SATURDAY, MAY 25, 1861.

FIREMAN'S PARADE:—On Monday last, notwithstanding the inclement weather, the parade, consequent upon the reception of the Union Hook and Ladder, came off. The truck and fixtures, manufactured by Messrs. Thompson, Rusing & Grove, are really a credit to the workmanship of those men and the mechanism of our town. It was the intention of the principle getters up of this demonstration, to postpone it on account of the weather, but the arrival of our neighbors from Columbia settled to the contrary, and the parade went on regardless of the pouring rain, which was, all things considered, quite a creditable display. In the evening a ball was given to the Columbia visitors, which, we are told, passed off finally. Mr. Folks, who has been the chief in this Hook and Ladder movement, has furnished us with the result of the operations of the ball, by which it will be seen that $27.08 has thus been placed in the hands of the Treasurer of the Volunteer fund:

Statement of Receipts and Expenditures of the Firemen's Ball, at the Town Hall, Marietta, May 20th, 1861, for the benefit of the families of the Marietta volunteers: Amount of Tickets sold, $46.75. Paid J. Cushman, hack hire, $1.50. F. L. Baker, printing, 3.25. Marietta String Band, 10.00. Emwiler, services at Hall, 1.00. Lighting-up Town Hall, 80. Mrs. Collins, cleaning Hall, 25. For 4 packs Envelopes, 32. Showlow, hack driving, &c., 75. Refreshments during evening, 3.00—$27.08.

Contributions for Refreshments, $25.85. Balance in John Fulks' hands, $27.08. Received, Marietta, May 21st, 1861, of John Fulks, Twenty seven dollars and eight cents—being the profits of the Firemen's Ball—to be appropriated to the support of the families of the Marietta volunteers. JAMES WILSON, Treasurer.

A strolling fellow, with basket in hand, was arrested on the river shore, on Wednesday afternoon and taken before Esquire A. Axer, where he told several stories—that he was from Baltimore—being a Union man—had to escape from the city—that he went to Chambersburg and enlisted, but afterward was discharged—and finally acknowledged that while on guard at Camp Scott, York, being nearly starved, fled. Edward F. McElroy having been the first to suspect and arrest him, had gratis quarters provided for him for the night, in the basement of the Town Hall and on Thursday morning took him back to York and delivered him over to the Camp officers. He is from Pittsburg. Mac says he was immediately ironed and put in the guard house on bread and water.

It will be gratifying to the numerous friends of Major F. Hambricht, to learn that he has been unanimously elected captain of the Allegheny Rifles. Speaking of the gallant captain the Pittsburg Gazette says: Thoroughly imbued with the military spirit, a strict disciplinarian and correct tactician, Major Hambricht re-enters the service of his country at his advanced age with all the spirit and animation, and with much more experience, than most of the officers who remain with us. With the advantage of such a thorough drill, we shall be surprised if the Rifles do not render a good account of themselves.

It is said that Mr. Buchanan has contributed $5,000 to sustain the country. He had better have contributed a few dollars' worth of patriotism and energy when he was President.—Louisville Journal.

We learned on Monday last, from a gentleman from Lancaster, that Mr. Buchanan's contribution was fifty dollars,—just two 00's less than the above.—Ed. Mariettian.

A new chime of eight bells has been placed in the belfry of Trinity Lutheran Church, Duke street, Lancaster which rung its first merry peal on Sunday morning last on the occasion of the Centennial anniversary of Old Trinity. The chime is said to be much sweeter in its tone than the old bells.

The Pittsburg Dispatch says a new counterfeiter of the Farmers' Bank of Lancaster made its appearance in that city on Monday. It is described as follows: The bill has no centre vignette—oval male portrait; 10 above on right end—two Indians, one kneeling, 10 above on left end—female bathing between signatures—name of bank in semi-circle at the top of note.

SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR RELIEF: The Relief Committee of this Borough again respectfully call the attention of subscribers to the above, to the subject of payment. They ask, at present, only one-third of each amount subscribed. Some have paid in full—others have paid one-half—others one-third or more; but the greater part have not yet paid any; probably because they have not been called on. But as the duties of the Visitors have been pretty arduous without making collections, the Committee hope that most (if not all) of the subscribers will lessen these labors by calling on the Visitors and making payment, without waiting to be called upon.

The Committee would also very respectfully state that all subscriptions made thus far must be paid in cash, as fairness to all requires; and especially as the Committee cannot give their attention to auditing bills and dispensing orders. The families to be relieved should, also, be treated alike as far as possible, as well as subscribers; and cash payments, will best enable us thus to treat all parties.

This, however, is not to exclude any donations in produce which may be offered hereafter—all such will be received at the stores already named, and will be faithfully dispensed as directed by the donors. But cash subscriptions will always be preferred by the Committee.

By order of the Relief Committee, A. B. Gnosu, Sec'y. Marietta, May 24, 1861. P. S.—We have now over thirty families under our charge, most of whom require weekly assistance at present varying from one dollar to four or five dollars, each. A. B. G.

The "Safe Harbor Artillery," Captain Geo. H. Hess, were the first to offer the services under the three months call, but from some unexplained cause were not accepted. The company is now on hand, we are informed for three months or three years.

In addition to the above, permanently organized "Home Guards" have been formed in various sections of the county, who, should occasion require, would have no hesitation in entering the regular service for the defence of their country and rights. In concluding this brief mention of military matters at home, we cannot refrain from expressing our admiration of spirit that now actuates the loyal men of Lancaster county. Party ties are ignored, and with here and there a miserable exception, all men of all parties and creeds, are united in their determination to uphold and defend the constitution and the laws.—Express.

The Manheim Sentinel of last week, says that operations on the Reading and Columbia Railroad have commenced.—The sub-contractors on the section from that place southward commenced work with a goodly force about a week since, on the hillcock along the Chiques, about three-quarters of a mile southwest of town. Once this is graded, and the several bridges built in that neighborhood, the work all along from Chestnut Hill to Litz is light, and will require but a short time to get ready for the rails. We expect to hear the "iron horse" snorting in that neighborhood before the close of the year.

Dr. J. G. Stehman has returned to his mother's residence in this borough; we learn he has had several hemorrhages of the lungs and been compelled to temporarily suspend practice. He returns home to recruit.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Fast life, Swift decay. "A deed without a name!" There is a stream of vice current among the youth of both sexes profuse of the most terrible disorders. By perverting the noblest gifts of God to the vilest purposes he degrades the majesty of manhood to the level of the brute; it traces its source to the depraved affection of a prurient imagination—its appetite is whetted by the contaminated contents of indiscriminate companionship at schools and seminaries; it bears within its womb the tortures of its own chastisement, and the germ of speedy destruction in the fearful retribution of loss of memory, bankrupt constitution, swift decay, imbecility and insanity. It is our duty to warn parents and guardians that this nameless disease may not only be prevented but actually cured by the remedies heading this paragraph.—Daily News.

PROF. DE GRATH'S ELECTRIC OIL has performed some miraculous cures in our city, at the Union Hall. One gentleman, deaf for twenty years, has been restored to his hearing. Another, afflicted with Rheumatism, unable to raise his hands to his head, was cured in presence of a large audience. We will, therefore, recommend to all afflicted with Rheumatism, Deafness, Neuralgia, Sores, Pains, Burns, Frosted Hands and Feet, to get a bottle of De Grath's Electric Oil, as we saw his Oil perform cures which the medical faculty has been unable to make.—Harrisburg (Con.) Daily Post.

Ask Mr. John A. Perry, of Manchester, what he knows about my Electric Oil. Ask all others present at the City Hall, if not 100 invalids were cured instantly by the application of the Electric Oil. Rheumatism, Neuralgia, in general, every thing sore or painful, has lost its terror. For sale by all Druggists and Dealers in the United States and Canada. Price 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1 per bottle. See advertisement.

WILKIE COLLINS' NEW BOOK. The Crossed Path; A Story of Modern Life and Manners. By Wilkie Collins, author of "Woman in White," "The Dead Secret," etc., and far superior to either of them. One vol., 12mo., cloth, $1.25; or in two vols., paper cover. Read what the Editor of the New York Daily News says of it: "T. B. Peterson & Brothers have given to the public, in an acceptable form, one of the most readable works of fiction that has ever been issued from the press. 'The Crossed Path,' a Story of Modern Life and Manners, exhibits in a pre-eminently degree, the power possessed by Mr. Wilkie Collins, of sustaining the interest of a story which in other hands would probably prove tedious. The two controlling agencies of the plot are love and revenge, which are made in turn to work upon each other. The hero has the misfortune to have a father who is very tenacious of ancestral honors, and who is so desirous that he should ally himself by marriage to a family equally as ancient as his own. As is often the case in such instances, the young man falls in love with a woman who is inferior in social position to a tradesman's daughter, and to escape the consequences of his father's wrath, marries her secretly. Here the revengeful individual appears upon the scene, in the shape of the hien-drapeer's confidential clerk, who has been desirous of marrying the woman he has loved through the evidence of the hero's father. To avert all suspicion, the hero agrees not to divulge the secret, and any day the eyes of a husband for the wife of the privileged man are improved by Mannion, who gains the affections of his wife and consummates his disgrace on the night before the expiration of the year. To this the hero is a witness, and proposes to his vengeance upon the head of Mannion, leaving his wife apparently lifeless in the street. He, however, survives, and after having unconsciously caused the death of the unfortunate woman, still pursues the hero with his hate. Having alienated him from his father, he at last falls a victim to his own impetuosity and is dashed to pieces over a precipice. The persecuted individual is then restored to his family a wiser, though perhaps, not happier man. The story is told very skillfully, and the more objectionable features of the plot are handled with great delicacy. We would advise all our readers to get the book and read it, for it is the most remarkable work of the day."
