

Poetry.

The Hurricane. BY WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT. Lord of the winds! I feel thee nigh!

And lo! on the wings of the heavy gales, Through the shadowy arch of heaven he sails;

They darken fast; and the golden haze Of the sun is quenched in the lurid blaze.

What roar is that? 'Tis the rain that breaks In torrents away from the airy lakes, Heavily poured on the shuddering ground, And a shuddering nameless horror round.

Literary Notices.

LECTURES ON MORAL SCIENCE. By Mark Hopkins, D. D., LL. D., President of Williams College.

From the days of Pythagoras down to the present time, the subject of Moral Philosophy has engaged the attention of thinking minds.

With Dr. Hopkins' work we are highly pleased. The subject under consideration is discussed in a judicious manner.

THE LAST DAY OF OUR LORD'S PASSION. By Rev. William Hanna, LL. D., New York: Robert Carter & Brothers.

Those who have read Dr. Hanna's Memoirs of the Saviour, will not be surprised to find in this volume a narrative of the last day of our Saviour's Passion.

THE TUBERCLE. By J. M. Stroud, M. D. The tubercle is a disease of the lungs, and is one of the most common causes of death.

THE WOODMAN'S NANNETTE. By the Author of "The Blue Flag," etc. The volume before us belongs to Carter's Fireside Library.

CHEERFUL GIBBERLY. By the Author of "The Blue Flag," etc. The volume before us belongs to Carter's Fireside Library.

of the American Tract Society. They are gotten up in a style so attractive that their very appearance will impress the young in their favor.

We have also received from the Philadelphia depository of the Tract Society a small package of tracts called "Leaflets for Letters."

For the Young.

To Little Children. A little boy named Homer McKee Forsyth, died on the 28th of October, near Lewistown, Pa.

"The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want, He makes me down to lie In pastures green; he leadeth me The quiet waters by."

"Yes, though I walk in death's dark vale, Yet will I fear none ill, For thou art with me, and thy rod And staff me comfort still."

Then he wanted to say a verse of a hymn so many little children have sung; but he was too weak to do it, and his mother repeated it for him:

"Around the throne of God in heaven, Children whose sins are all forgiven— A holy, happy band."

He left a number of parting counsels to little boys he knew, exhorting them to love Jesus. And then, as that "tired feeling" children so often talk of just before they die, came over him, he said, "Now, ma, I'll take a big rest."

Fit for Tat.

"Girls ain't anybody!" With which sage remark Walter and his cousin Edward vanished up the garret stairs.

"Now, Sue Priest, you little silly! before I'll cry for them! I guess we can get along without their help!"

"O, Uncle James!" and both sprang toward him. "Yes, I'm Uncle James; but the question is, who wants to ride?"

"Indeed!" Well, bundle up, Miss Mid got for it isn't Summer. Put on all you've got in the wrapper line.

"Why, don't you and Sue ever play alone?" "O, yes, sir; but they were going to have such a splendid time."

"Why, Annie, it seems 'most too bad not to tell them." "Tell them? I guess I shan't!"

"Well, you didn't bring along your cavaliers! Couldn't you get them to come?" said Uncle James, as the girls came down stairs.

"We didn't try, Uncle James." Annie spoke quickly, she feared that Sue would stand her ground.

"How I wish he wouldn't look at me in a style so attractive that their very appearance will impress the young in their favor."

Raccoon Fall was about five miles from Annie's house, and Sue, who was on a visit there, had only seen it in Summer.

"That's it!"—Lieutenant De Kay was dying, in New Orleans, of his wound received in capturing that city.

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"No, I'm not laughing at me," said Sue with a troubled face. "Did I say anything queer?"

"No, I'm not laughing at me," said Sue with a troubled face. "Did I say anything queer?"

"No, I'm not laughing at me," said Sue with a troubled face. "Did I say anything queer?"

"No, I'm not laughing at me," said Sue with a troubled face. "Did I say anything queer?"

"No, I'm not laughing at me," said Sue with a troubled face. "Did I say anything queer?"

"No, I'm not laughing at me," said Sue with a troubled face. "Did I say anything queer?"

"No, I'm not laughing at me," said Sue with a troubled face. "Did I say anything queer?"

"No, I'm not laughing at me," said Sue with a troubled face. "Did I say anything queer?"

"No, I'm not laughing at me," said Sue with a troubled face. "Did I say anything queer?"

"No, I'm not laughing at me," said Sue with a troubled face. "Did I say anything queer?"

"No, I'm not laughing at me," said Sue with a troubled face. "Did I say anything queer?"

to avoid knowing or learning about evil; especially when neither duty nor necessity oblige them thereto."

Property.—Competence is desirable, and is that at which you should aim.

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

the base covers eleven acres. The stones are about 60 feet in length, and the layers are 208. It employed 330,000 men in building.

Properly.—Competence is desirable, and is that at which you should aim.

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

"That is not a very good plan for me to bring up a barrel and get some of those ice-creams!"

Presbyterian Banner, WEEKLY NEWSPAPER. Published at PITTSBURGH, PA., BY REV. DAVID M'KINNEY.

THIS IS A LARGE RELIGIOUS NEWSPAPER. EXCELLENT PAPER, AND IN SUPERIOR STYLE.

Editorial. On all the leading topics of the day, both Religious and Secular. All the various subjects that present themselves for consideration, and that are worthy the attention of intelligent and Christian people, are discussed from the Christian standpoint, and in the comprehensive spirit of Christian charity and benevolence.

European Correspondence. is unequalled by any other American journal, in breadth of view, reliability, and general usefulness. It is a complete history of the progress of affairs in Europe, that is invaluable.

Eastern Summary. gives a complete view of business, opinion, religious concerns, and matters and things in general, in NEW-ENGLAND, NEW-YORK, AND PHILADELPHIA.

Contributors. are some of the best newspaper writers in the Church.

Occasional Correspondents. in all parts of the land.

Domestic and Foreign News. is prepared with much care and labor. And just now the news in the daily papers is often so uncertain and contradictory that the weekly papers can give by far the most reliable news for the public, since the opportunity for sifting and correction is allowed.

Personal. the most interesting notices connected with individuals of note, whether dead or living, are published.

Varieties. are given the results of Scientific, Travel, Discovery, Statistical Information, &c. of most value to the public.

Selections. from books, magazines, and other newspapers, are given for the Christian, the parent, the scholar, the student, and the children.

Claims of the Garden and the Farm. forgotten; but much of the information needed for both is regularly presented.

REV. DAVID M'KINNEY, PRESBYTERIAN BANNER, PITTSBURGH, PA. BOARD OF COLPORTAGE. In Renshaw's New Buildings, 67 Hand Street, PITTSBURGH, PA.

To Obtain Fresh-Blown Flowers in Winter. Choose some of the most perfect buds of the flowers you would preserve, such as anemone, carnation, &c., and ready to open; cut them off with a pair of scissors, leaving as much as possible, a piece of the stem about three inches long; cover the end of the stem immediately with sealing-wax; and when the buds are a little shrunk and wrinkled, wrap each of them up separately in a piece of paper, perfectly clean and dry, and seal them up in a dry box or drawer.

REV. DAVID M'KINNEY, PRESBYTERIAN BANNER, PITTSBURGH, PA. BOARD OF COLPORTAGE. In Renshaw's New Buildings, 67 Hand Street, PITTSBURGH, PA.

JOHN A. RENSHAW, Family Grocer and Tea Dealer. Takes pleasure in announcing to his friends and custom that he has recently removed to the new and spacious warehouse, Corner of Liberty and Hand Streets, (A few doors above his old stand.)

CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES. And having largely increased his stock by recent purchase offers to the public the most extensive and complete assortment to be found in this city.

MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN HATS, Caps, and Straw Goods, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL. 111 WOOD STREET, PITTSBURGH.

THE PITTSBURGH WATER CURE ESTABLISHMENT. is delightfully situated on the banks of the Allegheny River, West of the city. We have treated many hundreds of cases of nearly every kind of disease.

TO INVALIDS. Do Not Despair Until You Have Tried the Water Cure. THE PITTSBURGH WATER CURE ESTABLISHMENT.

THE AMERICAN SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION. FOR DISTRIBUTION. The $10 Sunday School Libraries for distribution as per legacy in will of late Rev. B. B. Brainerd.

PERSONAL. the most interesting notices connected with individuals of note, whether dead or living, are published.

Varieties. are given the results of Scientific, Travel, Discovery, Statistical Information, &c. of most value to the public.

Selections. from books, magazines, and other newspapers, are given for the Christian, the parent, the scholar, the student, and the children.

Claims of the Garden and the Farm. forgotten; but much of the information needed for both is regularly presented.

REV. DAVID M'KINNEY, PRESBYTERIAN BANNER, PITTSBURGH, PA. BOARD OF COLPORTAGE. In Renshaw's New Buildings, 67 Hand Street, PITTSBURGH, PA.

To Obtain Fresh-Blown Flowers in Winter. Choose some of the most perfect buds of the flowers you would preserve, such as anemone, carnation, &c., and ready to open; cut them off with a pair of scissors, leaving as much as possible, a piece of the stem about three inches long; cover the end of the stem immediately with sealing-wax; and when the buds are a little shrunk and wrinkled, wrap each of them up separately in a piece of paper, perfectly clean and dry, and seal them up in a dry box or drawer.

REV. DAVID M'KINNEY, PRESBYTERIAN BANNER, PITTSBURGH, PA. BOARD OF COLPORTAGE. In Renshaw's New Buildings, 67 Hand Street, PITTSBURGH, PA.

To Obtain Fresh-Blown Flowers in Winter. Choose some of the most perfect buds of the flowers you would preserve, such as anemone, carnation, &c., and ready to open; cut them off with a pair of scissors, leaving as much as possible, a piece of the stem about three inches long; cover the end of the stem immediately with sealing-wax; and when the buds are a little shrunk and wrinkled, wrap each of them up separately in a piece of paper, perfectly clean and dry, and seal them up in a dry box or drawer.

REV. DAVID M'KINNEY, PRESBYTERIAN BANNER, PITTSBURGH, PA. BOARD OF COLPORTAGE. In Renshaw's New Buildings, 67 Hand Street, PITTSBURGH, PA.