SATURDAY, JUNE 15, 1861.

We received a few lines from our former townsman. S. S. Strattan, now a private in the Lancaster Union Guards, in glowing terms of praise of their captain, Thos. B. Barton

A fine American flag was placed on the "Round Top" a few evenings since, and now proudly waves from that elevated point. Rev. Mr. Wheeler, accompanied by Mr. Geist of the High school, Mr. Ross, in Dr. Hinkle's Drug Store, Mr. Emswiler, High Constable, and several others composed the party. A large ceder tree was trimmed of its limbs and branches and the flag staff nailed to it. We could distinctly hear the party, on descending the hill, singing the star spangled banner. They did not Captain J. Oscar Lorain, of the Clearreach this side of the river until nearly ten o'clock at night.

Our neighbors at Columbia have another company, called the "Columbia Greys," with the following officers: Captain, John McClure,

1st Lieutenant, Abram Bruner, Jr., D. C. Wann, 1st Sergeant, Robert McAnall,

2dNicholas Gilman, G. W. Enney, 3d

S. A. DeNegre, 1st Corporal, Ephraim Hershey, 24 E. A. Becker.

Sergeon of Com'y, Smith Armor. Quarter Master, A. S. Green.

An Old-Fashioned Fourt of July .-The city authorities of Philadelphia are making arrangements for an imposing celebration of the coming anniversary of our National Independence. The bells of all the churches will be rung at sunrise, noon and sunset. Salutes will be fired, and a grand civic and military procession will be made. A meeting will be held Independence Square, where a large floral arch will be thrown over the main walk. Thirty-four little girls and the same number of boys, appropriately dressed, will unite in singing the Star Spangled Banner. In the afternoon there will be a regatta on the Schuylkill. In the evening, Independence Hall will be illuminated and pyro- tions. The multiplication of interior technic displays made in the upper and lower parts of the city. A "high old time generally" may be anticipated, and the occasion will attract thousands of people to Philadelphia from the interior towns and villages.

What kind of a Fourth'are we to have in Marietta? We have heard a great many endorse the kind suggested by a communication in our last. Let us have a merry, patriotic day.

A letter was received by a lady reader of "The Mariettian" from a member of the Marietta Cameron Guards, now at Chambeasburg, from which we are permitted to make the following extract: "We desire you to present our thanks to the patriotic ladies of Marietta for the Havelocks presented to us. To-day they were distributed and every heart overflowed with feelings of gratitude to the fair doners. They are the right kind, being of grey color, which is much better than white. The boys say they are determined to wear them at "The Buttle of Harper's Ferry."

A fatal accident occured on Wednesday afternoon, a short distance this side of Columbia. As two long trains of cars containing soldiers, were backing into the sideling below the Henry Clay Furnare, one of the soldiers, we could not learn his name, having obtained a loaf of bread at one of the houses near by, was in the act of handing a piece to a comrade on the platform of the next car, when, loosing his ballance, he fell between the cars, his body was literally devided at the thighs. He died a short time after.

A bungling error escaped our notice in the article headed "Transatlantic Opinious," in our last week's issue, where we said ten righteous men saved Sodom, instead "would have saved."-Every reader of the bible would very readily have made the correction in his own mind in reading the article; the truth is again made manifest that " mistakes will happen in the best regulated families."

The following post office changes have taken place in this county within the last week. Lewis P. Brady postmaster at Mount Joy, vice Joshua Leader, removed. J. M. Hess at Safe Harbor, vice John Kolp, removed. David Bowman, at Maytown, vice Jacob Gorner, removed. Samuel Boyd, at Green, vice Femming McSparrow, removed.

Octogenarian Generals .- The New York Express furnishes means for instituting a comparison of the relative ages MARIETTA CAR Hours: The following is of Northern and Southern Generals .the starting time from this place, from and af- According to the Express the principal officers on one side of the Administraneer) 80, Craig (Head of Ordinance Department) 76, Ripley (Ordinance) 70, Sumner 65, Lawson (Surgeon General) 80. Larned (paymaster General) 70, Gibson (Cammissary General,) Churchill (Inspector General, and Thomas, (Adjutant General) are all old men, having entered the army in the beginning of the present century, Gibson in 1808, and Churchill in 1812. The Southern army, encamped at Camp Wayne, West Ches- on the other hand, is officered chiefly by ter; he says the Guards are comfortably young men, or men in the prime of life quartered and in great glee. He speaks and vigor, Beauregard being only 43, and Lee not over 55.

> A HUGH PUDDING .- A soldier at Fort Warren wrote last week to his mother in Boston, requesting her to send him a plum pudding. She had a large dish made to order at a tinsmith's, and got up a pudding weighing sixty-four pound, including among its ingredients a whole box of raisins, which she sent. The young man wrote back that it furnished a meal for himself and eighteen messmates, with a good luncheon left over.

> The Harisburg Telegraph sags : field Cadets, now at Camp Curtin, is charged with uttering treasonable sentiments, and that a warrent is out for his arrest. If common rumor be true there is good reason for suspecting Lorain's loyalty, and the affair should be investigated. The excuse made by his friends that he uttered the treasonable sentiments imputed to him when drunk, will not answer.

A great many Southerners are sending their families North for protection, yet they talk about the horrible and barbarous war of extermination the North is waging against them. Will any gentleman of secession proclivities, tell us whether this isn't the first instance on record where a party at war have sent their women and children to their enemies for protection.

The slaveholders of Virginia are busily engaged in sending their human chattels into the cotton States. The more they herd them, the more likely will they be to raise an insurrection. South Corolina managed to get Virginia into the war, and the latter gives her a population that may, in the end, conquer her. The negroes will fight the battle, and there is no disguising the fact.

According to the latest intelligence from Liberia, the Republic is in a prosperous condition. Sugar making is on the increase; also the culture of coffee, cotton, and other topical producsettlement is now under consideration.

Two pretty girls, Cathrine Quirk and Rebecca Ellenstein, ran away from their parents and homes in New York, and joined the Garibaldi regiment as vivandiers. They were followed, detected, and sent home.

Soldiers will do well to make a note of this:— A little musk wraped up in a piece of paper and carried in the vest pocket is a sure safeguard against vermin of any kind infecting the clothes or body.

Diffenbach has just returned from the City, bringing with him some very choice goods, which he is now selling at unprecedently low prices.

Gen. Geo. M. Keim, of Reading, ex-member of Congress, ex-U.S. Mar shall, is dead.

BOROUGH TAX FOR 1861. Proposals for collecting the Borough Duplicate for loot, will be received by Chief Burgess James Park, until Thursday next, June 20.

By order of the Town Council. Marietta, June 15, 1861-1t.

THE WONDERS OF THE WATER-CURE are such, that, if they were generally known, the dealers in drugs might throw their physic to dealers in arigs inight throw their physic to the dogs, for the people—at least the intelligent portion of them—would have none of it. And why should they? Can a man take fire into his bosom and not be burnt? Nay verily! No more can he take poison into his stomach without being injured by it.

The Great Historical Picture of WEBSTER IN THE SENATE, WEBSTER IN THE SENATE,

Webster in the Senate, Webster in the Senate,

Delivering his great speech on March 7, 1859.

No picture equal to it in size has ever before been sold for less than from $5 to $10, and the first copies of the work, no better than the present ones (as we are now printing them from renewed plates), sold rapidly at $10 per copy. It is nearly three by four feet in size, and represents WEBSTER on an occasion when the whole nation, agitated, was waiting to hear him, standing in the midst of his compers, CLAY, FILLMORE, BENTON CHASE, SEWARD, CALHOUN.

CHASE, SEWARD, CALHOUN, DOUGLAS, BELL, and a whole galaxy of the chosen statesmen of the day. Every Engraving is accompanied with an outline key, pointing out by numbers the name and location of each person represented. To every Subscriber to the Household Journal, who forwarwards us $2, we will mail the Household Journal for one year, and also one copy of the above engraving—mailed free, and carefully put up with roller to preserve it Address A. Haithill & Co., 20 North William street, New York:
