The publisher of the PRESBYTERIAN HISTORICAL ALMANAC, Joseph M. Wilson, offers in his prospectus for 1861, prizes to the amount of one hundred and twenty dollars for the three best essays on the subject of "Parsons for Presbyterian Ministers." Essays will be received until May 1, 1861; the three best among those received will form an appendix to the Almanac for 1861-2, and the subscribers to the Almanac are to determine by vote which of these are worthy of the prizes of sixty, forty, and twenty dollars respectively.

A COSMOPOLITAN SEAPORT.—Vessels entering the Golden Gate from European and Asiatic ports, those trading amongst the islands of the North and South Pacific, British America, the Spanish Main, Central America, Mexico, China, India, and Japan, together with the great whaling fleet of the Pacific and Arctic oceans, naturally stop here on their outward and homeward bound.
Within the last few days vessels have cleared from the port of San Francisco for Valparaiso, Callao, Monterey, Guaymas, Acapulco, Manilla, Hong Kong, Panama, Baker's Island, New York, Manzanillo, and for a whaling voyage in the North Pacific. The flag of every civilized nation can be seen being voyaged in our port, and scarcely a day passes but some ship from Asia, Europe, or the islands of the seas, drops anchor in our noble bay.—Alta Californian.

Charles Burr, the nearest relative of Aaron Burr, died at Saratoga, N. Y., August 7th, aged seventy years.

John Quincy Adams was Minister to the Netherlands, under Washington, 1794-96; Minister to Portugal, 1796-97; Minister to Prussia during the administration of his father, 1797-1803; Senator, 1803-8; Minister to Russia, 1808-11; Minister to Spain, 1811-14; Minister to England, 1815-17; Secretary of State under Monroe, 1817-24; President, 1824-29; and member of Congress from 1831 to 1847, the date of his death. Thus in a period of fifty-three years, the intervals between the trying down and one office in diameter, and the assumption of another, amount added together, to less than two years.

At the sale at the Palacé, Bishopo-re, recently some of the port wine of the late Archbishop of York realized 140 shillings per dozen, and the amount obtained by the sale of the whole of the wines was nearly $12,000.

The life of William Pitt, a new biography, by Earl Stanhope, (better known in literature as Lord Mahon) is soon to be issued.

It is estimated that the reception of H's Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, will cost the Provincial Government of the Canada no less than $1,000,000, independent of the vast amounts spent by the different towns.

The Rev. Arthur Cleveland Cox, D.D., rector of Grace church, Baltimore, and formerly rector of St. John's church, at Hartford, has been unanimously elected president of Trinity College, in the latter city, vice Rev.
Dr. Goodwin, resigned.

The citizens of New-Orleans have determined to honor the memory of Fulton by erecting a stupendous monument, one hundred and fifty feet high, and one foot in diameter, with stairway on the inside, at the intersection of Fulton and Canal Streets.

Three thousand pounds have been collected, chiefly from men of letters and their friends, in aid of the memorial church of George Herbert, the poet, at Pemerton. The sum includes donations from Lord Stanley, Haecley, Dean, Milman, and Trench, Sir Bulwer Lytton, and other literary celebrities.
About £1,000 are still needed to complete the work.

A handsome marble monument, erected to the memory of Gov. Shunk, of Montgomery County, Pa., was blown down during a recent gale. The monument was fifty-six feet in height.

Some of the missionaries in those districts of Syria where the civil war has raged the most fiercely, are availing themselves of the enforced idleness and ten feet in diameter, with stairway on the inside, at the intersection of Fulton and Canal Streets.

THE CENSUS.—On a not made, the increase that was expected of her, adding only three hundred thousand to her population, or not two-fifths as much as Pennsylvania has done.

THE seal of Washington Terri'ry, a bear with inscriptions and a device. A log cabin with its rude chimney, like a protruding its unwounded gable, for the "now," a woman in the foreground, whom we know, by the anchor at her side, to be Faith, the blue-eyed mother of Hope; the doves and spires of a mart in the distance, for the "then"; to which Faith is forever pointing, and over all, the Cheenok word, "A-ki-ki," by-and-by.

A LARGE congregation of independent American Catholics has been formed at Richmond, Virginia, under the pastorage of Rev. Mr. Tirion, formerly a chaplain of the French army in the Crimea, and they have fitted up a house at the corner of Broad Street and Brooke Avenue, for religious worship. They observe all the usages and ceremonies of the Roman Catholic Church, but do not acknowledge the supremacv of the Bishop.

It costs a million dollars per day to maintain the Government of France—that is, about $9 a year for each person in the empire. The interest on the national debt is $12,000,000 annually. The army and navy cost in 1859, $99,000,000. Such a government ought to be very good.

The merits of Hayti, as exhibited by statistics, are as follows: To attend to three balls a week, with three thousand people present, and to talk, receive adulation, and dance from evening 11 o'clock in the morning, must be more of pleasure than can be possessed.

Partizan feeling also displays itself. In the Western Pennsylvania Fair at Pittsburgh, Pa., have just awarded to W. H. Huff, the Professor of Penmanship in Duff's College, five first premiums; viz: For bold writing and flourishing; for neatness and uniformity; for the use of the pen; for the use of the pen; for the use of the pen; for the use of the pen.

Lower Province, mostly Catholic, the Catholics had not their own way; hence in the Upper Province, mostly Protestant, similar favor is claimed. But it would seem that such wish to carry matters too far. The Orangemen, with their party, are the most numerous in the country, and a distinct band in the reception.
This is refused, the Duke of New-Castle, Guardian to the Prince, wishing to have no divisive manifestations. The Orangemen at Kingston and Millville were obstinate in the demand, and hence the Prince did not land at those places.

WLANE'S Worm Specific.

The following, from a customer, shows the demand which this great medicine has created wherever it has been introduced: Blossburg, Tioga Co., Pa., March 30, 1850.
Messrs. Fleming Bros.—Gentlemen:—In consequence of the great consumption of your Worm Specific in this place and vicinity, we feared that our stock would be exhausted, and we should feel obliged to refer you to our N. Y., twenty dozen, with your bill, on the reception of which we will remit you the money.
From the wonderful effects of said Specific in this neighborhood, there could be said annually a large quantity, it to be had, (wholesale and retail) from some local agent. If you could compensate a person for trouble and expense of mailing, I think it could be to your advantage to do so. Yours, respectfully,

Allegany County Fair.
The Fair of the Allegany County Agricultural Society was held last week. The articles on exhibition received high praise; but these were comparatively few. Our manufacturers, gardeners, farmers, and stock raisers were very slimly represented, although the attendance of visitors was good. Over $5,000 were received for admission fees, and the revenue for permits to sell confectionaries, drinks, meals, &c., and for service shows, must have been considerable. But on the whole, the fair is admitted to have been a failure. For several years our County Fair has been retrograding. To account for this, several reasons have been suggested, but the principal to the indifference of our manufacturers and farmers; but this is not true, to nearly as great extent. The want of proper qualifications on the part of the judges, and no small degree of favoritism, has been charged, we know not with what truth. Again it is said, and we believe with good reason, that a few individuals about the cities, who have but little else to do than keep and train a "fast" horse, or raise a few fine specimens of poultry, have excluded the farmers and actual producers from all proper means of competition. And the disposition to turn our fairs into race courses has certainly been a great mistake. The very people upon whom the success of an Agricultural Fair must depend, will not condescend for any great length of time such a procedure.

But this is not all. Managers this year gave permits, upon a proper consideration being paid, to erect quite a number of drinking booths within the enclosure. This would not have been tolerated for a moment in the earlier days of the Society, and we are grieved to note this degen-eration in the management. People do not wish to exhibit the products of their shops or farms, in competition with lager beer. Nor do parents wish to take their families where the ears of their children will be soiled by the oaths of drunken men, and where they will be surrounded them pouring intoxicating liquors down their throats.

AMERICAN JOURNALISM.—There are now printed within the Union not less than four thousand newspapers, at least five hundred of them daily, and five hundred semi-weekly. The average circulation we estimate at one thousand each for the dailies, twenty-five hundred for the semi-weeklies, and fifteen hundred for the weeklies making a total circulation in this country of more than four hundred millions of newspaper sheets per annum. Yet in 1818—less than half a century ago—the total circulation of newspapers in this country was estimated by Isaac Thomas, in his "History of Printing," at only a little more than twenty million of sheets per annum. At that time there were three hundred and fifty-nine newspapers, of which twenty-seven only were daily. What an advance in less than half a century!

feared that our stock would be exhausted, and
we should feel obliged to refer you to our
N. Y., twenty dozen, with your bill, on the reception of which we will remit you the money.
From the wonderful effects of said Specific in
tage to do so. Yours, respectfully,
Wm. M. MALLORY,
For W. E. Foster.

Purchasers will be careful to look for Dr. M'LANE'S Genuine Vermifuge, manufactured by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa. All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. Dr. M'LANE'S genuine Vermifuge, also his Celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS.

comparatively few. Our manufacturers, garden-
was good. Over $5,000 were received for admission fees, and the revenue for permits to sell
a failure. For several years our County Fair
to the indifference of our manufacturers and farm-
favoritism, has been charged, we know not with
length of time such a procedure.

FRANCE.
The Emperor Napoleon and the Empress Eugenie were in the city of Paris on the 13th inst. They were met by a vast multitude of people, and were received with the most enthusiastic demonstrations.
