PITTSBURGH, SATURDAY, APRIL 5, 1862.

HOME AND FOREIGN RECORD. The number for April appears with the usual promptitude, and in improved cheerfulness.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS. The pecuniary condition of this Board is not restored, that they propose to return to their former custom of granting commissions for a year, where Presbyteries deem that aid will be so long needed.

TEN CENT STAMPS. Our friends will please not send us these, nor any of the large stamps. We cannot use them, and our Postmaster will not exchange for them.

The Third Presbyterian. Under this title, Messrs. A. DAVISON & Co. propose to publish, at Louisville, Ky., a weekly religious journal, and the editorial care of Rev. STUART ROBINSON and Rev. ROBERT MORRISON.

Stenboville Female Seminary. The Catalogue for 1862 shows an attendance of one hundred and three scholars during the Winter term. The examination took place last week and was highly creditable.

Western Theological Seminary. The Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary will meet in the chapel on Wednesday, April 16th, at 2 o'clock P. M.

On Tuesday evening, the address before the Society of Inquiry will be delivered by the Rev. JOSIAH D. SMITH, D. D., of Columbus, Ohio, in the First Presbyterian church, Allegheny City.

On Wednesday noon, an address will be delivered to the students, by the Chairman of the Examining Committee, in the chapel.

On Thursday evening, addresses by members of the Graduating Class, and also a Farewell Address, by a member of the Faculty, in the First Presbyterian church, Pittsburgh.

Contributions to the Board of Co-Portage during the month of March. Fairfield congregation, Erie Presby., $2.80; Glade Run cong., Saltsburg Presby., for soldiers, $2.00; Cross Roads cong., Blairsville Presby., for soldiers, $5.25; Rural Valley cong., Saltsburg Presby., for soldiers, $10.00; Georgetown cong., Erie Presby., for soldiers, $2.00; Pokes Run cong., Blairsville Presby., for the sick and wounded in D. Donelson, $15.00; Rev. Dr. Paxton, to send tracts to the prisoners in Chicago, $2.50.

These generous donations have enabled the Board to send 311 selected volumes, and 9,760 pages of tracts, to the 4th Penna. Cavalry, the 73rd Penna. Vol., the sick and wounded in Ft. Donelson and at Fort Ripley, and the Southern prisoners in Chicago.

THE PRESBYTERIAN HERALD. REV. W. W. HILL, D. D.

The Presbyterian Herald, published by Rev. W. W. HILL, D. D., at Louisville, Ky., for nearly twenty years, has ceased to exist, under this name, it having been transferred to others, and its name changed.

Dr. HILL's editorial, concerning the columns which bearing and industry. Its editorials evinced a superior mind. He will carry with him to his retirement the high esteem and good wishes of the editorial fraternity.

PUBLICATION. The Record gives some interesting letters from correspondents in Italy. RECEIPTS in February: donations, $4,406; sales, $4,871.

CHURCH EXTENSION. Rev. D. L. HUGHES, who preaches part of his time at Plattsburgh, N. T., says: "We are badly in need of a church edifice in Plattsburgh, not only for ministerial support, and congregational convenience and comfort in the worship of God, but also for congregational growth and efficiency. I have been laboring three or four years, often at very great inconvenience, having been compelled to change our place of preaching, five or six times from shanty to shanty, and from store-room to store-room."

PARIS, JAN. 31, 1862. Rev. Dr. MCCLINTOCK, minister of the American Chapel, at Paris, sends to the Christian World, the following very interesting letter:

DEAR BROTHER BAIRD: The Blue Book just issued by the French Government, throws a clear light upon the relations now existing between the Pope and the people. On the one hand, the French Government has sought, for months past, to bring the Pope to recognize accomplished facts—to see Italy as it is, and to act accordingly. On the other hand, the Pope shows that the Roman power has learned nothing and forgotten nothing. To every representation from Turin and Paris, the Pope has not only answered "Non possumus," nothing could be more kind, and at the same time more adroit, than the terms in which M. Thouvenin, in his letter of Jan. 11th, 1862, proposes to the Pope to submit to the inexorable logic of facts.

EDUCATION. This Board wants $100,000 yet, before the close of April, to meet their obligation to the nearly five hundred young men recommended by Presbyteries, and now under the Board's care. Will not the leaders of the people strive to have this amount forwarded in season?

FOREIGN MISSIONS. The receipts of this Board for ten months fall short of the amount for the same months last year, $8,000; that its legacies are short $5,000, and churches $9,000.

Japan. Dr. HERRING refers to the need of Christian books for the Japanese, but the missionaries have not yet had time to learn the language thoroughly, so that they were prepared to meet their obligation to the nearly five hundred young men recommended by Presbyteries, and now under the Board's care.

arm, and have peace. War, and its sorrow will not continue a day beyond their pleasure. Whenever the rebellion shall cease, people and States may look for their rights, as at former times. Only rebels, or we might say, only instigators and leaders in the rebellion, need fear.

EASTERN SUMMARY. BOSTON AND NEW ENGLAND. THE PUBLISHING BUSINESS has not yet recovered from the check received by the outbreak of the rebellion; still, leading houses, like those of Gould & Lincoln, and Ticknor & Fields, are occasionally bringing out books of standard character.

THE FIRST ORGAN ever heard in this country, was sent from London to King's Chapel, in Boston, in 1714. The first made in this country was by Edward Bromfield, of Boston, about the middle of the last century.

materials for a complete treatise on this fundamental Christian doctrine, which at his sudden decease were left as now published, complete, but not precisely in the form the author would have given them had his life been spared.

MESSRS. SHIELDON & Co., than which there is not a more enterprising or reliable publishing house in the country, have begun their new issue of the noble "River-side Editions." They have just brought out "Hallam's Constitutional History of England," from the accession of Henry VII. to the death of George II. in three volumes; a work that should be in every well selected library, and that is of special interest and value at the present time.

THE BUSINESS OF THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, of the Episcopal Church in this city, the most richly endowed, institution, theological or literary, with the exception of Harvard College, in the United States, has been so badly managed that all the available personal property is gone, and the landed estate worth, in ordinary times, $400,000 or $500,000, is in a great measure unproductive.
