The idea of representing the Lord's Prayer by an engraving, and of ornamenting and arranging it in such a manner as to produce at once a model of neatness and taste, was conceived and carried our by ORMSBY, the celebrated Bank Note Engraver of New York. It commences with ownsiditing agenta wards commences with exquisitively executed words of "Our Father," and then follow in succession the other parts of the prayer, every phrase of which is engraved in the most elegant and tasteful manner. Near the bottom of the picture is a superbly executed head of Our Samiour, and engireling the unpage next of the engineer. viour, and encircling the upper part of the engraving are ten angels, each bearing one of THE TEN COMMANDMENTS.

The engraving has received the most unqualified praise from the religious community, as there is nothing of a sectaring character about it, having been recommended by clergymon of all denominations. J. M. AUSTIN. GEORGE WEHRLY. RECOMMENDATIONS.

RECOMMENDATIONS.
We invite attention to some of the recommendations: From Rev. C. W. Thompson, Hector of St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, York, Pa.
Messrs. Austin & Wehrly:—The engraving of the "Lord's Prayer," which is now offered for sale by, Messrs. Austin & Wehrly, of this Recourse is "got up" with much taste and Borougn, is "got up" with much taste and beauty, and ought to recomend itself to public attention—anything that will keep that noble attention—anything that will keep that notice composition before the mind and memory is likely to do good. The work seems to me only to require examination in order to be admired, and I cannot but hope that the gentlemen who have in hand its distribution at so moderate a rate, will be abundantly successful in their undertaking.

Practice I would condially recommend it to the Prayer, I would cordially recommend it to the favorable attention of their friends at York and elsewhere. It is not only a beautiful ornament for the dwelling of every christian family, but also a useful and edifying acquisi-tion for Sunday Schools and similar benevolent institutions.
