of the Peace are required by an order of Court, dated November 21st 1848, to return their recognizances to Sam'l Evans, Clerk of Quarter Sessions, within one week from the day of final action in each case, and in default thereof, the Magistrates costs will not be allowed.

STILL IN THE UNION.

JOHN CRULL HATTER, NO. 92 MARKET STREET, MARIETTA.

TAKES this method of informing his old friends and the public generally, that he has re-taken his old stand (recently occupied by George L. Mackley), and is now permanently fixed to prosecute

THE HATTING BUSINESS

IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.

Having just returned from the city where he selected a large, varied and fashionable assortment of everything in the HAT AND CAP LINE, and now has an examination of his stock and prices, before purchasing elsewhere. Having also laid in a stock of Hattling material, he will be enabled, at short notice, to manufacture all qualities—from the common Soft, to the best London and Paris styles.

Employing none but the best of workmen, and manufacturing good goods at low prices, he hopes to merit and receive a liberal share of public patronage. The highest price paid for Furs—in trade or cash.

Marietta, March 9, 1861.

DIVIDEND.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia have declared an annual dividend of twenty-five per cent on the premiums paid in 1860. They have also declared a Cash Dividend of six per cent on the Script issue from 1850 to 1860 (inclusive).

Persons residing in this neighborhood entitled to receive Scrip and Interest will please call at the office of

THOS. WELSH.

Agent Penn Mutual Life Insurance Com. Columbia, Pa.

The Only Preparation that has stood

THE TEST OF YEARS,

And grows more and more popular every Day.

AND grows more and more popular every day! I feel tempted to give you, almost daily, and in all grades of society, whose united testimony none could resist, that Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative will restore the hair and gray, and preserve the hair of the youth to old age, in all its youthful beauty.

Battle Creek, Mich., Dec. 21st, 1858.

PROF. WOOD:—Three weeks since I received a line to inform that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, and by a complaint chronic disease, attended with an eruption on the head. A continual course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependence, I have not been able to obtain still for caps, neither have I been able to do so, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to pay Dr. Wood's Restorative the last time I had on earth for a two dollar bottle of thy Hair Restorative about the first of August last. I have faithfully used it in the directions given, and the hair is now coming in thick and black, though short, it is also coming in all over my head. Feeling confident that another large bottle would restore it entirely and permanently, I feel tempted to persevere in its use, and being destitute of means to purchase any more, I would ask thee if thou wouldst not be willing to send me an order on three agents for a bottle, and receive to myself the scripture declaration—"The reward is with thee who are kind to the widow and the fatherless."

Thy friend,

SUSANNAH KIRBY.

Ligonier Noble Co., Indiana, Feb. 5, 1859.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir:—In the latter part of the year 1853, while attending the State Normal School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months the whole upper part of my scalp was almost entirely bereft of its covering, and the remaining portion upon the sides and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my mere casual acquaintances were using it with like effect.

Very respectfully yours, A. M. LATTA,

Attorney and Counselor at Law.

THE RESTORATIVE is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small bottles. The large bottle is for $1 a bottle, the medium holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for $2 per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent more in proportion, and retails for $3.
