Col. George H. Bardwell, of the "Third House," Harrisburg, has placed us under many obligations for valuable and interesting papers from the Seat of Government. May the shadow of our "gay and incomparable" friend never grow less.

Mr. Abraham Cassel has been hppointed Postmaster for this Borough, in place of Charles Kelly. Mr. C. will make a very obliging and attentive officer. Henry H. Fry for Columbia, N. S. Wolfe for Litiz.

John J. Cochran, Esq., editor of the Lancaster Union, has been appoint. ed Postmaster for that city. This is a good selection, and will no doubt be entirely satisfactory to our Republican friends in Lancaster. We are glad to see that the new Administration properly appreciates the services of the editorial fraternity.

The following special despatch to the Philadelphia Sunday Atlas from Lancaster, having a local interest, we republish it for the edification of our readers:—The Ex President was visited on Monday by Hon. William B. Reed, ex-Minister to China. He did not find the Old Public Functionary in as pleasant mood as could be desired:

"The fact is, some allowance must be made for the G. H. O. P. F. until he recovers from the terrible shock caused by the receipt, on Thursday last, from a well known and eminent surgeon of the United States Navy, of a bill for $1,000, for professional services rendered during thirteen years last past. The services for which this bill is now rendered consisted early in congretions for polymus. isted partly in operations for polypus in the cose, and for professional services during the critical period when he expected to die of the "National Hotel" disease. The O. P. F, says, "If the doctor is determined to sue me I may pay the bill, sir, but never let him speak to me again. I never supposed I was to be charged for these services, although I reduced prices, in order to make room for a charged for these services, although I confess the doctor saved my life on two

The Only Preparation that has stood THE TEST OF YEARS, And grows more and more popular every Day.

A ND grows more and more popular every day! and testimonials, new, and almost without number, might be given from ladies and gentlemen in all grades of society, whose united testimony none could resist, that Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative will restore the bald and gray, and preserve the hair of the youth to old age, in all its youthful beauty.

Battle Creek, Mich., Dec. 21st, 1858.

Prof. Wood: Thee willt please accept a ine to inform thee that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a com-plicated chronic disease, attended with an erup-tion on the head. A continual course of suffer-ing through life having reduced me to a state of dependence, I have not been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither have I been able to do them up, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hodges almost the last cent I had on earth for a two dollar bottle of thy Hair Restorative about the first of August last have faithfully followed the directions and the bald spot is now covered with hair thick and black, though short, it is also coming in all over my head. Feeling confident that another large boftle woold restore it entirely and permanently, I feel anxious to persevere in its use, and being destitute of means to Nurshase any. and being destitute of means to purchase any more, I would ask thee if thee wouldst not be willing to send ire an order on thine agents for a bottle, and receive to thyself the scripture declaration—"the reward is to those who are kind to the wnfow and the fatherless."

The friend Sysanman Kinny.

kind to the widow and the fatherless."

Thy friend, Susannah Kirby.
Ligonicr Noble Co., Indiana, Feb. 5, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir:—In the latter part of the year 1952, while attending the State and National Law School of the State of New York, iny hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months the whole upper part of my scalp was almost entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be supprised when I tell you that you my reshortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my mere casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintances were to recognise me at all.

I at once made application to the most skill-ful physician in the country, but, receiving no assurance from them that my hair could again assurance from them that my hair could again be restored, I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until, fortunately, in the latter part of the year 1857, your Restorative was recommended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time, I have used seven dollars? worth of your Restorative, and as a result, have a rich coat of very soft black hair, which ne money can buy. As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production of so wonderful an article, I have recommended its use to many o article. I have recommended its use to many o article, I have recommended its use to many o my friends and acquaintances, who, I am happy to inform you, are using it with like effect. Yery respectfully yours, A. M. LATTA, Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

THE RESTORATIVE is put up in bettles of thice sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ½-a-pint, and retails for $1 a bottle the medium holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for $2 pe bottle; the large holds a quart. 40 per cent

mand for this unequalled preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over another preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scale from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases. Estases the hair to grow luxuriantly, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy and flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thinning, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair. There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectibility. It will effectually prevent the hair from furning gray until the latest period of life and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator can be dressed in any sequired form so as

and the great facilities it allords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required farm so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being
