THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, for October, is very able. The style is usual in popular and attractive, but the matter is weighty. Rarely do we open a review that has so much food for inquiry and thought.

PASTORAL COUNSELS FOR THE TIMES.—The Duty of the Christian in our National Affliction. A Sermon preached in the Seventh Presbyterian Church, Broadway, Cincinnati, November 24, 1861. By G. D. C.

FOR THE LADIES. Crooked Spines in Girls. It is a sad fact that nearly every young lady in fashionable life has a crooked spine.

It is not so very long that I am good? Should I be another way better? Impatience would.

The Social Horror. An untidy woman! Little soap and much perfume. Plenty of jewelry and a lack of strings and buttons.

Historical. Julian, the Apostle. When an English nobleman (a worthy and excellent person, by the by) is known to have referred to the miserable renegade whose name appears at the head of this article as "Julian, the Apostle," it may be taken for granted that the speaker is ignorant of Church history.

FOR THE YOUNG. What Kindness Did. Many years ago a certain minister in the United States of America was going one Sunday morning from his house to his school-room.
