PRESBYTERIAN BANNER.---WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16, 1864.

Arkansas announcing that over twelve thousand of the inhabitants have taken the oath prescribed in his annesty proclamation, preparatory to the reconstruction of the State government on the one-tenth principle.

Congressional.-Congress has been for some time discussing the propriety of allowing Secre tary Chase to dispose of the gold in the treasury, in order to stop the immense speculations by the gold gamblers. The first bill was defeated. the gold gamblers. The hast bin was detented, and the immediate consequence was an alarming rise in the price of gold. But the Senate has passed a bill to which the House will most prob-ably agree to permitting the Secretary of the Treasury to sell gold at discretion for one year.

Mr. F. Waldron, said to be a respectable and responsible gentleman, a member of the Maryand Legislature, has communicated to a committee of Congress the fact that soon after the battle of Antietam, General McClellan had an interview of some three hours with General Lee, the Commander of the rebel forces. In a card published over his own signature, Mr. Waldron states that Gen. Lee came within our lines under his escort, he having received from Gen. McClellan a pledge of personal safety for both, that the interview was held at the suggestion of a mutual friend, and took place two or three days after the battle. The truth or falsity of this statement will no doubt be ascertained in a few days. The Ways and Means Committee have completed their amendments to the Nation-al Bank Bill, establishing a uniform rate of interest of 7 per cent. in all of the States, allowing existing State Banks to retain their distinctive names, and abolishing the numbering of the hanks

Pennsylvania Legislature .--- The act relating to the payment of bounties to volunteers, as it passed the House, provides that all bonds issued by county commissioners or the corporate au-thorities of any ward, or borough, or district school directors for the payment of bounties to Alunteers, made since October 7th, 1868, be le galized and made valid; also all payments of such bounties. The authorities named are authorized and required to complete all contracts made for such payments, and to borrow money and issue bonds to complete such payment or re-fund money previously collected for the purpose; and to levy and collect taxes to meet the interest and principal of such bonds, as other taxes are now levied and collected.

All assessments heretofore made for this purpose are legalized; provided, that the property of non-commissioned officers and privates now in the service, or the families of those who have died in the service, or who have been honorably dis charged after eighteen months service, shall be exempt from such tax. The provisions of the Relief act are extended to the families of all those entering the service under the present call.

General .--- Mr. Chase has formally declined being a candidate for the nomination for the dency at the approaching Baltimore Convention. He says: "It was never more impor tant than now, that all our efforts and all our energies should be devoted to the suppression of the rebellion and to the restoration of order and the recention and to the restoration of order and prosperity on the solid and sure foundation of freedom and impartial justice, and I earnestly urge all with whom my counsels may have weight, to allow nothing to divide them while this great work, in comparison with with which persons and even parties are nothing, remains unaccomplished.

The inauguration of Governor Hahn came off at New Orleans, on the 4th of March. The ceremonies took place in Lafayette Square, and are described as being very grand and imposing. In the middle of the square was erected a circu-Thompson and Vice Presidents Scott and Lomlar platform, fifty feet in diameter, which served as a base to a tall staff, bearing aloft, above all rivals the national standard. From this point as everything in first rate working order. a centre, in a sweep of a half mile, towered an modations and magnitude, was never before tion has been in successful operation for several erected on this continent. On these ranges of seats were comfortably accommodated ten thousand of the loyal children of the public schools, together with ample room for five thousand espe-cially invited guests. At the base of this im-mense amphitheatre was a platform for Gilmore's five hundred musicians, and forty anyils and their "beaters." In the rear of the amphitheatre, projected above the continuous boundary line, thirty-four upright columns, each surmount-ed with a colored glass globe underneath a shield; in this way every State of the Union was represented. Behind all this was stationed, by Gen. Arnold, fifty pieces of brass artillery. Over the centre square, were the festoons of evergreens, and gay signal flags of all nations, and all around were various patriotic motios.

She bore her sufferings with remarkable com-posure and Christian fortitude. For a number years she had been a quiet, consistent member of the Presbyterian Church, and on her death ed gave most comforting evidence to her friends of her interest in Christ. She parted with her friends most tenderly, giving each one an appro-priate word of exhortation, charging all most earnestly to live for Christ, for heaven, and to labor to bring others with them to the better land. To her brother and sisters, after kissing them all good-by, she said, "And now, farewell to you all-meet me in heaven. Oh, if we only neet there, an unbroken family !" A few moments before she became speechless she exclaimed, "Oh! my friends, do not detain me; let me go. of faith in Christ, in early years. Through life he was enabled to maintain a deportment consistent therewith. At the organization of the Presbyterian church of Pisgah, (now in the bounds of the Presbytery of Clarion) on the 2d of July, 1833, he was received on certificate and elected a Buling Elder. There are pleasant memories of his social intercourse, of ervent prayers and pious counsels, cherished by Prospectus. The New-York Theorem, first issued April 10, 1841, has to-day a larger agregate dirculation than any other news-paper published in America, or (we believe) in the world. Compelled a year since to increase the price of its several issues, or submit to the pecuniary ruln of its proprietors from the very maggitude of its circulation, it has probably since parted with Some patrons to whom its remarkable cheapness was a controlling recommendation; but others have taken their places, and it has now more than Two Him-dred Thousand subscribers and regular purchasers—an ex-cess of at least Fifty Thousand over those of any rival. And this unprocedented currency it has achieved by very liberal expenditures in procuring early and authentic in-free employment of ability and industry wherever it might contribute to excellence in any department of our enter-prise, and by mehrinking fidelity to the dictates of Justice, Huganity, and Freedom. By very large outlays for early and authentic advices by who knew him. "He being dead yet peaketh" words of cheer and consolation to a weeping household, and of inspiring example to a sympathizing church. He "sleeps in Jesus." His remains rest with those of many kindred in the churchyard of Pisgah, until that glorious morn when they shall arise clothed in immortal hloom. "Soldier of Christ, well done ! 6. It will remain in tune ten times as long as a piano-forte. AF It may be reasonably said that if these instruments have the great and obvious superiority thus claimed for them, they must have received very warm recommendations Mom professional musicians, who would naturally be most interested in the introduction of such instruments, and who are the best judges of their excellence. Such recommenda-tions have atready been given to them, to an extent uppar-alleled. Among those who have profilered written testimony to their admirable qualities and great desirability, and that they regard them as UNEQUALLED by any other instru-ments of their class, are such well known musicians as LOWELL MASON, THOMAS HASTINGS, WM, B. The Constitutional Convention of Virginia passed the following report of the Committee on Emancipation, to-day, at Alexandria: Your Committee on Emancipation beg leave to introduce the following as a part of the Constitu-tion of Virginia, to be inserted in name and under the caption of slavery, or freedom : 1. Slavery and involuntary servitude, except for orime, is hereby abolished and prohibited in the State forever. 2. The Courts of competent jurisdic-tion may apprentice minors of African descent, on the conditions provided by law for apprenticing white children. 3. The General Assembly shall make no law establishing slavery or recog-nizing property in human beings. There was but one dissenting vote. One hundred guns were fired in honor of the event, and the bells rung throughout the city.

It is understood that Governor Bramlette has addressed earnest remonstrances to the President respecting the enrollment and enlistment of slaves in Kentucky, and has notified the President that he will execute the laws of Kentucky Pershing, the Principal, is remarkably well quali-against all who attempt to take slaves from their find for his important slave, and the owners without their consent. The Columbus Journal announces that Ohio has filed her quota, and is out of the draft. There will be, therefore, no draft in that State on the 1st of April, if this information is cor-

Returns from New-Hampshire are nearly complete, only ten towns remaining out. The fig-ures are: Gilmore, Union, 86,757; Harrington, Dem., 80,759. Gilmore's majority, 5,998. The towns to come in may reduce this a little, but probably not below 5,700. The Councillors are, 4 Union, 1 Democrat-Union gain of 1; the Senate, 9 Union, 8 Democrats—same as last year. The House shows a gain of nearly 20 Unionists, giving on a joint ballot about 75 Union majority against 58 last year.

The Amendment to the Constitution of the State of New-York, permitting the soldiers from that State to vote for State and county officers, wherever they may be stationed, was carried by a large majority of the popular vote.

Gov. Buckingham, of Connecticut, has ap-pointed Friday, the 25th inst., as a day of humiliation and prayer in that State. He says: "I earnestly invite the people to assemble at their usual place of religious worship, and with-out any attempt to conceal 'the wedge of gold,' or to justify themselves before an omniscient God, to recognize the righteousness of his judg-ments, and, with penitential confession of their sins and true repentance, beseech him to cause his anger toward us to cease, to restore unto us the blessings of public peace, and the joys of his salvation."

The publication of Mr. Chase's letter, asking a withdrawal of his name from the Presidentia discussion, forms the great topic of conversation and speculation in all circles. Mr. Chase re-ceives the heartlest praise on all hands, both from Lincoln's organ and others. Many insist that this brings out Fremont with great promi-nence, and others say Butler will now come in. The Democratic papers generally insist that the contest lies between Lincoln and Fremont.
