We notice that Mr. Moorhead, of the 22d Penn'a district, voted for this bill, and Mr. Wilams, of the 28d, against it. The passage of this bill has not yet lowered the price of gold, or stopped speculation in it, as much as was ex-though he has little doubt that the act of Conend to restrain speculation, and prevent sudden fluctuations, and that a judicious use of such power may contribute to some desirable end, he feels bound to add that, in his judgment, nothing can largely or permanently reduce the premium on gold, or even to prevent its increase, except a reduction in expenditure, by taxation, and a diminution in the volume of circulation. Hayti, the remnants of the colony sent out in April last. The colonist failed to find things as they expected. The small pox broke out among them. The persons entrusted with the care of the colony mismanaged it shockingly. Finally their hardships seemed so great that the Secretary of the Interior sent an agent to examine into their condition. His report determined the President to bring them at once, and a ship was sent out last February for them. Four hundred and twenty went out last April; three hundred and sixty-eight, including those born since, are all that are left of them. This, and the revelation that $16,000 out of the fund voted last year for colonization purposes by Congress got into the hands of the agent of the Chiriqui swindle, have pretty effectually ended the schemes of ne-

DIED-Near Port Byron, Rock Island County, illinois, on March 2d, 1864, of lung fever, Mrs. ANNA DAY, wife of Abraham Day, aged fifty-

Her father, Mr. James Plumer, was a Ruling El-der of Glade Run church, in Butler County, Pa which church she spent her childhood and youth under the ministry of Rev. Reed Bracken. Her religious training was careful and thorough. The pious teaching, example, and prayers of her parents and her minister were not in vain in the ord, for she early gave her heart to God; and, shortly after her marriage to Mr. Day, in her eighteenth year, she made a public profession o her faith in Christ, in the church of Bull Creek, then under the pastoral care of Rev. Abraham Boyd. From the time of her connection with the hurch until her death, she bore testimony to the excellency of the religion of Christ. Her piety was of that humble and retiring character which s seen and felt most in the humble walks of do mestic life. She was a faithful and devoted wife, a tender-hearted and prudent mother, and a kind and obliging neighbor. Her attachment to the doctrines of the Presbyterian Church, in which she was brought up, was strong and un-wavering, though for the few last years of her life, owing to location, she had but few opportunities of enjoying the public means of grace in the Church of her heart's preference. She loved the Sabbath and the sanctuary, the Word and the worship of God. Her delight was in religion and in religious conversation with those in whom she had confidence, as the writer of this brief sketch can testify, who had, as her dying request, the pleasant but mournful task of preachng her funeral sermon. Her end was peace. Death had no terrors for her, for Christ, her ransom, had robbed the mon-ster of his sting, and made her descent to the tomb one of hope, and joy, and triumph. She left behind her a blessed testimony to the preiousness of Christ in the dying hour, which will doubtless assuage the grief of the bereaved hus-

CABINET ORGANS

FAMILIES, CHURCHES AND SCHOOLS. ADAPTED TO Sacred and Secular Church and

Home Music. Prices: $85, $100, $110, $135, $165, $260. and upwards, according to number of stops and style of case. By They are elegant as pieces of furniture, occupy little space, are not liable to get out of order, and every one is warranted for five years.

The CABINET ORGANS, introduced about a year sines, and manufactured exclusively by MASON & HAMILIN, have met with success unprecedented in the history of musical instruments. Supplying a long-felt want, they have been received with the greatest favor by the musical profession and the public, have already been very widely introduced, and the demand for them is still rapidly increasing, and must continue to increase as their merits become known. They are to private houses, Sunday Schools and smaller churches, all that the larger pipe-organs are to large churches. In addition to this, they are admirably adapted to the performance of Secular as well as Sacred Music.

The CABINET ORGAN is essentially different from, and a very great improvement upon all instruments of the Melodeon or Harmonium kind. Its superior excellence consists in many important characteristics, among which are:

1. The more organ-like character of its tone.

2. It has greatly more power and volume of tone in proportion to its cost.

3. By the employment of a very simple and beautiful invention, its capacity for expression is made vastly greater than has ever before been attained in such instruments. This invention is especially valuable, because so vely any practice is necessary to render it available. Any dinary preformer can muster it in an hour or two.

4. It admits of great rapidity of execution, adapting it to the performance of a greater variety of lively secular music.

5. No instrument is less liable to get out of order. warranted for five years.

5. No instrument is less liable to get out of order.
6. It will remain in tune ten times as long as a plano-6. It will remain in tune ten times as long as a pianoforte.

43 It may be reasonably said that if these instruments have the great and obvious superiority thus claimed for them, they must have received very warm recommendations from professional musicians, who would naturally be most interested in the introduction of such instruments, and who are the best judges of their excellence. Such recommendations have already been given to them, to an extent unparalleled. Among those who have proffered written testimony to their admirable qualities and great desirability, and that they regard them as UNEQUALLED by any other instruments of their class, are such well known musicians as LOWELL MASON, THOMAS HASTINGS, WM. B. BRADBURY, OEORGE F. ROOT, Ac. the most distinguished organists in the country, as CUTLER, of Triaity church, N. Y., MORGAN, of Grace church; ZUNDEL, of Mr. Becher's church; BRAUN, WELS, WILCOX, TUCKERMAN, ZERRAUN, etc.; such celebrated pianists as GOTTSCHALK, WM. MASON. MILLS, SANDERSON, STRAKOSCH. etc. In brief, more than two hundred musicians, including a large portion of the most eminent in the country, have tesfied to this effect. Each CABINET ORGAN is securely boxed, so that it can be sent safely to any part of the country.

Mrs. Smith was a member of the Newport Presbyterian church, and adorned the doctrines of Christ her Saviour in all the walks of life. Her disposition was peculiarly mild and kind. Her piety was sincere, and without display. She loved the house of God. The worship of the Most High was her delight. Death has been said to love a shining mark, and few more distinguished in private life could be found than the subject of this brief memoir. Grace made her life beautiful, and it made her death even nore beautiful. In the near prospect of death, she manifested the serenest peace, the most un-clouded hope, and the completest victory over the last great enemy. God has called her to her higher home and to her angel children; and

It is with more than ordinary feelings of sorow that we chronicle the death of this estimable roung man; and as yet, we can scarcely realize hat he is forever removed from our midst. But few weeks have clapsed since-in the fulness of life, of hope, and of patriotism—he enlisted in Company K, 53d Reg. Penn'a Veteran Volun-teers, of which his father and two elder brothers have been members since its organization in 1861. He was immediately transferred to Camp Copeland, where he contracted measles, which for want of proper care and treatment while in camp, developed pneumonia, of which he died. Gifted with talents of no ordinary kind, natually tender and affectionate in his disposition, and having a singularly pleasing address and appearance, he was eminently calculated to gain the affections of those with whom he was thrown in contact, and few persons of his aga could claim so wide a circle of friends, whose confisessed and whose respect he retained to the final close of his earthly career.
