| YITTSBURGH, JANUARY $9,1863$. |
| :---: |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
| At Knoxville, tho army is now treas ring up supplies by way of the Tennessee iver, mainly. |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
| To raise their army in the conscripted all able-bodid |
|  |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
| ard to age, including those who have alfurnished substitutes; and also in ding foreign residents, giving foreigners |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
| hat kind of recruits will he have from the要 call; and what numbers? While all wastigg from the Nort, great and la |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
| ate that $$ 200,000,000$ of currency is all |
| Lions. This is a wrise conolusion, and |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
| ey will surely decrease in value, near as much as they multiply in their minal extent. |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
| anty-five per cent., pajable in kind. is would reduce the nominal amount,i would appreciate the residue. But all |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
| Lond Lxons, the British Minister at fashington, has written home, that theIr will be ended in three months after the |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |

|  | PRESBYTERIAN |
| :---: | :---: |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| The State Rights. |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| the State Rights prineiple. In my judg- |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| ples the defence and vinalication of the Constitutional rigbts of the States against the tendency to encroachment by the Fed- eral power, and any tendency of either to |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| ma is the antagonism of the State Rightsdoctrine. It is a libel on that doctrine toconsider them synonyms. Secession is theoverthrow of the Constitution. |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| $\begin{aligned} & \text { es of Government, it is the incumbent duty } \\ & \text { of every loyal citizen to sustain the Con- } \\ & \text { stitutional arm of Government in all its } \end{aligned}$ |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| sas: |  |
| "At the commencement of the war noone foresaw the extent to which it wouldbe carried. It was not expected that we |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| $\begin{aligned} & \text { Whole outer world, while we were shut in } \\ & \text { to our own soil and resources. Our pro- } \\ & \text { ducts were thought essential to the rest of } \\ & \text { mankind, and it was believed that they } \end{aligned}$ |  |
|  |  |
| would come and buy them."No strange thing happened to Mr. Mem- |  |
|  |  |
| minger and his friends, in the utter failure of their expectatipns. They set out on awild projeet, and they reasoned on false assumptions, and inconclusively. If wisdom should return, they will lay down the weapons of their rebellion |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  | detarrico |
| Gfireral flel |  |
|  | On Thursday, December 24th, by Rev. W. P.Moore, Mr. John Weslay GarDiner to MissSadir J. Sibberdy. On the same day, Mr. Sadir J.Conrab Sof Oil City |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| Brathentis Mraxine, |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| some, though the Mercury remained several de- grees below the freezing point. On Monday and Tuesday snow fell, affording a prospect of slaigh- |  |
|  |  |
| \% |  |
|  |  |
| This road is intended to connect Pittsburghwith Baltimore. The route to be taken, East ofthe Mountaing, has been long in dispute: A few |  |
|  |  |
| years ago a large amount of ite stock, more than half, was bught very low, by the Baltimore and |  |
| the Connelisville. A late decision in the U. B.Court affirms the validity of the aale, and puts | (1) bituary. |
|  |  |
| Agent of that road. The road is in use fromPittsburgh.to. Connellaville; and we see the state- |  |
|  |  |
| there to oonneot with the Baltimore and Ohio,  with all practieable expedition |  Co., Pa. |
|  |  |
| The Norti British Review  For November, 1868 , contains: 1. On the An- cient Glaciers and Icebergs of Scotland; 2. The |  |
| diele |  |
| ical Subscription in the Church of England; 6 .A Voyage to Alexandria and A Glimpss of |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |

