SATURDAY, MAY 11, 1861.

We are gratified to learn that Captain WELSH, of the Columbia Shawnee Guards has been promoted to the position of Lieutenant Colonel of the 2nd Regiment of Pennsylvania Volunteers—a well merited and deserved honor.—Lieutenant Rambo will assume the Captaincy, and Messrs. Kelsey and Bruner act as Lieutenants of the Guard.

The Cookman Rangers of Columbia named under the distinguished and patriotic clergyman of the Methodist church, are ready to march at an hour's notice. Col. A. W. Fisher has command of them.

FROM OUR ARMY CORRESPONDENT.
CAMP SCOTT, York, Pa.
May 7, 1861.

DEAR COL.—I have looked anxiously for "The Mariettian" since the beginning of our active war service, but have so far looked in vain; for neglecting us you certainly deserve "short rations and extra duty," or, perhaps you are, like our Lancaster neighbors, ignorant that Columbia sent the first Lancaster County troops into service, if so, let me enlighten you. The "Shawnee Guards" were organized on the 18th of April—on the 19th they were in Harrisburg, agreeably to order of Gov. Curtiss—on the 20th were mustered into the service of the United States—furnished with muskets, bayonets and cartridges—embodied into the 2d Regt. Penn. Volunteers, and started toward Baltimore. On the 21st and 22nd three Regiments of us were in Camp near Cockeysville, 14 miles from Baltimore. On the 23d we all returned to York, and formed "Camp Scott" on the grounds of the Agricultural Society. We are now about six thousand strong—becoming well drilled and consider ourselves ready for the field. Our friends from home keep us well supplied with luxuries; while others complain of soldiers fare our company is enjoying the good things of life. We are expecting orders to march on Baltimore, and may possibly have some hot work before we get through; for this we are preparing and I think the Baltimore "Pug Ugly" will do well to clear the track for us, or they might get what they richly merit. It would do you and your readers good to visit our Camp; put on your soldier "fixings" and come over and dine with us on "bean soup and flap-jacks,"—you shall have full ration, always providing you send us "The Mariettian."

The following is a list of our officers and privates as now in Camp, since the promotion of Capt. Welsh.

Our Company is becoming one of the best in service, the boys are all anxious to learn the art of soldiering; our officers are of the best. Our Captain (Welsh) who has since been promoted to rank of Lieut. Colonel, thoroughly understands the duties of an officer, is with us all the time—considers himself one of us—messes with us, and enveloped in his blanket sleeps with us on the same hard ground, as soundly as the roughest man in the ranks. He is an old soldier and endeavors, by good example, to interest us in the duties of Camp life. Send us the paper—then more anon.

We have been unable to get a list of the "Marietta Cameron Guards." They passed through here on Thursday afternoon; they seemed in excellent spirits. One of the party cast off his old cap and called out, as he threw it into the crowd in front of our office door, "there, take that, it may be the last you will ever hear of me," the cap fell into the hands of Mr. Wolfensberger, but from whom it came "nobody knows."

Since the above was in type we learn our company is encamped on the Agricultural grounds at Lancaster, and expect to remain there for a couple of weeks.

A law recently passed the Ohio legislature, allowing each uniformed member of the State militia $5 per year in time of peace. They get $1.50 per day, or $3 for a day and night, if in actual service under the State.

The Baltimore Patriot expresses the belief that the voters of Maryland are three or four to one in favor of remaining in the Union.

One hundred and five Cincinnati printers have enlisted.

THE Co-partnership heretofore existing under the firm of Grove & Roth, has this day [April 29] been dissolved by mutual consent. All persons indebted to the late firm will please make immediate payment, and those having claims to present the same for settlement to J. H. Grove, at the old stand, with whom the books have been left for settlement.

J. H. GROVE.
Marietta, May 11, 1861.

D. R. J. H. GROVE would embrace this opportunity to return his acknowledgments to Second, or Pike-st., that he has removed to the late firm will please make immediate payment, and those having claims to present the same for settlement to J. H. Grove, at the old stand, with whom the books have been left for settlement.

MARTIN HILDEBRANDT would most respectfully inform his old customers and the public generally, that he has removed to Second, or Pike-st., four doors below the Methodist E. Church, adjoining the Oberlin Coach Works, where he will be prepared to furnish all kinds of seasonable meats. Thankful for past patronage, he hopes to merit and receive a continuation of the same at his new location.

PROF. DE GRATH would state explicitly that he is the discoverer and sole possessor of the secret of the manufacture of Electric Oil, which could not be purchased for $1,000, 000—and $50,000 will be given to any chemist who will make it. My oil has performed all the cures published in the Ledger for years past. Ask Col. Grant, 26 North Thirteenth street, Dr. Killingsworth, Dr. Keyser, now at St. Lawrence, Mo.; Dr. E. E. Zantz, of Jarvis, La.; Mr. Cripps, of Chertsey, and Girard Avenue, and others, ad infinitum, who have been cured of Rheumatism, Deafness, &c., by my Oil in Philadelphia. It is also a valuable remedy for Colds, Splints, Spavin and Scratches on horses.
Price 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.
Prof. CHARLES DE GRATH,
Philadelphia, Pa.

None genuine without signature of Prof. C. DE GRATH. Labels signed in writing. Principal Depot No. 217 South Eighth St. Philadelphia. Country dealers and druggists can be supplied wholesale and retail. Price 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1 per bottle.
Try everything else; give this one simple trial.
CAUTION—Be careful to ask for and get DE GRATH'S Electric Oil, as worthless imitations abound.
There are numerous imitations sprung up on the reputation my article has acquired. The public must beware. They are worthless.

THE Lancaster Cheap Book Store,
North Queen-st., near the Examiner and Herald Office.

THE Proprietor of THE LANCASTER CHEAP BOOK STORE has availed himself of the opportunity to purchase a large stock of the most varied assortment of valuable books of every class and description. He now offers to the public the same at proportionately and unusually low rates. Those in want of valuable standard works, for the improving of a well selected library, will find it to their great advantage to call and examine the extensive stock on hand. My object and wish is, as it always was, to supply the wants of the community with anything in my line on the most reasonable terms possible. We find the better and most advantageous course for all parties. The Political Economist tells us, "cheaper an article is, the more it can and will be used." Then the conclusion is, that when we buy cheap, we must sell cheap, simply allowing ourselves a reasonable profit.

I would call especial attention to my large assortment of Sunday School Books on hand, of every variety wanted for the use of Sunday Schools and sell all at Sunday School Union prices. I have the agencies for the publications of the American Sunday School Union, American Tract Society, Methodist Book and Tract Society. Also, the Lutheran, Presbyterian, Episcopal and other denominations are kept on hand.
