Read This Twice. - A writer in the Bib. ical Recorder says: "One of the first evidences of a decline in religion is an inlifference to the religious newspaper. I have sat in churches where scores of members have been excluded. Massachusetts Election.

The vote in fifty-two cities and towns foot up as follows: - For Andrew, Republican, 18,371 Davis, Democrat, 9,211. The returns from the other towns will probably continue at this ratio of two to one against Davis. One Democrat is probably elected to the State Senate from Boston. The Legislature is strongly Republican. Caleb Cushing is elected to the Legislature from Newburyport. The chief interest of the elec-tion was in Burlingame's old district, the seat in Congress having been made vacant by the resignation of the Hon. Wm. Appleton. Samuel Hooper, Republican candidate, is elected over G. P. Upton, Democrat, by nine hundred majority. Charles G. Loving, of Boston, and ex-Governor Clifford, of New Bedford, are both elected to the State Senate, on the Republican ticket.

The Removal of General Fremont.

That Gen. Fremont is to be superseded has been noised abroad, in all the daily papers for some time, but at the time of writing this no official notice of such procedure has been given. The political papers say that the grounds of his removal are comprised in statements made by Adjutant-General Thomas, in his reply to a request of the Secretary of War, concerning this matter. Below we give the summary of these statements, as made by the Philadelphia North American. But the friends of Gen. Fremont characterize this as a most unfair procedure, and say that he can suucessfully refute every allegation of Gen. Thomas, or anybody else. We give no opinion-merely the news:

The Report of Adjutant-General Thomas, on Gen. Fremont's administration of affairs in Missouri, is very severe and condemnatory. It mentions numerous facts going to show the want of military foresight on the part of Gen. Fremont, in directing the necessary means for putting into, and maintaining in the field, the forces under his command. It says:

Gen. Hunter expressed, to the Secretary of War, his decided opinion that Gen. Fremont was incompetent, and unfit for his extensive and important command. This opinion he gave reluc of animals and plants. He often employed tantly, for the reason that he held the position of second in command.

Gen. Hunter also stated that although the second in command, he never was consulted by Gen. Fremont, and never knew anything of his intentions. Such a parallel I will venture to assert cannot be found in the annals of military warfare. I have also been informed that there is not a Missourian on his staff—not a man acquainted personally with the topography and the physical characteristics of the country or its Major General U. S. A. The feeling ran intensely high during the whole of last evening, and there were meetings almost everywhere. The various bands serenaded the General, and wherever he appeared he was greeted with cheers. Though after notifying Gen. Hunter, as his order directed, he had no longer command over the troops, he spent several hours in making a personal examination of the ground about the city, to be prepared for a bat-tle, and in accordance with a written request from all the Brigadier-Generals here, he remained through the night to lead the army in case of an attack. All the troops slept on their arms, many officers remained up all night, and an attack was hourly expected, but nothing more oc-curred than the firing on our pickets in two different roads. The enemy are now encamped on the old Wilson Creek battle-ground. Gen. Fremont is ready to leave for St. Louis, and will go as soon as Gen. Pope arrives; who has been sent forward, and will take command till Gen. Hunter gets here. Universal gloom prevails throughout the camp. A battle will, undoubtedly, occur ere long. The troops will meet the enemy firmly, but they are disheartened and have lost their enthusiasm. General McClellan at the Head of the Army of the United States.

In another column we notice the resignation of Lieut. General Scott, the veteran commander of our armies. The resignation being accepted, the President, with the unanimous agreement of the Cabinet, appointed Major General McClellan his successor in the command. The latter, in accepting the important position, issued the followng order:

The Persia brings foreign news to the 27th ult., Her advices are not yet fully received. The following shows the nature of the allied nterference with Mexico:

The Syndicate of Commerce at Paris held a neeting on the 8th inst., at which a petition was ecided upon to the effect that the intervention in Mexico should not be left exclusively in the hands of Spain, but that France should cooperate, and that for this purpose the expeditionary force should be instructed to penetrate into the interior, and act in Mexico. A deputation, bearers of the petition, had an interview on the 9th with M. de Thouvenel, who assured them that all measures are going to be taken to secure French interests in that country.

As I have informed you, common action by the three Powers in the Mexican affairs have been resolved upon. Some time ago the only question was about the nature of the intervention liant career. Continue as you have begun, and give to my successor the same cordial and ennamely, whether France should, like England, confine her action to a purely maritime expedition, and the occupation of some towns on the coast, or whether she should cooperate in the expedition into the interior, on which Spain seems to have been bent. The latter view has seems to have been bent. The latter view has gained the upper hand, for orders have been given to increase the squadron, which, as you will remember, was to have consisted, like the English that I shall not have the honor to lead you to the victory which you are just about to me. cific squadrons. The Monde contains some details about the ature of the expedition by land, which I send 1. In the naval expedition all powers are to cooperate. 2. An expeditionary force of 6,000 men, composed of French and Spaniards, is to penetrate into the heart of the country. Maritime Custom-houses are to be regulated, and the proceeds of them divided among the claimants whose claims have been liquidated, and an appeal made to the people to govern the country under the joint protectorate. 4. A mixed commission is to be established in Mexico itself, to regulate the indemnities due to Europeans. Some of the Madrid journals of the 10th state that the demands which Spain makes on Mexico are these: 1. Ample satisfaction for the dismissal of the Spanish Ambassador, the said satisfaction to consist in sending a special represen-tive of the Republic to Madrid to offer excuses. 2. The formal recognition of the Mon Almonte treaty, and the payment of claims which have arisen since it was suspended. 3. The punishment of the persons who have ill-treated or wronged Spanish subjects, and an indemnity for the capture of the frigate Concepcion; and 4, guarantees for the fulfillment of these conditions. in the event of Mexico not consenting to accord these demands, the Spanish fleet and troops are, say the journals, to seize Vera Cruz or Tampico The ex-President of the Republic of Mexico Gen. The London Daily News, in commenting on a speech of Earl Russell, on American affairs, says: We cannot find fault with the Noble Lord for expressing his concern for the interests of freedom in America as they are affected by this war. No candid American will find in his speech anything but the kindest feeling and the best wishes ham and Schenck had got in his rear, and it was for his country. The anxiety which he confesses American freedom. Our only regret is that the Noble Lord having said so much did not carry his thoughts further. We do not object to see this war described as one for empire on the one hand, and for independence on the other, it be England has done some service in the cause of the independence of Nations, and she hopes to do more; because independence, although distinct in its nature from the desire of moral and social progress has tion and means. It is so wherever men are ingenuous and uncorrupted.

On Thursday evening, October 24th, in Allegheny City, by Rev. Dr. Paxton, Alexander Quall, of Washington County, 2a., to Miss Cordella, daughter of R. W. Poindexter.

She was a sincere and bumble Christian, and had in death mprovements of; the place. He had been a member of the Presbyterian Church for many years, was a devoted Christian, a kind father, and affectionate husband. His seat in church was never vacant, except when sick or alent from home. He had a large circle of friends and acnaintances, and was loved and esteemed by all who knew

DIED—On Monday morning, September 9th; at Princeton, Iowa, SAMUEL SMITH PATTERSON, only son of Dr. Thomas and Beckie M. Galt, aged 2 years and 2 months. "Stay, scraph! Mistaken love would keep thee still, To drain the bitter cup of mortal ill; Stay, till this rebel heart submissive bends, And frames an anthem as thy soul ascends. "T is done! The cord is loosed that held thee down?"

Go, for thy Saviour calls—go, wear thy crown."

DIED — September 2d, of dysentery, Mr. ANDREW RICHEY, of Ebenezer, Indiana County, Pa., aged 51 years, months, 24 days. In the death of Mr. Ritchey, the community has lost an enterprising citizen, the Church a warm supporter, his pas-tor a firm and faithful friend; while his family mourn the loss of one who was an affectionate husband, a kind and tender father. Though the summons came in the midst of a life of usefulness, to him it was not unexpected. From the very commencement of his sickness he seemed positive that he would not recover. Calling around him his family, he hade them put their trust in God, and expressed his willing. ness to depart and be with Christ. In speaking of death, a short time before his departure, he said it was only going home. Those who witnessed his calm composure and cheerful resignation might well say, "Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his." TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN. Take notice that an application has been made by the Old School Presbyterian congregation of East Liberty, in the County of Allegheny, to the Court of Common Pleas of said County, for a Charter of Incorporation, under articles and conditions as filed at No. 113 of December term, 7861, in said Court; and if no sufficient reason be shown; to the contrary, the Court will, at its next (December) term, degree and declare, that said congregation shall become and be a corporation or body politic, by the name, style, and title of "THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF EAST LIBERTY," in accordance with said articles, and according to the Act of FIRST PRESETTERIAN ORDINAL ASSESSMENT OF THE Act of accordance with said articles, and according to the Act of Assembly in such case made and provided.

n all the leading topics of the day, both Religious and Sec ilar. All the various subjects that present themselves for onsideration, and that are worthy the attention of intelligent and Christian people, are discussed from the Christian stand-point, and in the comprehensive spirit of Christian charity and enlarged benevolence. From the beginning of our present National troubles, this paper, while allying itself with no political party, has taken high and fearless ground in favor of the Constitution and the regularly ordained Government, and of the preservation of the integrity of the Union. Its utterances have been firm and decided, and they will continue to be such until the spirit of rebellion has been entirely quenched; and our Government once more firmly established.
