FATAL HYDROPHOBIA CASE.—The Lancaster Evening Express of Monday last, says: "On Friday evening last the village of Mountville, this county, was thrown into much excitement and surprise by the report that Frances Marks, a girl of fourteen years of age, manifested symptoms of hydrophobia. On investigation the report proved only too true, the symptoms showing themselves in an unmistakable manner, and which gradually increased until last evening, when death released the unfortunate girl from her sufferings. It appears that during the night about six weeks since, Frances and her sister Lizzie were going to or returning from a neighbor's, when they were attacked by a dog and bitten severely. No suspicion was entertained at the time that the attack seemed directed to a dog which was with the girls at the time. On Friday evening, however, the fearful truth became apparent as the symptoms gradually developed themselves. The sufferings of the unfortunate girl were intense, the frightful convulsions and distortions peculiar to the dreadful malady showing themselves through its various stages. Frances, however, bore her sufferings with fortitude and resignation, and died in the conviction that she was about entering a world where suffering was unknown. Lizzie, the sister, had not, up to the latest accounts exhibited any symptoms of the disease, and it is hoped that she will escape the dreadful fate of her sister. Since the above was in type, we learn from the Express of Tuesday evening, that the sister also died, on Monday evening, of the same frightful malady.

Rev. Mr. Wheeler will preach in the M. E. Church in this place on Sunday [to-morrow] morning and evening.

PETERSON'S New Publications! New and good books by the best authors, published and for sale by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, No. 305 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

The Philadelphia Conference of the M. E. Church, closed on Saturday. We find amongst the appointments, the following for this county: Lancaster, J. B. Meredith, J. Hancock.

The new "Borough Fathers" take their seats this evening. All we have to say, is, that if they do as well as their predecessors, none will have cause to complain. We would suggest, however, as one of the first acts of the new board, to order the removal of that lamp from the east to the west side of Millow Lane, or on Bell's corner, thus affording light to persons coming from Front street, to the Post Office.

Captain Hambricht, of the Lancaster Jackson Rifles, who received an appointment as 2nd lieutenant of the 6th Regiment of Infantry, U. S. A., has declined the honor. Gen'l Cameron, Secretary of War, in appointing the Captain of his appointment, as one of his first official acts, says that he knows that the appointment is not what his position and services merit, but that he is the highest within his power to appoint under the laws and regulations of the army.

Mr. William Johnston formerly of "The Hermitage," Lower-station, has taken the old Stackhouse hotel, where everything is fitted up in very complete and convenient style. This old stand has always been a favorite with the "North-branchers." They will find, under its present management, everything they could desire.

Parents should bear in mind that on Monday morning next, the Geist-Sawyer-Hiestand Select Summer School will open. Send the children to school by all means, thereby laying the foundation of enlightenment, and keeping them from the street; thus avoiding a great temptation to rowdysm.

Lieut. Col. Andrew Porter, son of Mrs. George B. Porter, of Lancaster, now in New Mexico, has been ordered to Carlisle Barracks. This is considered one of the most delightful posts in the Army, by the officers.

Dr. Worrall has taken the rooms formerly occupied by Dr. Szwentzel, between Spangler & Patterson's store and Wolfe's Notion House. See his card.

Master Frederick Haines, son of Mrs. Sarah Haines, of this Borough, has been nominated by Hon. Th. Stevens for a Cadetship at West Point.

The Susquehanna took a slight swell on Tuesday last, but is now falling again. Of late she has shown herself as feckle as a woman—rising one day—falling the next. But, jostling aside, everything here is exceedingly dull, and we are sadly in want of a fresher to enliven the place—all feel the need of Spring business.

All persons desirous of purchasing Perfumery, and Fancy Toilet and Washing Soaps, will find it to their advantage to call at the Drug Store of Dr. F. Hinkle, where an extensive and splendid assortment has just been received, which will defy competition, both for quality, style and quantity. Goods shown without charge, with pleasure.

Hon. Joseph Konigsmacher died at Michael's Hotel, Lancaster, on Thursday last. Mr. K. was well known as the proprietor of the Ephrata Springs. He was also much in public life as a politician. Mr. K.'s disease was inflammation from a severe cold. He was 56 years of age.

Mr. Cassel took possession of the Post Office on Monday evening last and removed it to the northeast corner of his store room, which he had very tastefully fitted-up for its reception.

The first of April passed as quietly as usual, although we believe there was more "fitting" than any previous first within the recollection of "our oldest inhabitant."

Rev. Mr. Wheeler will preach in the M. E. Church in this place on Sunday [to-morrow] morning and evening.
