STOMACH OR LIVER,

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomech, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Arginto, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in nunerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Bechave. Its reputation at home produced its introduction here, the demand commencing with those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now offered to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quick-ening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

READ CAREFULLY! The Genuine highly concentrated Rerhave's Holland Ritters is put up in half-pint bottles only, and retailed at ONE DOLLAR per bottle, or six bottles for Five DOLLARS. The great demand for this truly celebrated Medicine has induced many imitations; which the public should guard against purchasing.

The great celebrity and the increasing demind for this unequalled preparation, convince the proprietor that one trnal is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over another preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases. Causes the hair to grow luxuriantly, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy and flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thinning, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair. There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this lnytgorator, when all other in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectibility. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of highest color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curis—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighbor-hoods, have suddefily re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female Sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent manasmus, sanc emaciated victims of apparent manasmus, sanc guineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptiaversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vicorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, tegularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness with-

In unchecked Diarrhoa, even when advanced to Dysentary, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astoniahing.

In the local pains, loss of fiesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remitteh, heetic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very destrictive and in physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated

COMMENDATIONS:

From Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, M. C., Onio.

My family and friends all concurrin the opinion that the (Newell) Picture is more life-like than anything they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which presents so true to nature, all the features and expressions of countenance as this.

From Hon. E. Joy Morris, late Minister to Italy.

The exquisite finish, beauty and softness of your portraits, conjoined with their durability of color and faithfulness as likenesses, cannot fail to commend them to the attention and patronage of all who appreciate true art.

Having occasion for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, a miniature in Oil Colors, under the new process discovered by him, and take great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me, not only by the accuracy of the likeness, but its artistic finish in all respects, and recommend him to the patronage of these disposed to encourage the beautiful art.
