GREAT BOOK BY THE AUTHOR OF "GRACE TRUMAN."

MARY BUNYAN,

The Dreamer's Blind Daughter. TALE OF RELIGIOUS PERSECUTION. BY MRS' S. ROCHESTER FORD, of Lonisville. volume. 12mo. 488 pages. Illustrated. Price $1.00. The great popularity of "Grace Truman," (of which hirty thousand copies have been sold,) will secure, for this pock, thousands of readers.

READ WHAT THE PRESS SAY OF IT.

From the New-York Examiner. From the New-York Examiner. The numerous, readers of ... "Grace Truinan" have here another work on a topic of deep and thrilling interest, from the author of that highly popular book. Mary Bunyan, the blind daughter of the immortal dreamer, is referred to re-peatedly in his autobiography and other works. She was about twelve years of age when Bunyan was imprisoned in Bedford jail, and his auxiety on her behalf was one of his principal causes of distress in his long imprisonment. As drawn by Mrs. Ford, her character seems to have been one of great modesty and loveliness, and the story of her love for William Dormer, and of his death for the cause of civil and religious freedom, has much of the pathetic element in it. Mrs. Ford is evidently thoroughly au fail in the inci-dents of Bunyan's family history, and in the topography of Bedford and Eletow. We can asfely predict for the work an extensive sale.

From the New-York Evangelist.

From the New-York Erangelist. The simple incidents of Bunyan's life, his protracted im-prisonment, his heroic endurisme and lofty faith, are of them-selves, full of the deepest and most thrilling interest. It needed only the picture of his blind daughter Mary, in her gentleness and patience under sore misfortune, to give com-pleteness to the tragic yet noble scenes in which Bunyan figures, so modesity yet grandly conspicuous. The author of the volume before us has carefully getthered up such histori-ical facts, and they are fortanately numerons and well au-thenticated, as could throw light upon the subject and has employed them with great sagacity and effect in the construc-tion of her story. From the American Baptist, N. Y.

From the American Baptist, N. Y.

From the American Bapmer, N. 1. The announcement of a new work from the pen of the accom-plished authoress of "Grace Truman." will send a thrill of de-light through thousands of hearts. The book will be read with an enthussm aracly equalied. There will be many a mole-tence eye over the beautiful pages of touching scenes in the history of one whom all know only to love. Before it was out of the press, five thousand copies had been ordered, and we doubt not fit will have an immense sale. From the Pittsburgh Chronicle.

This is the last product from the pen of a lady whose writings are rapidly becoming popular. Her last work, "Grace Truming," had a sale of over thirty thousand copies, and this one is said to be a better and a more interesting book. It is a very pleasing tale of fiction, the scene of which is in "Merrie England," and the chief character, the immortal and never-to-be-forgotton John Bunyan, writer of the Pilgrim's Progress.
