Where they Rest. In a little valley followed From the mountain's verdant crest, Far above the ocean's level, Just beneath the vaulted heaven.

Now the little "Pleasant Valley" In a pure white robe is dressed; And the winds in solemn measures, Chant their dirge, and wondrous treasures.

KEEPING RELIGION TO ONE'S SELF. "What do you think of Mr. L.'s religion," said one to his neighbor, as they were on their way home from a public meeting.

Mr. L. was a member of the church. He was pretty regular in his attendance upon public worship on Sabbath morning.

He did not keep his politics to himself. He was an earnest politician. He seldom met a man without having something to say on some political topic.

He did not keep his business to himself. He did not talk about his business when there was no cause for so doing.

THE SECESSION WOMEN. Females are generally patriotic. Right or wrong, they will side with their husbands, fathers, and brothers.

AN APPEAL.—Soldiers of the South! are your hearts not quickened by the many urgent and repeated calls of "the children, wives, and grand-children hoary?"
