Gallery of Art, 724 Arch St., Philadelphia. COMMENDATIONS: From Hon: Lewis D. Campbell, M. C., Ohuo. My family and friends all concur in the opin-ion that the (Newell) Picture is more life-like than anything they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which pre-sents so true to nature, all the features and ex-pressions of countenance as this.

The exquisite finish, beauty and softness of your portraits, conjoined with their durability of color and faithfulness as likenesses, cannot fail to commend them to the stantion and ma

In all Ner-tons, Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided euro. This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manuer of the occlebrated Holland Professor. Recentare. Its reputation at homo produced its introduction here, the demand commencing with those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now offered to the American public, nowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged. It is particularly recommended to those persons must be acknowledged. It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quick-uning every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system. NOTICE.—Whoever expects to find this a beverago will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, pos-sessed of singular remedial properties.
