Original: A Union Song. We meet at freedom's altar, Our faith around us bright, We seek the brave old banner, With stars and stripes so bright.

brethren, we would ask, who has chosen your present sphere of labor—yourself or Christ? If you have chosen for yourself, in what capacity you shall serve, is it not manifest, if the principle assumed be a valid one, that you have usurped one of Christ's own prerogatives?

the Banner. Did I not greatly desire to preserve the papers, I would continue to send them; or had I the means to pay for another copy, I should take great pleasure in sending for another one for him.

Household Baby. What a joy to human eyes, When it laughs, or when it cries; What a treasure, what an prize, Is the household baby!

perceive, our project is but in the infancy. Any suggestion you offer will be welcome, whether with reference to the project itself, or to the best means of carrying it out.

land ahead of England—88 per cent. of the men married, and 73 per cent. of the women were able to sign the Register.

kidnapping, surely the English ought to do so too. RAGGED SCHOOLS continue to do a great work in the metropolis. The Lord Mayor took the chair at a recent meeting in Upper Holloway.

Are You Called to the Ministry? The duty of every Christian to examine himself whether he be in the faith, is one of universal acknowledgment among the people of God.
