Impartial --- but not Neutral."

Marietta, Pa.

SATURDAY, MAY 11, 1861.

😭 A gentleman who saw ex-President Buchanan, a few days ago, represents that he is in a most feeble condition, greatly depressed at the situation of public affairs, and yet earnestly in favor of the course of the present Adnize the Southern Confederacy, and coffee and cily meat. General Scott declares, with great emphasis, that those and to the expenditure of hundreds of Mexico. millions of dollars. He should have thought of all this a year ago.

James A. Hamilton, son of Alexander Hamilton, of revolutionary memory, publishes a card in the New York Evening Post, to the effect that he called upon the President on Saturday last. who assured him that he was resolved to prosecute the war with the rebels with all the vigor in his power, and on a scale of such magnitude as should drive treason to cry for quarter. It cannot be doubted that the Goverment at Washington will obey the imperative demand of the country for a permanent settlement of the controversy with the South.

Governor Hicks, in reply to the resolution of inquiry by the Legislature asking whether he consented to or authorized the burning of the bridges on. the Northern Central and Philadelphia roads, says he neither authorized nor consented to the destruction of the said bridges, but left the whole matter in the hands of the Mayor of Baltimore, with the declaration that he had no authority in the premises, and that he was a lover of law and order, and could not participate in such proceedings.

The position of ex-Vice President Breckinridge, now a Senator in the Congress of the United States, will be most embarrasing, and the same may be said of all who co-operate with him. If he intends to visit Washington merely for the purpose of embarrassing the Administration, and of repeating the Disunion sentiment of his friends in South Carolima, Georgia, and Alabama, or the utterwould it not be better for him to resign and run his chances in the Southern Confederacy?

To OUR VOLUNTEERS .- An old soldier adds the following to his suggestions to new recruits for the war : 1 Remember that in a campaign more men die from sickness than by the bullet. 2. Line your blanket with one thickness of brown drilling. This adds but four ounces in weight and doubles the warmth.

3. Buy a small India rubber blanket (only $1.50) to lay on the ground to throw over your shoulders when on guard duty during a rain storm. Most of the Eastern troops are provided with these. Straw to lie upon is not always to be had. 4. The best military hat in use is the light colored soft felt, the crown being sufficiently high to allow space for air over the brain .--- You can fasten it up as a continental in fair weather, or turn it down when it is wet or very sunny. 5. Let your beard grow, so as to protect the throat and lungs. 6. Keep your entire person clean ; this prevents fevers and bowel comministration. He gives it as his opinion | plaints in warm climates. Wash vour that no foreign Government will recog- body each day if possible. Avoid strong said that the too free use of these, toin the lead of that movement should be gether with neglect in keeping the skin put down if it led to a seven years' war clean, cost many a soldier his life in

7. A sudden check of prespiration by chilly or night air often causes fever and death. When thus exposed do not forget your .blanket.

Do not wear cotton stockings; your feet will be blistered by a six hours' march. Wear wollen stockings, and if you can find the means to dip the soles in melted tallow before starting, your feet will not be blistered at all.

PATRIOTIC INCIDENT .- At the Boston neeting to summon recruits for Fletcher Webster's regiment, the following telling incident occurred : The chairman notified the meeting that subscriptions would be received, when a little boy promptly came forward and said, "This is from Stephen Decatur, sir." It proved to be a check for $100. The father stood by and proved to be blind. He is an officer of the navy who lost his sight in the service, and a nephew of Commodore Decatur of the last war. Nine cheers were given which made the halls ring. Five thousand dollars were immediately subscribed for the regiment, which is to leave this week. One hundred young ladies were making garments for the men.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS .- Opposite Washington, on the Virginia side of the Potomac, the adopted son of Washington, (the son of Mrs. Washington by her first husband,) Geo. Washington Park Curtis, dwelt in a fine mansion, which he graced with gentlemanly hospitality. Arlington House was in the centre of his estate of one thousand acres. He died in 1857, at the advanced age of 86.

It is from his house and grounds, so ances of Gov. Magoffin, of Kentucky, often visited by the curious and patriotic-a pilgrim shrine second only to Mount Vernon-that the attack on the Capital is expected.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Thomas H. Clay, of Kentucky, a son of Henry Clay, has addressed a letter to the citizens of Fayette county, reviewing the action of the conferates and denouncing secession. He says Kentucky has one hundred millions in slave property, which would be destroyed by secession and the establishment of a foreign in the southers leaders, it is believed border on the north.

It is said to be the intention of a Mr Charles Smith in New York to come forward to the aid of the country with a regiment of Smiths. He thinks that there are enough men of that name in New York alone to establish a right of way through Baltimore at once.

In Missouri the St. Louis Democrat efuses to raise the rebel standard, and Frank. P. Blair, Jr., not only denounces the secessionists, but accepts the command of a company of Germans who have offered their services to the gov ernment.

There is a great scarcity of percussion caps in the Southern Confederacy, and a heavy bonus is said to have been offered by the state authorities of Virginia to any one who will establish a percussion cap manufactory in that state.

Twiggs, after sacrificing his honor and his conscience, has been contemptuously thrown aside with a commission of Brigader General, which Davis knew he could not accept. He has sunk too low stone. for scorn. His degradation can excite no feeling but pity.

Panic stricker. Washington has been good place for carpenters of late .---They have used up 50,000 feet of lumber in making boxes for carrying away furpiture, in addition to all those ready made which had been bought up at the dry goods shops.

The colored men throughout the free States are said to be organizing a force of several assorted regiments, for the purpose of invading the slave States, liberating the slaves and wreking vengeance upon the slaveholders without stint or mercy.

Justic John A. Campell, of tho Supreme Court of the United States, has sent in his resignation. Judge Campell resides at Mobile, Ala., and was appointed in 1853.

A Frenchman named Denny, in Cincionati, became troubled because a favorite son had eplisted, and on last Friday evening blew out his brains with a pistol.

A letter from Montgomery to the Charleston Mercury speaks of it as highly probable that the Confederate capital will be removed to Richmond.

WAR ITEMS. There is still an uneasy feeling here regarding the safety of the Capital, and more troops are thought to be necessary to place it in a proper position of defence. From the most reliable accounts southern troops are rapidly concentrating in North Carolina and Virginia, and from the extreme caution, displayed that they are preparing for a bold stroke in the direction of the Capital.

The reports of a spreading Union sentiment in Virginia are now believed to have been pure inventions. Certain it is the State is arming vigorously, and should Federal troops be thrown into it, the struggle could not fail to be both warm and bitter.

Senator Johnson will soon make a tour of Tennessee, in hopes of saving that State from the whirlpool of secession.

Ohio, has now in the field over and above her quota of troops, eleven additional regiments, all under instruction. It is stated that Hon. A. H. Reeder, of Pennsylvania, will be appointed one of the Brigadier Generals of the Army of the United States, about being raised in accordance with the Persident's late proclamation. The western Virginia counties, bordering on Maryland and Pennsylvania, will never agree to the Secession ordinance. A report prevails that, if they cannot form a State of their own, they will ask to be attached to the old Key-

A board of medical officers will convene at the Naval Hospital, New York, on the 1st of June, for the examination of candidates for admission to the medical corns for the navy.

General Butler tried the range of his battery on the heights, taking for a target an old, unoccupied shanty, two thirds of a mile distant, which was struck with great precision.

The Massachusetts Regiment are still without tents, sleeping in booths made of fence-rails, tree-boughs and planks.-A laughable incident is told of one of them, who, roused by the rain beating upon him, shouted to his comrade to ' put down the window."

GF C. J. INGERSOLL, of Philadelphia, who many years ago remarked that "he would have been a Tory had he lived in the days of the Revolution." is evidence that he has not changed his principles in this hour of his country's peril. The old man, who now is in his dotage, has written to Ex-Presidents Buchanan, Pierce, Tyler, Fillmore and Van Buren, to come to Philadelphia and settle the national difficulties ! Pretty settlement that would be! Every one of these Presidents, except Van Buren, is wedded to the slave power, and even the latter is doubtful. Mr. Ingersoll need not trouble himself about the settlement of HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND CINTMENT .--- A word to our fair readers .- Health the basis of beauty-Pimples, blotches, and all skin diseases-A clear complexion is not only essential to female loveliness, but it is equally an external evidence of health-while sallowness, pimples, and all cutaneous eruptions are indicative of a disturbed condition of the stomach and liver. Upon these organs the famous aperient and tonic, known as Holloway's Pills, act with a directness, precision and rapidity, unparalleled in medical science, while the Ointment purges the vesicles of the skin, and imparts a brilliancy and roseate tint to that delicate envelope. All who value health and beauty should beware of tampering with cosmetics, as they are not only pernicious, but highly dangerous to health.

One gentleman, deaf for twenty years, has been restored to his hearing. Another, afflicted with Rheumatism, unable to raise his hands to his head, was cured in presence of a large audience. We will, therefore, recommend to all afflicted with Rheumatism, Deafness, Neuralgia.
