A short time ago the mission ship Allan Gardner was on the coast, and the Catechist and Captain Fell, who was a Baptist preacher, and six of the crew, being on shore for service, were attacked by about two hundred Indians, and all were cruelly killed with clubs and stones. The cook only escaped by being on board. This is the second fatal catastrophe to those employed, as in 1851 Cantain Gardner and six others died of starvation near the same spot, as they were planting the mission."

of work of the kind in the West.

It is no small thing to say of the missionaries of the American Board, that in less than forty years they have taught this whole people to read and to write, to cipher and to sew. They have given them an alphabet, grammar, and dictionary; preserved their language from extinction; given it a literature, and translated into it the tertainment, etc., etc. They have established schools, reared up native teachers, and so pressed their work that now the proportion of inhabitants who can read and write is greater than in New-England; and whereas they found these slanders a nation of half-naked savages, living in the surf and on the sand, eating raw-fish, fighting among themselves, tyrannized over, by feudal chiefs, and abandoned to sensualities, they now see them decently clothed, recognizing the law of marriage, knowing something of accounts; going to school and public worship with the affairs of the constitutional monarchy under which they live, holding seats on the judicial bench and in the legislative chambers, and filling posts in the local magistracies.

ABYSSINIA BECOMING CHRISTIANIZED .- Som months ago the Bishop of Jerusalem sent a sup- peace of the Confederate Republics, it does beply of Bibles to the King of Abyssinia in his own language. The missionaries who labor union. there have gained a great influence over the mind of King Theodorus. They build roads and bridges, introduce useful arts of all kinds, distribute Bibles, and recommend the truth by their conversation and their lives. The King, has so far recognized their civil services as to raise them to the rank of nobles. He has recognized them to be right in those points where the doctrines of the Bible differ from the traditions of the Abyssinian Church, and in token of it has received the sacrament of the Lord's Supper with them,

The Dreamer's Blind Daughter.

TALE OF RELIGIOUS PERSECUTION. BY MRS. S. ROCHESTER FORD. of Louisville. volume. 12mo. 488 pages. Illustrated. Price $1.00. The great popularity of "Grace Truman," (of which hirty thousand copies have been sold,) will secure, for this pook, thousands of readers. READ WHAT THE PRESS SAY OF IT.

READ WHAT THE PRESS SAY OF IT.

From the New-York Examiner.

The numerous readers of "Grace Truman" have here another work on a topic of deep and thrilling interest, from the author of that highly popular book. Mary Bunyan, the blind daughter of the immortal dreamer, is referred to repeatedly in his autobiography and other works. She was about twelve years of age when Bunyan was imprisoned in Bedford jail, and his auxiety on her behalf was one of his principal causes of distress in his long imprisonment.

As drawn by Mrs. Rord, her character seems to have been one of great modesty and loveliness, and the story of her love for William Dormer, and of his death for the cause of civil and religious freedom, has much of the pathetic element in it. Mrs. Ford is evidently thoroughly au fait in the incidents of Bunyan's family history, and in the topography of Bedford and Elstow. We can safely predict for the work an extensive sale. From the New-York Evangelist. From the New-York Evangelist.

The simple incidents of Bunyan's life, his protracted imprisonment, his heroic endurance and lofty faith, are of themprisonment, his heroic endurance and lofty faith, are of themselves full of the deepest and most thrilling interest. It needed only the picture of his bilind daughter Mary, in herophetoness and patience under sore misfortune, to give completoness to the tragic yet noble scenes in which Bunyan figures, so modestly yet grandly conspicuous. The author of the volume before as has carefully gathered up such historical facts, and they are fortunately numerous and well authenticated, as, could throw light apon the subject, and has employed them with great saguelty and effect in the construction of her story.

From the American Bantist, N. Y.

From the American Baptist, N. Y. The announcement of a new work from the pen of the accom-lished authoress of "Grace Trunan." will send a thrill of de-ight through thousands of hearts. The book will be read with in enthusiasm rarely equalled. There will be many a mois-ment of the sential pages of fourthing scenes in the ened eye over the beautiful pages of touching scenes in the nistory of one whom all know only to love. Before it was out of the press, five thousand copies, had been ordered, and we doubt not it will have an immense sale. From the Pittsburgh Chronicle. Thus is the last product from the pen of a lady whose writings are rapidly, becoming popular, Her last work, Grace Truman," had a sale of over thirty thousand copies,
