

Walking as Christ Walked. "He that saith he abideth in him, ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked."

Here, then, is John "the mystic" defining this "mystic" which Christ and what it is—a thing we can or cannot understand? Walking as he walked.

Thus, dear Sir, while your preachers must find themselves hampered (that is just the word), in presenting the offers of the Gospel, see with what ease and freedom a Calvinist can perform the delightful duty.

Why I Am Not an Arminian. LETTER TO AN ANTI-CALVINIST FRIEND. MY DEAR SIR—In my former letter I stated some leading objections against Arminianism.

With quite as little propriety could I, as an Arminian, urge the consideration that salvation is altogether free, without money and without price.

Salvation on Bond and Mortgage. In making the offers of salvation of Arminian principles, I would very much resemble a land agent who stands on an eager crowd of expectants, "Gentlemen, here is land for the landless, enough for all, and better still, without money and without price to all who will accept it."

A POSSIBLE SALVATION. Besides, what is it that on Arminian grounds I am authorized to offer the sinner? May I say to him, "Come, for all things are now ready; here is a full, a finished salvation; only accept it and be saved forever from sin and death?"

Salvation on Bond and Mortgage. In making the offers of salvation of Arminian principles, I would very much reand cordially aid our Foreign Mission in China. There are now nine missionaries, of whom about one-half are supported by them.

Devotional Exercises—Praise, Reading of the Word, and Prayer, by Moderator.

First Motion. Moved by Rev. Dr. PARSONS. The Scottish Reformation, in its primary aspect, was a great spiritual work, the result of the nation, issuing in the return of nearly the whole Church to the purity and simplicity of apostolic times.

Their system is an exaggeration of a great truth, the sovereign and electing grace of God in connexion with the eternal counsel of grace between the Father and the Son.

THE SECRECY OF THE CONFESSORIAL has lately come out strongly in opposition to the spirit of English law, in the case of a Father Kelly, a priest in the neighborhood of Newcastle-on-Tyne.

THE TEMPORARY RESURRECTION OF THE PAPACY, this is one to pass through the nomination to the post of Commander and organizer of the Papal army, of General Lamoriecère, a famous Republican General.
