The War.

We have exciting news respecting army movements. The army of Gen. Hooker is ncross the Rappahannuck, except one corps, the Third, under Gen. Sickels, which rethe corps, under Gen. Sedgwick, the First commanded by Gen. Reynolds, and the Sixth by Gen. Newton, crossed on the 28th at and below the place where Gen. Franklin crossed last December, being about three miles below Fredericksburg. Three corps, directly under Gen. Hooker, viz., the Twelfth commanded by Gen. Slocum, crossed some twenty-six miles above Fredericksburg, at Kelly's Ford. The crossings were made on pontoon bridges; that at Kelly's without loss; that below Fredericksburg with a loss of about eighty men. Several hundred prisoners were taken from the enemy. Kelly's Ford is near the crosments or effecting an easy retreat.

The reports of movements are numerous, but not consistent, the one with the ous, but not consistent, the one with the grounds. May this generous people be other. From our Western armies we have no very important tidings; but what we have are favorable. The rebel advance into Missouri seems to be a great failure.

Affairs in Tennessee seem to be unchanged, except that the plot thickens. Rosecrans and Bragg are watching each other, neither being strong enough to assail the other's position.

A large force of Grant's army has marched from Millikin's Bend, above Vicksburg, to New Carthage, below that city. Another, that a shell struck within thirty feet of him when he was riding. Another, that our cavalry were tearing up railroad tracks in the rebel lines, destroying rebel property, and crossing their country, creating consternation and dismay where they have made their raids. Another, that our forces on the right drove the rebels three miles on Friday, then fell back and planted batteries at intervals, which mowed down the pressing and deluded rebels like grass before the scythe. Another, that we advanced more than one mile yesterday, compelling the rebels to fall back, and that we are still driving them with terrible slaughter to them and a com

PHILADELPHIA, April 5.—The Washington Republican, extra, says: In consequence of the reported dashing operations of General Stoneman on the line of the railroad to Richmond, Gen. Lee could not ingloriously fly, but was compelled to come out from behind his defences and fight Hooker on his own ground, selected at Chancellorsville, about ten miles southwest of Fredericksburg. The battle lasted most of the day on Saturceased for two hours. At four o'clock fighting again commenced, and continued until 10 o'clock yesterday forenoon, when the enemy's batteries became silent, and the wildest cheering commenced on our extreme right and ran along the whole lines.

When our informant left, the prevailing opinion was, that the enemy's ammunition was exhausted, or they had been attacked by Hooker's left wing, the force under Sedgwick, which crossed below Fredericksburg. Another gentleman, who was with our forces in Fredericksburg, says that Gen. Sedgwick succeeded in reaching the key to the whole line of monster rebel works in Fredericksburg before day dawned yesterday (Sunday) morning. The ebels immediately opened a most terrific fire. At the first shock, some of the regiments wav-ered at seeing their commanding officers falling around them. But the skilful and dashing Col. Sharlery, by his cool daring and personal example, rallied the column, and led it into the rebel works, carrying the key, and with it the whole line, at bayonet charge, with a yell heard above the shock of arms.

As soon as the principal work—the key—was carried, about 11 o'clock yesterday forencon, the whole rebel force in and around Fredericksburg made a hasty retreat out upon the plank road toward Chancellorsville, in the direction of Lee's

DIED On Monday afternoon, March 30th, 1868, at his residence near Temperanceville, Mr. ROBERT SNODGRASS, in the 68th year

In the death of Mr. Snodgrass the church and the community have suffered a sore bareavement. Few men in their sphere were better or more favorably known. As a man, as a Christian, as an elder, his conversation was as becometh the Gospel of Christ. He was always "ready to every good work," and as an officer in Christ's house, was greatly efficient for good. Elected a Ruling Elder in the Mt. Pisgah church in 1831, he ever after served in that capacity, being at the time of his death an elder in the church of Temperanceville. He loved Zion and labored for her advancement. He preferred Jerusalem above his chief joy. Nothing pleased him more than to see sinners turning to Christ. and his dying desire was that all his dear friends might be saved through atoning blood. As it was "Christ" for him "to live," so it was gain. He has gone to his God, and his home on high. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's Getman Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chieff an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my triend for directing me to the use of them.
